Neb. State Historical Society

THE FRONTIER

VOL. LVI.

FATHER LEAHY TO BE ASSISTANT AT

Rev. P. F. Burke, Chaplain At The as road overseers for the two dis- North Central Nebraska Cregihton Good Shepherd Home, Omaha, Will Be Assistant Here.

Last Thursday, Rev. B. J. Leahy, assistant at St. Patrick's church in this city for the past seven and Jan. 17 a half years, received notice of his Jan. 18 appointment as assistant pastor of Jan. 19 Holy Angels church in Omaha, and Jan. 20 expects to leave for his new pas-Jan. 21 Jan. 22 torate about Tuesday of next week. Jan. 23

Father Leahy has made hundreds of friends in this city and vicinity INSTITUTE REPORT during his stay here and these friends are not all members of his congregation. His friends, while regretting to see him leave O'Neill, are rejoicing in the fact that the AAA Attempted To Make Payment transfer is a well merited promotion for him. No matter where he may be stationed in the future he will have the best wishes of O'Neill citizens generally for his future welfare and happiness.

about the middle of next week.

Holt's 4-H Clubs Place High In Completion of Year's Poultry Work

Holt county was one of the two producers improved greatly behighest counties in the state in the members out of 117 who started other factors was less certain. last spring completed their projects. These members are receiving their certificates of achievement at the present time.

was awarded the Burlington lead-

James Carney, incumbents, were CREIGHTON ALUMNI re-elected as overseers for the two districts north of the city and Bert AN OMAHA CHURCH Shoemaker and Clayton Messner, also incumbents, were re-elected > tricts in the southern part of the township.

> > The Weather

High Low

Golden Hotel last Tuesday evening, 5 .36 -12--10 -14 15 33 33 -18 counties of Holt, Boyd and Ante--17 lope, and the promoters of the meeting are convinced that many more would have been present had SHOWS DROUTH IS it not been for the inclement

HOG PRICE RAISER weather.

Mois.

As Large As Possible For Contracted Reduction.

By James R. Lowell

ers $170,000,000.

a study of the AAA program has and publicity director, and Rev. B. your money into the office before Father Leahy will be succeeded been secured from the Brookings J. Leahy, of this city. Mr. Pelle- that date.

D. A. Fitzgerald, agricultural afterward Marchie Schwartz made fore the closing date. Now is the the "economic status of livestock athletics.

GATHERING IS HELD

Club Organized. J. P. Marron,

of O'Neill Is President.

AT HOTEL TUESDAY

Part of the entertainment put on | Harry Scott Files For tween 1932 and 1936" but that how by the alumni of this city for their number of completions in 4-H much of this was due to the AAA visitors was a solo dance by Miss Poultry Club work. Seventy-two and how much to the drouth and Marian Jeannette Kubitschek, accompanied on the piano by her He said the drouth was a major mother, and two solo selections by factor and the AAA a minor fac- Frank A. Meyer, accompanied by tor in the hiking of livestock prices, Mrs. Herman Nelson. At the conclusion of the picture but concluded hog producers' in-Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, of Page, comes were 7 per cent larger than display the alumni organized the they would have been without the North Central Nebraska Creighton ership trip to club week next AAA and that the program was Club and elected the following ofspring. This award is given to the responsible for corn producers get- ficers for the ensuing year: President, J. P. Marron, O'Neill; Vice

Hospital Notes

Max Wolf was operated on for chronic appendicitis Saturday. He s convalescing nicely.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1936.

Madedyn Hynes, of St. Mary's academy was brought in Monday morning with an attack of pneumonia. She is improved very much About fifty alumni of Creighton at the present writing,

A. D. Brown, of Atkinson, met university met at a banquet at the with an auto accident on highway has encountered the coldest weathwhich was called for the purpose of No. 20 near here Monday and was er of the season during the past organizing a North Central Ne- brought to the hospital for first aid week and in some of the states the braska Creighton Club. The fifty treatment. He went home on the thermometer dropped lower than alumni present represented the west bound train that evening.

> Readers Showing Ready Response To $1 A Year Offer On Subscriptions

After the banquet talks were de- have called during the past three livered by Father Quinn, of Omaha, weeks and renewed their subscrip- then on Wednesday morning it chairman of the Athletic Board of tion for the coming year. Remem- dropped to 8 below at 6 o'clock, Creighton university; Marchie ber, the offer of The Frontier for 13 below at 8 o'clock and 18 below Schwartz, athletic director and $1.00 per year expires on Feb. 8, at 10 o'clock. It moderated a little former Notre Dame football star; 1936, and in order to take advant- during the afternoon rising three For the benelt of this newspaper, F. E. Pellegrin, alumni secretary age of this offer you should get degrees but it clung to 15 below here by Rev. P. F. Burke, who for Institute of Washington, D. S., on grin displayed pictures of football During the past three weeks we morning it was 17 below zero and several months has been chaplain a non-partisan basis. This study games that had been participated have added a large number of new was around zero at noon today. at the Good Shepherds home at credits the 1934 corn-hog reduction in by Creighton teams. During readers and the number is increas-Omaha. He is expected to arrive and other emergency activities of the exhibition of the pictures the ing every day. If you want the the farm administration with boost- alumni entertained the boys of the leading paper in the county you economist who made the study, said a special talk to the boys on time to square up your subscription.

Commissioner of Nebraska, has filed for the Republican nomina- Lincoln:

tion for Railway Commissioner. Mr. Scott was County Clerk of was appointed Tax Commissioner its grip. by Governor Weaver.

HOLT COUNTY AND MIDWEST SHIVER IN SEVERE COLD WAVE from blocked roads on their routes

A Low of 18 Below Zero Recorded In O'Neill Wednesday At 10 O'clock In The Morning.

Nebraska, as well as practically every northern state in the union, it has for several years. Starting in on Wednesday night of last week it dropped to 7 below; Friday morning it was 5 above; Saturday morning 12 below zero; Sunday, 10 below and it clung to zero nearly A large number of our readers all day; Monday morning 14 below zero; Tuesday morning, 1 above; > zero all day, the coldest day in this city for a long time. This season.

"Eastern Nebraska Wednesday night faced the possiblity of exand Chevenne, winds were reported from the west. "Bus line reported no difficulty

Wednesday evening, tho pavements were said to be slick in places, Cut of Twelve Tousand In Poor

"Railroads reported their trains running on schedule from the west and south."

ARTICHOKE WILL BE INTRODUCED HERE AS A DROUTH CROP

Seed And Contract To Buy Crop From Grower.

state.

artichoke business for several iers' relief, $200.

We have had flurries of snow years and says that as an indusduring the week and the ground is trial crop it cannot be excelled as 1936 over that of 1935 is elections, now covered with six or eight it is a sure yield in dry years when $7,000, there being no estimate for ing the nation's corn-hog produc- O'Neill High school and St. Mary's can get it for $1.00 per year, if inches of snow, which pleases the other crops fail. The tubers are elections last year; interest on academy. During the display and you get in your subscription be- farmers as they say it gives evid- planted like potatoes and has no court house bonds, $1,830. ence of lots of moisture for next natural enemies. It is claimed that it is unexcelled as food for cattle, Severe cold has gripped the en- sheep and hogs, and Mr. Johnson lished in The Frontier last week, tire middle west and cold records says he is firmly convinced that the following registered warrants Railway Commissioner of several years standing have fal- this plant will be grown in various are unpaid: County general fund, Harry W. Scott, former Tax len. The following account is from parts of the country for the pro- $56,913.89; county road fund, $13,the Nebraska State Journal, of duction of power alcohol and sugar in which it is rich in content.

COUNTY EXPENSE ESTIMATE IS DOWN OVER 13 THOUSAND

No. 36

And Blind Fund A Large

The members of the Holt County Board of Supervisors, at their meeting last Friday, adopted an estimate of expenses for the county for the year 1936 and fixed the figure at $115,230 as compared to $128,350 for the year 1935, or $13,-Hastings Company Will Furnish 120 less than last year's estimate.

The greatest reduction in the 1936 estimate is in the county poor and blind fund, which was reduced Former Congressman Fred G. from $30,000 in 1935 to $18,000 for Johnson, president of the United the year 1936, or a reduction of Artichoke company, of Hastings, $12,000; county judgment fund was accompanied by K. D. Wray and reduced $8,000 from $23,000 to M. L. Hall, field men for the com- $15,000; mothers' pensions reduced pany, were in the city last Tues- $2,000 from $3,500 to $1,500. The day and Mr. Johnson addressed a other reductions made were in the meeting of the Tigers Club on the following: Printing and supplies, possibility of growing Jerusalem $500; courts and juries, $1,000; artichokes in this section of the building and repairs, $1,000; justice and misdeameanor, $50; insane, Mr. Johnson has been in the $250; board of health, $200; sold-

Increases in the estimate for

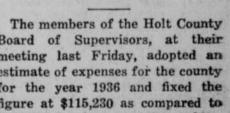

According to the semi-annual report of the county treasurer, pub-050.07.

In addition to the above the fol-The company, of which Mr. John- lowing claims were on file in the son is president, is making con- office of the county clerk on Dec. Pawnee county two terms, begin- periencing the lowest temperature tracts with farmers who desire to 15, 1935, which had not been alning in 1917. He also served as in seventeen years as "the rawest raise the plant, and will furnish lowed: County general fund, $16,-Assistant State Tax Commissioner cold wave since the turn of the them the seed and contract with 793.96; county bridge fund, $12,for six years prior to the time he century" held this section locked in the grower to take the crop at, I 356.86; county orage fund, $12,think he said, $14.50 per ton. As county road relief fund, $1,430 60;

"Thruout the middlewest the it has been known to produce five county road dragging fund, $166.30, mostly in towns.

Reduction Item.

outstanding club leader in each county thru which the Burlington passes.

Miss Margery Rees, O'Neill, was awarded the outstanding poultry dub member premium in the form of a trip to club week in Lincoln, donated by the Crete Mills, of Crete, Nebr. These mills are also awarding 100 pounds of feed to each of three club members who ranked high in their individual clubs. The awards will be made as soon as records can be checked.

Former President Gets A Great Ovation On His

Ex-President Hoover addressed an enormous crowd at Lincoln last income of one group gained and Thursday night, it being one of a series of speeches that he has been delivering in different parts of the greatly. United States during the past few months. According to press reports he was tendered an ovation by the immense crowd which must have warmed his heart after the tremendous slaughter he received at the polls in November, 1932. His discussion of the affairs of first three years the AAA was in the country and the enormous debt that is being piled on posterity by the New Deal and its proponents brought tumultous applause from major change in hog supplies was his vast audience, and his analysis due to the 1934 drouth and not to of affairs of state demonstrated that he is a close student of American affairs with the faculty of imparting his knowledge to others in a way that they, too, could understand. When Mr. Hoover left Lincoln he must have been impressed with the fact that Nebraska is a long ways from being the "enemy's country" as it was in the fall of 1932.

Grattan Township Re-elects Officers

The electors of Grattan township 1933-34-perhaps 50 cents-and held their annual meeting in the somewhat lower in 1934-35-perlargest attended of any meeting tural adjustment program. Change the variuos officers were received, are not necessarily an indication of triple A is certain to reduce car ritory, will on June 6, 1936, ob- ily at Norfolk all day, reaching 19 want history to repeat. including a report from the library change in the economic status of sales temporarily, but I am certain serve its seventy-fifth anniversary below zero at 6 p. m. board. The financial condition of hog producers. Costs and AAA Washington will do something and by publishing a historical Diamond the township is in good shape, with benefit payments, as well as vol- a permanent farm program will be Jubilee Edition. a balance of $2,000 in the general ume of sales are mentioned as oth- set up. The business outlook for fund and no levy was made this er factors.

ne road fund.

ting $64,000,000 extra income. "The $170,000,000 increase in in- President, Dr. F. J. Kubitschek, pork supply that was available.

Fitzgerald reports.

said.

ers as a group, as a result of the terfield, Neligh; Treasurer, J. Earl publican State Central committee. emergency hog marketing cam- Harper, Spencer. paign, relief purchases of hogs, and Treasurer's Office the 1934 corn-hog reduction program was not uniformly distribut-Kept Very Busy ed among individual producers," Treasurer Winchell and his office force have been going in high since While farmers have benefited, the first of the year, in fact since December 1, 1935. Practically state railway commission. the taxpayers will foot the bill, he every day there are long lines of "A casual inspection may lead to the conclusion that some gains acthe year 1936 and pay the tax on should make him a very valuable crued to farmers as a result of the AAA corn-hog program, and that their car, which must be paid be- man in the position he seeks.

were adversely affected-that the that no other group lost. This is truck licenses this year. not entirely correct. The income of farmers was increased, tho not

"A small part of the increase of this paper: was diverted from the distributing AAA is nothing to get excited over. have always been able to do." industry; the remainder has been Car sales for the next 30 to 60 paid largely from the processing days probably will be curtailed. DAKOTA'S BIRTH TO BE taxes or from general taxes." After that sales will be better than Fitzgerald says that during the ever and before the year is out we effect, consumers were not greatly will be glad the AAA was killed. affected by its livestock program. A farm program will be devised on He says this was solely because the a more solid basis. I have handled the Nash line since 1918 and am more optimistic now than any year the AAA. He concludes also that before."

the processing tax did not cause Ed O'Shea: "The AAA death consumers to pay more for the car sales, setting such sales back In crediting the AAA with being at least three months in Nebraska. responsible for an increase in corn- The state's only industry is agrihog income, Fitzgerald noted that culture and we must have some program similar to AAA if retail the "AAA took the precaution to make the contract financially at- business is to continue good. Protractive, and indeed attempted to spects will brighten considerably if make the payments large enough farmers are convinced they will get the additional payments con-to guarrantee the signer a larger income than the non-signer." tracted for and congress works out a feasible farm legislative pro-He concludes that market prices for hogs were somewhat higher in gram."

Al DuTeau: "Reaction to the supreme court decision has made the year is hopeful." the bridge fund and a levy suffi- of members of an industry which adjusted satisfactorily in the near and date of arrival in Dakota, or the east would bring about a halt sey, of Omaha, Grand Master of

for the township Ed Matthews and year. Four leading automobile permanent feature."

During the year 926 and 1927 come obtained by corn-hogproduc- O'Neill; Secretary, Alvin A. But- he served as secretary of the Re-

During the time that Mr. Scott the lowest temperatures in weather was connected with the State Tax buerau records were attained. Department he had on opportunity to become familiar with valuations of railroad companies, telephone companies and other properties whose rates are regulated by the nesday was 62 degrees from Oma-The experience he has had in ha to Sidney. At Lincoln at 6 p. m. taxpayers waiting at the office to public affairs and his wide acquaint- it was 11 below and the prediction secure their automobile license for ance over the State of Nebraska for late Wednesday night and early Thursday morning was for even colder weather.

Address At Capitol City neither distributors nor consumers fore the license is issued. Up to "I expect to make a campaign and including January 22 the office for this office on the record which predicted a temperature of 20 be- good time to help the kids out by The assets of the Page State had issued 1,000 automobile and I have already established in other low for Thursday morning, which flooding the ice rink at the corner bank sold for $1,200 to Mr. Sullivan public offices which I have filled," would be the coldest since Jan. 11, of Seventh and Douglas streets, of Kansas. said Mr. Scott. "I have always 1918, when the thermometer drop- and he proceeded to do so. He was dealers of Lincoln have been inter- felt that the success of a public of- ped to 23 below. The lowest temp- alone in the undertaking and he viewed for the benefit of readers ficer depends upon his ability to erature ever recorded in the capitol had a tussle with the large hose get along with people and accord city was 29 below in January of with the result that he got a good F. A. Roehl-"Demise of the everybody fair treatment. This I 1892.

OBSERVED IN YANKTON

Yankton, S. D .-- Celebration of the seventy-first anniversary of the creation of Dakota Territory by ford, Weeping Water, Syracuse, was saturated when he fell into proclamation of President Abraham Humbolt, Lincoln, Wymore, Tecum- the water. In a short time he was Lincoln in April, 1861, is planned seh, Table Rock and Wilber. by the city of Yankton, first capitol of the Territory, with a pageant and homecoming program durcaused a considerable let-down in ing the week of June 7, this year. Dakota Territory as originally created comprised the present states of South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana and Wyoming, and portions of Idaho and Nebraska. Yankton, located on the Missouri river, was a natural gateway into the territory.

> Pioneers of Dakota of 60 years or more ago, wherever now residing, are to be special guests of the city at this celebration.

or more ago, wherever they may the torn of the century.

200. There was no levy made for ka may best be judged by the views fident the farm situation will be names, present place of residence, Wednesday night. A shifting to was attended by William C. Ram- Michigan.

celebration.

temperature plummeted to record to eight tons per acre this would or a total of $39,558.22. low readings as the year's worst prove very profitable to the grower. cold wave struck. Many deaths

Unlike sugar beets, artichokes were reported as, in some places, are cultivated like potatoes and can be taken care of with ordinary corn plows, and does not require "Strangely, as the mercury hit the hand weeding that is necessary unusual lows in the eastern porfor the successful growth of sugar tions of the state, temperatures beets. Several local farmers have rose in the western sections. The been thinking about trying the temperature range at 5 p. m. Wedplant out and we may know more about it in another year.

Mayor Floods Skate Pond This includes all the property of hanging around zero all day, Mayor posed of except that now involved "The Lincoln weather bureau Kersenbrock thought it would be a in litigation.

soaking. To cap the climax when

"Snow falls reported were: Ash- he attempted to pick up the hose, land and Plattsmouth, 3 inches; after it had run about fifteen or Valparaiso, 2; David City, 3; Ne- twenty minutes, he slipped, falling braska City, 3; Auburn, Gresham into the water and the portions of and Stromsberg, one-half. Light his anatomy that did not get wet snows fell at Seward, York, Mil- in direct contact with the hose a modern snowman, with his "So swiftly did the cold strike clothes frozen solid. John got a

Nebraska that weather bureaus severe cold out of the undertaking, were forced to hastily revise their but he was undaunted and had the forecasts for Wednesday night and job completed Wednesday morning Thursday. Early Wednesday morn- so the boys will now have a good ing the Lincoln bureau predicted place to skate.

rising temperatures and snow in Lincoln Thursday, with Wednesday night's "lowest temperature Meek country Wednesday. Frank 1932 and 1934 but went down to about zero.' Less than twelve hours says that altho it was 19 below defeat in both elections, although later, it was warning Lincoln resid- zero when he left home it was a he greatly reduced the democratic ents to prepare for '20 below.'

"Representative temperatures at days of long ago, when 30 and 40 believes this is going to be a re-6 p. m. Wednesday were: Omaha below were rather common in this publican year and he would like to -14, Lincoln -12, Grand Island section. He is also very optimistic again head the state ticket. -12, Cozad 8 above, North Platte about the coming year as he re-

16 above, Big Springs 45 above, members that in the old days when In conjunction with the celebra- Sidney 46 above, and Cheyenne, we had a good cold winter and lots the national agricultural depart-Public Library in this city last haps $1.25-than they would have a marked difference in volume of tion commemorating the creation Wyo., 43 above. Randolph had a of snow that we had lots of mois- ment predicted that grasshoppers Tuesday afternoon and it was the been in the absence of the agricul- sales. Farmers depended on the of the Territory the Yankton Press temperature reading of 19 below ture during the summer months are to do most damage next sum-$12,000,000 yet unpaid under AAA and Dakotan, first surviving news- zero early Wednesday morning, and were blessed with bountiful mer in south central Montana, held for several years. Reports of in market prices, he said, however, contracts. Doing away with the paper to be published in the Ter-

> "United Air Lines observers said Judge R. R. Dickson, Peter Tod- ground than one year ago. In 1935, eastern Nebraska was just on the son, L. G. Gillespie, C. W. Porter, the report said in only a few spots year for that fund. The levy for Just what the adverse decision Fred S. Sidles: "I don't believe now be residing, are being urged "A twelve mile an hour wind over to Butte last Monday evening true of eastern Nebraska and the library fund was raised $200, of the U.S. supreme court on the knocking out the AAA will affect to send to the Yankton Press and from the north was reported by and attended a meeting of the Kansas. western Iowa, southern being increased from $1,000 to $1,- AAA means to business in Nebras- our sales appreciably. I am con- Dakotan as early as possible their the airlines station at Lincoln Masonic lodge of that city. which Wisconsin and a small part of ient to raise $1,000 was made for depends largely upon agriculture future. The AAA was all right as of birth if they were Dakota-born, to the falling temperatures and the Masonic order in the state. and which experienced an outstani- an emergency measure but was not in order that special invitations perhaps a rise. East winds were The boys say they had a nice time Monday on business in several In the election of road overseers ing increase in volume of sales last conducive to best business as a may be sent to them to attend the reported at Cozad and North and that the highway was in good towns, perhaps in several states, Platte. At Big Springs, Sidney, condition.

Assets Of Defunct Banks Are Sold

E. H. Luikart, of Lincoln, receiver of the Citizens State bank of Stuart, and the Page State bank, was in the city Thursday morning and had a sale of the assets of these banks at the court house. The assets of the Citizens State bank sold to Charles Peterson, of southwest Holt county, for $4,300. Last Sunday, with the mercury the bank that had not been dis-

Fifty New Cars Since The First of the Year

That the sale of automobiles has been very good in this county since January 1, 1936, is evidenced by the fact that fifty new cars have been registered in the office of the county treasurer since the first of the year, up to and including January 22. From this it would seem that automobile dealers are in for the best year they have had in many years.

Grisweld Again In Gubernatorial Race

Dwight Griswold, of Gordon, has again filed for the republican nomination for governor. Dwight Frank Nelson was in from the was the nominee in the elections of nice day and a reminder of the majorities in both campaigns. He

A press release Wednesday said peninsula of Michigan. It is certain there are less eggs in the Pioneers of Dakota of 60 years edge of the rawest cold wave since Archie Bowen, R. M. Sauers, H. L. were eggs more numerous than Lindberg and F. M. Reece drove they were in 1934 and this was

> Gen Lydon plans to leave here for the O'Nei'l Photo company.

