COMING TO O'NEILL

Beautiful, Reverent, Awe-Inspiring and Immortal is this story of the greatest triumph the world has ever known. Pre-eminently the greatest production ever shown on the screen. Acclaimed by world-famed divines as the most reverent picturization of the supreme tragedy of the ages.

EVERYONE WELCOME

Bring the entire family. This picture is worth driving miles to see.
Rev. A. J. MAY, Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. William Hershberger and John O'Donnell were business callers in Stuart Saturday afternoon.

MEEK AND VICINITY

John A. Robertson had quite a bad accident last Friday while helping his son Dick but hay in the barn. He fell through a trap door, striking on the manger, breaking his collar bone, cracking a rib and there were several minor injuries. While the injuries are very painful we are glad no worse injury was sustained.

This community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Carl Grant at Dorsey. While the family never lived in this immediate neighborhood he was quite well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoyer are now living in O'Neill and Charlie is hauling cream from the country to O'Neill.

Frank Griffith had the misfortune to lose one of his best horses last week.

Mrs. A. L. Borg spent Friday at the Sam Robertson home attending to the work there while Mr. and Mrs. Robertson were at Stuart with Mrs. Robertson's father, Will Walters.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Frank Nelson on Thursday. Quite a few were not able to attend on account of sickness and the roads were far from being good at that time.

Miss Hazel McDonald and Mrs. Goldie Liddy motored to Columbus and Genoa on Saturday to visit relatives, also to bring Mrs. McDonald home. She has been visiting at Genoa for some time. They visited at the Hans Egger home at Columbus, Mrs. Eggers being the former Anita Liddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mariedy Hubby motored down from Atkinson Sunday evening bringing a group of young people for the Mission. They put on a very interesting program at the Paddock Union church. Quite a large crowd attended, the roads kept some from attending who would otherwise have been there.

Mrs. Ralph Ernst has been staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Robertson, for several days helping with the work since her father's injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Mariedy Hubby and children and Miss Helen Murray of Atkinson spent the first of the week visiting at the Eric Borg home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McDonald are the proud parents of a ten pound boy, born on April 7th, at Lynch. All concerned are doing nicely. "Happy" is really happy now. Mrs. McDonald was formerly Velma Chambers, of Lynch.

Funeral services for Will Walters were held at the Pleasant Valley church Tuesday afternoon. A large crowd attended. Mr. Walters was taken to the Stuart hospital a week ago Saturday and underwent an operation. He suffered a great deal of the time from the operation until death claimed him. He was a good friend and neighbor and will be greatly missed. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss.

Albert Kaczor has been having serious sickness among his cattle and has lost some and has several sick at this writing. They seem to think it is caused by poison of some kind in the feed.

Miss Maude Rouse, of O'Neill, was an overnight guest at the Howard Rouse home on Monday.

PLEASANT DALE

Quite a few farmers attended the soil conservation meeting at the court house in O'Neill on Saturday afternoon.

Donald Scott, of Atkinson, did practice teaching in district 76 last week. Miss Helen Dvorak is the regular teacher.

George Weber and daughters, Pauline and Attilia, of Stuart, were dinner guests at the Joe Winkler home Thursday.

Mrs. Carl Lorenz and son, Glenn, Mrs. William Ernst and daughter, Evelyn, Mrs. Clarence Ernst and son, James and Mrs. Margaret Gray visited Mrs. Verne Beckwith in O'Neill Tuesday.

Superintendent Clarence McClurg visited Pleasantdale school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coleman and family of Phoenix visited Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith Sunday afternoon.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Segar on Tuesday March 31.

Glenn Lorenz has infection in his left hand. He had to stay home from school for several days last week.

A prize winning letter written by Herman Janzing is published in the last issue of the Nebraska Farmer. Congratulations, Herman.

Harold Segar and Kenneth Frohardt drove up from Norfolk Saturday evening to get Mrs. Segar and children, who had been visiting here for some time. They returned home Sunday evening.

BRIEFLY STATED

H. G. Asher, of Page, was transacting business in this city Tuesday.

George Van Every has been stationed at Burwell the last week on highway work.

Miss Helen Murphy came up from Omaha Wednesday for a few days visit with the home folks.

Fred Woods, of Fremont, visited here last Saturday at the home of Chief of Police and Mrs. Chester Calkins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lydon visited here several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lydon, leaving for home Monday.

Mrs. W. J. Biglin and children left this afternoon for Jackson, where they will spend Easter with relatives and friends.

Mary Joan Finley, who is attending Duschene college in Omaha, came up Wednesday night to spend the Easter vacation with the home folks.

Edward Kirkpatrick spent the week end here Saturday. Edward is stationed in a CCC camp within the corporate limits of Madison, Nebr.

Ed O'Donnell came up from North Platte last Friday and spent Saturday and Sunday visiting with relatives and friends in the old home town.

Glenn J. Bragg and Miss Clara Cook, both of Venus, were granted a marriage license in the county court last Friday and thereafter
