They do say that Governor Landon rode in a horse-drawn vehicle during his vacation out west. Which is more apt to raise the dust than Vincent Astor's yacht. Up to this time we haven't noticed where the Brain Trust allotted money to repair the Sidewalks of New York.

Chris Spindler was up from Milford this week renewing acquaintance with old friends of this community. Melvin Ruzicke, manager of the Gamble store, started on his annual vacation of two weeks last Sunday and accompanied by Mrs. Ruzicka, they left for Redfield, S. D., where they will spend a week visiting at the home of her parents and will then go to Clarkson, Nebr., for a visit at the home of his parents and with other relatives there. Mayor John Kersenbrock went to the scene of the fire at the Gallagher place, near Inman, Monday night. Thirteen stacks of hay were burned and some splendid cottonwood trees were killed by the fire. The mayor says no telling how far the fire would have swept had not it been got out at the railroad track. The origin seems not to be known.

Hope Will Direct G.O.P. Farm Group

Agricultural Division to Work With Township Committees.

Chicago.—Practical farmers will take an active part in directing the Republican campaign in rural areas, Congressman Clifford D. Hope of Garden City, Kas., announced in assuming the directorship of the Farm Division of the Republican National Committee.

In each agricultural state, an advisory council is to be set up. This council is to be composed of practical "dirt" farmers who will supply the basic suggestions for the campaign.

Three assistant directors have been appointed to aid Congressman Hope. They are Don L. Berry of Indianola, Iowa, publisher of the Indianola Record; E. H. Taylor of Yates Center, Kansas, for 12 years assistant editor of The Country Gentleman, and Congressman Francis D. Culin of Oswego, New York, an authority on dairying and active in legislation affecting dairy farmers.

"The Republican farm campaign is going to have its roots out in the farm districts," said Congressman Hope. "The farmers themselves will tell us what they want and how they feel about things."

INSURANCE SCANDAL

HAUNTS GOV. COCHRAN As Governor Cochran's campaign for re-election gets under way, nothing is said to be giving him more concern than the prospect that the voters of Nebraska may learn some facts about the scandal in Nebraska's Insurance Department.

When the Governor discharged Conn Moose as head of the Insurance Department he lost the support of every owner of a life insurance policy who know the facts. Mr. Moose is a high grade, capable insurance man and stands well among the people who know him best. His appointment by the Governor was commendable. But after taking office Mr. Moose found several things wrong in the department; found that policy holders were losing many thousands of dollars because certain companies were not properly regulated and supervised. Mr. Moose decided that so long as he headed the department of insurance, policy holders would be protected. This did not meet with the approval of some of the Governor's powerful political friends who were interested in the insurance business, so they insisted Mr. Moose be removed from office. Governor Cochran yielded to their pressure, and Mr. Moose was "let-out," punished for upholding the rights of policy holders and stepping on the toes of the Governor's political allies. However, ninety percent of the reputable insurance men know what was done and are supporting Dwight Griswold for the governorship this year.

Holders of life insurance policies have lost thousands of dollars in recent years through the failure of the insurance department's to protect their interests. As the policy holders learn the facts, they, too, are becoming biter in condemnation of Governor Cochran's attitude and eager to vote for a change.

American stores are now selling hams from Poland, which shows how the AAA and Cordell Hull's reciprocity tariff have helped out the United States farmer.
