

Moroccans Take Part in Spanish War

African Troops Are Resented by Loyal Spaniards

This picture of four Moroccan soldiers gives an idea of the type of fighting men imported to Spain by the rebel commander, Gen. Francisco Franco, to aid in the bloody war on the loyalist government of President Azana.

Many native Spaniards have resented the importation of foreign troops, and it is believed to have alienated the support of many rebel sympathizers. While no one can doubt the value of the Moroccans as fighting men, the invasion of the Moors centuries ago still lingers in the minds of the Spanish people.

British diplomats are making desperate efforts to prevent intervention in Spain. The failure of Portugal to join in a general pact has been a disturbing factor. Portugal has declared she must retain freedom to act should Communist propaganda menace internal security.

Bumper Crops in the Pacific Northwest

While North Central states recount their drought losses, the Pacific Northwest harvests bumper crops. In this picture, made near Walla Walla, Wash., a combined harvester-thresher is seen clinging to the steep hillside as it moves in narrowing circles around the field.

They Won Gotham Freckles Contest

Judges Choose 'Most Freckled' Boy and Girl

Here are the boy and girl adjudged to have the most and best freckles in Greater New York. They are Patricia Gallagher, fourteen, of Staten Island, and Charles Cochran, of Queens. Six hundred children competed in the contest.

Just how the judges arrived at the decision is unknown. Some of the entrants were so nearly completely covered with freckles that any choice seemed unfair. However, Patricia Gallagher and Charles Cochran were finally declared the winners.

SOME SWORDFISH!

J. B. Weaver, director of the steamboat inspection service of the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., and the 169-pound marlin swordfish he caught at Santa Catalina island on tested 24 thread line with breaking strength of 60 pounds, weighed on the Tuna club scales after having been conquered by Mr. Weaver in a spectacular 25 minute battle in the famous sword-fishing banks off Santa Catalina island, 25 miles from the coast of Southern California.

You're the Judge

Listen to others, but do not blindly depend on them.

If you feel...

- tired
- run-down
- nervous
- out of sorts

THERE is usually a definite reason for such complaints...so, now let's reason sensibly.

Don't try to get well in a day...this is asking too much of Nature. Remember, she has certain natural processes that just cannot be hurried.

Therefore, if you are pale, tired, lack a keen appetite, have lost weight and feel rundown...a frequent sign that your blood-cells are weak, with a tendency towards anemia—then do try in the simple, easy way so many millions approve—by starting a course of S.S.S. Blood Tonic to feel like yourself again. © S.S.S. Co.

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination; backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

Japanese Priests Prepare for War

Drill Daily for Day When War Will Come

With bayonets belted to their priestly robes and rifles over their shoulders, the clean shaven young priests of the Sodo sect of the Buddhists engage in military drill on the grounds of their temple in Japan. A military officer from the nearest garrison comes to drill them every morning.

Japan's successes in Manchukuo and the general belief that sooner or later war will come has aroused the people's military spirit, and the war party seems to be in full control.

The latest disturbing news from that quarter is that Japan is taking advantage of the escape clause of the London pact to increase her strength in submarines. This can be done only when one of the signatories of the pact considers its national defense in jeopardy. Secretary Swanson has declared Japan's action is a clear violation of the agreement. No official action has yet been taken by the State department.
