THE BUSY HOUR CLUB

The Busy Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Ernst. All members were present except Mrs. M. E. Gray, who is recovering from a broken limb, and who was missed by all at the gathering. It was agreed to hold a card shower for her, sending the cards on Saturday, Oct. 31, if possible. The time was spent making quilt blocks for the hostess. Thirty-five blocks were made. More suggestions and plans were made for the Halloween feed held Friday, Oct. 30. A delicious lunch was served of sandwiches, pumpkin pie, pickles and coffee. The next meeting will be held Nov. 18, at the home of Mrs. Lett Johnson.

Cow Has Perfect

Twin Calves

Emil Block, one of the active and hustling farmers living northwest of this city, was in town the latter part of the week and announced that one of his cows was the mother of two heifer calves, weighing 65 pounds each and both White Faced Herefords. Emil says that it will not be long until he has a good-sized herd if the balance of his cows are as good producers. He is thankful though, that the AAA has been invalidated, for had it not been he was liable to have to dispose of one of the calves in order to keep down production.

It is true that the Commodity Centers provide such clothing as can be made from cotton materials but there are many articles such as shoes, hose, underwear, sweaters, coats, caps, mittens, warm trousers, skirts and dresses which cannot be supplied there.

Net earnings of railroads as allocated to Nebraska are listed as follows: 1932, $13,000,000; 1933, $14,800,000; 1934, $14,000,000, and 1935, $11,000,000. The 1935 decrease is due largely to decrease in grain hauls, and the 1936 figure is expected to show a material increase over last year.
