INMAN NEWS

About $85 was netted at the Ladies Aid bazaar last Saturday afternoon and evening. The ladies are very grateful for the patronage given them.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Cowperthwaite, Mrs. George Miles, Mrs. C. J. Malone and Mrs. L. A. Carter, of O'Neill, were here Saturday evening attending the M. E. bazaar.

Mrs. E. L. Spann, of Atkinson, was here Sunday visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Hancock.

Several Inman people attended funeral services for Mrs. Herman Rakow at Pege Monday afternoon.

Word was received Monday morning of the death of Mrs. E. B. Maxcy at Bayard, Nebr. Rev. and Mrs. Maxcy had gone to Bayard two weeks ago for Mrs. Maxcy's health and apparently she was improving. Rev. Maxcy had returned to Inman Saturday to hold services at the M. E. church but was called back to Bayard Saturday evening. Mrs. Maxcy passed quietly away Sunday evening. Funeral services will be held on Thursday at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conard and daughter, Mary Lou, and Miss Helen Anspach, of Emmet, and Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Anspach and children, of Inman, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Anspach.

Mrs. L. R. Tompkins is spending this week in Norfolk with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Doughy and other relatives.

PLEASANT DALE

Mrs. Ed Heeb and Edna called at the Gerald Miles home in O'Neill Tuesday to see Miss Helen Murphy, who has been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmoor son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenz and son and Mrs. Wm. Ernst and daughter spent Saturday evening at the Guy Beckwith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shaaf, of Atkinson, were Sunday visitors at the Joe Winkler home.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Peter Claussen were shocked by the news of her sudden death Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lorenz and Elmer Lorenz drove to Sioux City Saturday morning and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson.

George Weber, of Stuart, called at the Joe Winkler home Sunday. Raymond returned with him to help with the farm work.

Mrs. Guy Beckwith and children and Mrs. Ralph Beckwith and children visited at Fred Beckwith's Sunday afternoon.

A Christmas program and picnic will be given at the Pleasant Dale school Friday evening, December 18.

Three Harshberger boys, of Humboldt, Nebr., are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Kee.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Beckwith and daughter were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Segar Sunday.

The pupils of school district's No. 192 and 67 gave a very interesting program Friday evening, December 11, followed by a box social. The program was given in district 192, to a well filled house. Elsa Lou Ohmart and Maxine O'Connell are the teachers and are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts with the pupils.

W. K. Buck, of Orchard, is spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. M. Ohmart.

Several people from Center Union attended the service at the Gospel Chapel in Atkinson Sunday afternoon and evening, where revival services have been conducted for the past two weeks.

EMMET ITEMS

The Christmas vacation begins in the Emmet schools Wednesday, December 24. The teachers will go to their homes, Miss Harris to Page, Miss Kellar to Chambers and Miss Pongratz to her parents home northeast of Emmet.

Mrs. Clyde Allen was a guest
