EMMET ITEMS

Recreation Association Dramatic Club

The Monday meeting of the dramatic club was spent in debating and in setting a time for rehearsals for the one act play now being worked on. Thursday evening the Dramatic club will present a skit at the regular Lions club dinner. There is no charge for this and the club is always willing to help out with entertainment at any club meeting. New members are as follows: Junior Harris, Doris Scofield, Charles Herrick, Lyle Hartford, Bob Berg, Fritz Connolly, Ralph Brown and Mary Jane Eyer. Art Club Both junior and senior Art clubs are working on drawing courses and progressing very well. The junior club is working on prospective and the senior club on the human head. Marie Yenglin is a new member.

Kite Club The kite club members are all working on their big kites getting ready for the contest that will be held as soon as the weather is a little more settled. Most of the kites are as big as the boys and should make an interesting exhibition when they are all flying on the same field.

Boxing Club The boxing club put in their time on routine exercises finishing up the evening with a few bouts. Arrangements are being made for a tournament later in the spring that should be of interest to anyone that likes to watch the gloves fly.

Handcraft Club The junior handcraft club meets from three to five thirty on Thursday afternoon and the senior club from seven to nine thirty on Thursday evening. At present they are finishing up articles made from wood and paper mache. New members are as follows: Gordon Hiatt, Buddy Persons, George Janousek, Bernice Penland, Mary Helen Martin and Winifred Coyne.

Puppet Club Four or five puppet heads are now completed and ready for painting. As soon as these are finished construction of the bodies will be taken up. A stage is being built and will be completed about the time the puppets are ready to present their opening play.

Nature Club The nature club meets on Saturday morning and will take hikes during the nice weather to gather materials for their aquarium and nature exhibits. Bird houses will be built and put up around the members homes.

Soon we will start a brass band and anyone of any age who plays an instrument for fun is welcome to join. A Sunday afternoon bicycle club is to be formed and each week will take a four or five mile trip. A popular song club will also be organized and meet once a week to learn a new song and sing it. Don't forget that these activities are open to the public and you are welcome.

BRIEFLY STATED

The economists used to tell us we had solved the problem of production but had fallen down on the problem of distribution. But the New Dealers seem to know how to take care of that.

A Miami cat, according to the newspapers, lived for three weeks with its head in a tin can. That's nothing. Just think how many tourists live for months with much more of their anatomy in one.

Well, this Supreme Court fight makes strange bed fellows. It does look a little queer to see La-Follette and Wheeler playing on opposite teams and Amos Pinchot pitching with Carter Glass catching.

Editor Murfin was up from Page Tuesday morning. He was passing around the cigars to his friends in the city on the advent of a son, born to Mrs. Murfin at the local hospital at an early hour that morning.

Frank Nelson returned Sunday night from a several days visit in Omaha. While away he purchased a Polled Shorthorn bull to head his herd. It is a fine looking animal and was shipped to this city by freight Sunday night.

Senator George says that the Supreme Court proposal is not in keeping with the democratic platform of 1936. Wonder if he remembers what happened to the democratic platform of 1932?

Supt. Roy Carroll, Prof. Baal, Prof. Deriney, Miss Jones, Miss Ryan and Miss Kramer, of the O'Neill high school faculty, were in Albion over the week-end attending the high school district musical contest held in that city.

James Oppen drove to Creighton last Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of his parents, and returned that evening bringing back his wife and daughter, Carla Ann, who had been visiting at the home of his parents the past two weeks.

A gentleman from Omaha was in the city the latter part of last week looking over the city with the view of installing another picture show here. We did not learn whether he was successful in his quest for a location, or whether he decided to locate here.

Tony Asmus and R. R. Morrison returned last Friday from their visit to the Clinic at Rochester, Minn. Bob says that the physicians informed him that his arm was getting along nicely and they did not expect he would have any more trouble with it.

George Bressler of Neligh, who for a good many years operated a general mercantile establishment in this city, and who moved from here about four years ago, has sold his property at Neligh and will move to Los Angeles, Calif., in the near future, to make his home.

E. J. Renwald, of the O'Neill Food Center, drove over to his former home at Gregory, S. D., last Thursday and packed his household goods and shipped them to this city. They have secured a residence on west Everett street and are now comfortably located in their new home.

Superintendent Clarence J. McClurg and A. E. Bowen, members of the local Lions club, drove to Valentine last Tuesday afternoon to attend the installation of a Lions club in that city. The boys say there were about 250 present at the meeting and that everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Mabel McKenna, Mrs. H. L. Bennett, Mrs. C. B. Yarnall, Levi Yantzi, L. M. Merriman and Mrs. Peter Todsens and mother, were among the residents of this city who assisted in transporting the members of the O'Neill high school to the musical contest at Albion last Friday and Saturday.

Revenue Collector Curran, of Greeley, was in the city last Monday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Curran is engaged in the newspaper business at Greeley. While he is looking after Uncle Sam's work the paper is being run by his son and daughter and they are reported to be making a good job of it.

Mrs. Verda O. Neilson filed suit in the district court on Wednesday asking for a divorce from Fred E. Nielson. In her petition she alleges that they were married in this city on October 19, 1928, and have been residents of the city since their marriage. She alleges lack of support and cruel and inhuman treatment.

Harold Fuller was arrested last week charged with forgery. He was taken before Judge Dickson last Thursday, plead guilty to the charge and was sentenced to one year in the state reformatory. He was taken to Lincoln by Deputy Sheriff Bergstrom Saturday last. The forgery was the issuing of a check on a local business firm for the sum of $210.37.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Cronin drove to Sioux City last Sunday taking Sister Eugene back to her home after a visit of a few days with relatives here. They were accompanied by F. J. Biglin who went to Omaha for a few days business trip. Frank returned Tuesday afternoon, driving back a new International pick-up, which supplants the old Chevrolet truck that has been in use for several years.

The numerous sit down strikes in various parts of the country clearly show the contempt organized labor has for the courts of this country. When a bunch of men secure possession of another's property, and defies the owner or owners and the latter can secure no assistance from officials of the government to oust them, then we have government by mobs and not by law. - How long can this last?

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen and son of Meek, who last fall had a sale of their personal property, rented their farm and went to Washington where they expected to make their future home, are back again in old Holt, having returned last week. They were not very favorably impressed with the west coast states and decided that Nebraska and old Holt county was not the worst place on earth after all.

Mary Sharp has filed a suit in the district court asking for a decree of divorce from Harold Sharp. In her petition she alleges that they were married in this city on June 25, 1934. She further alleges that on or about March 24, 1935, the defendant deserted her and has continued his desertion for a period of more than two years prior to the filing of the suit. She alleges further that he never contributed to her support and that she has had to support herself. She asks absolute divorce and such other relief as equity may require.
