SOUTHWEST BREEZES

By Romaine Saunders

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Widman were at Grand Island Sunday.

Bernard Kennedy and family were at Chambers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Baker were in Omaha a few days last week.

Friends from Albion and from Denver were guests at the Riley ranch Sunday.

The ladies club met last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ace Watson.

George Cutler had business before the probate court at Bartlett the past week.

Rhody Adams, who has been wintering at Atkinson, was in Amelia Sunday for a short time and says he expects to return permanently within a week or more. Rumor has it around Amelia that he is bringing a companion with him—but rumors are not always safeguarded by facts.

Speaking of the workings of one feature of the New Deal's more abundant life in his state a New Yorker writes: "Our industries paid $40,000,000 in processing taxes in one year. Of that amount $400,000 was returned to the state in benefit payments. From this amount the producers got $86,000. The political clique got $314,000." And the producers have taken the crumbs and seem to like it.

When the records are made, when the long roll call is sounded and the moving mass from earth's remotest dawn to the last red-glowing sunset comes before the Bar of Justice a universe, there will be no "collective bargaining;" no group organization avails then; the individual stands shorn of pretense and alone. Those who now make sport of "rugged individualism" will then need all of that quality they can muster.

This portion of the county is being wet down during a prolonged cloudy season that has brought intermittent showers. The ground previous to these rains was moist for some eight or ten inches and then the spade in digging post holes encountered hard, dry earth. There has been no moisture reserve under the top soil and several inches of rain will be required to restore this, excepting in low places where drainage accumulates. Indications are that this month will see the needed measure of rain.

The community is being visited by two young men who announce themselves to be "Jehovah's Witnesses," and say they are visiting every home in Holt county. I would ridicule no man's religious or political convictions, though it doth appear that the sincerity, the zeal and zest which goes into the efforts to promulgate ideas which originated in the mythology of the ancients and which these young people think they are bringing to us as "the truth" is worthy of a better cause.

The George Meals family are enjoying the company of Mrs. A. J. Meals of Valdez, Alaska, George's mother, who arrived ten days ago accompanied by Miss Hannarah Meals of Omaha who came up to bring her grandmother and also for a brief visit with the home folks. Mrs. Meals had spent the winter in Seattle and is here to spend the summer with her son's family and other relatives. She was among the early pioneers near Atkinson, her family, the Hayes, coming into the county ahead of the railroads. For many years she resided in O'Neill, where she still has a residence property, her husband, the late Jack Meals being county treasurer back in the 80's. The family left O'Neill in 1903 and have since made their home at Valdez.
