in the Metropolitan league and are to be reckoned with when it comes to picking the winners of this league. Jimmy Jarosh, their star anchor man is leading the league with 190 average, and bids fair to keep up his present strong gait. The game last Wednesday n.gat between the South Omaha all-stars and the Omaha all-stars ended in a victory for the Omaha crowd, who had a 101-pin lead at the end of the three games. To complete the match, another three games will be rolled Sunday afternoon on the Morrison alleys. ison alleys.

The Brandes High Balls have been accused of getting down to the alleys early and occupying both alleys until 8 o'clock, which keeps their opponents from obtaining practice before the game. Why don't the opponents get down a little early and jump into the game? They are welcome.

Sutherland's departure from the city leaves a hard gap to fill in the lineup. This is the second serious blow to them this season. Jim Blakeney departed about three weeks ago. This place was filled by Anglesburg, but it will be hard to fill Sutherland's shoes, as the supply of sharks is nearly exhausted.

Not only did the O'Learys of Chicago win the Mid-West championship at St. Louis, but they also won the championship at Chicago in the recent city tournament held there. They are now out after the Illinois state championship. They will also be heard from at the American Bowling congress tournament in Buffalo. They are having lively times at the Gate City league. Every team says that some rule was made to keep them from winning the pennant. Just at present Joe Dober seems to be having the most trouble, owing to what he says is a rule

Since changing their names the Leavys Engravers have been setting the Gate City league on fire. They have been winning all their series. They are not content with two games, they usually take three. The Eagles, another second division team in this league, are also making it hot for their opponents. Their chief hobby is winning the whole series from the team at the top of the list.

The rivalry between last year's Muttand Jeff teams has been revived and they will probably stage their first fray on the Morrison alleys. Raiph Sciple is the smallest fellow on the Mutt team and Barney Shaw is the largest man on the Jeff team, so it is plain to be seen there is quite a difference in the size of these two teams. The Mutts outweigh the Jeffs, but the latter have more speed.

They have been in the second division all season and even at present don't show any signs of taking any rapid rise in the league standing. With such sharks as Madtin, Balzer and Goff in the line-up, and with such good follow-up men as Green, Kranda and Mokry, this team ought to make a better showing.

With Jim Blakeney's departure from the city. Omaha loses a mighty good bowler, and Kansas City gets one. It is not know yet, wether Jim has signed up with any of the league teams down there, but it is a sure fact that when once he hears the rattle of the pins he will drop in and show them how the game is really played.

Phi Wolff, at one time considered the world's best bowler, is intending to stop in Omaha about New Year's day on his way back to his home in Pueblo. He has been making a circuit of the middle west towns, including the St. Lonis tournament, where he won second place in the individuals. He is anxious to take on a few matches with Omaha sharks.
