The Bee's Letter Box

The Grandest Christmas Hymn.

OMAHA, Dec. 23.-To the Editor of The Bee: The world of hymns, the hymns of the Christian church, embodies some of the deepest and richest attainments of the human spirit. It is true that in our time hymnology is under a cloud, because the spiritual rag-time songs have invaded the sanctuary in many parts of Christendom. The student of true hymns from various times, lands and comwho are so vigorously opposed to the munions knows, however, that so large of our era.

Takes the Ministers to Task. COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Dec. 23 .- To the Editor of The Bee: The ministers of Omaha should realize that the blame is upon them alone for the conditions which even suggest the need of a dance in order to octain money for aid to the poor and needy.

The Savior laid down the absolute and unchanging rule that the rich who would follow Him must sell all that they have and distribute it to the poor. That rule prevails in every syllable to this hour, No single minister in Omaha has ever dared to proclaim that rule in a generation. Hence the necessity for the charity ball. Many of those protesting preachers preside over congregations in which are individual members possessed of sufficient wealth to relieve practically every case of urgent need in the whole city. Through the failure of the ministers those same persons are deluded into the belief that the Master is being followed, the wild apple trees outside the old stone principal proof thereof being found in providing a salary to those servants of the Nazarene
