GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Widening of the snow area in the winter crop belt proved to be more of a handicap today than the wheat bulls could overcome. Closing prices, though firm, were web to be onder last night. OMAHA, Dec. 22, 1913. OMAHA, Dec. 22, 1913. The feature of the Gay's business on the Board of Trade yesterday was the corn market. The session ended with James A. Patten taking in and paying for 440,000 bushels corn on December con-struine out from 10 decline to a rise of 5c Besides the bearish influence of en-larged protection to fall-sown wheat, ca-bles were marginat traders who were on the lockout for signs of an upturn. Rus-sia promised heavier shipments and there were more favorable crop advices from Australia. India and Argentina. An in-crease in the world's available supply to-tal acted also as a burden on the market. Some encouragement for wheat buyers developed late in the day, millers being reported as taking hold much more freely than is usual at the end of the calendar year. The action of the flour manufac-turers was attributed in part to the dwindling of receipts in the northwest. Estimates were at hand, too, that the amount of wheat in sight for export from the United States before July 1 mext reaches only 45,000,000 bushels, compared with 7,000,000 bushels a year ago. Prospects of delayed marketing and of increased feeding as a result of atormy weather lifted the price of corn. Profit-taking by longs brought about a reaction, but not of a lasting kind. Oats suffered from rather free selling that was charked to a prominent speculator. Otherwise trade did not assume such volume. Changes in provisions were chiefly on pork. Most of the buying came through commission concerns. Chiego closing prices: ommission concerns. Chicago closing prices:

Definite Improvement in Feeling After Long Period of Pessimiam.

NEW TORK, Dec 23-The advance in stocks, which began late last week, was checked today. After a further rise early in the session, led by Reading, Southern Facific and Amalgamated, the market developed a yielding tendency, which eventually carried back the popular stocks to yesterday's close or below. New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Mis-sourf Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Western Union showed heavinezs. Mis-sourf Pacific dropped to 25%, a new low mark. Sentiment was hopeful. The stock mar-ket in the last few days has made the best performance of several months. De-velopments at Washington, in connection with currency legislation and the handling of the trust question, made a definite improvement in feeling after a long period of pessimism. 626.75 HOGS-Supplies were fairly moderate, about 106 cars, or 7,400 head, being re-ported in. For the two days the total is 10,814, about 11,500 head smaller than last week and nearly 1,000 head short of

Trade opened out rather slow this morning, but shippers and speculators bought a few loads during the early rounds that looked to be nearly steady this the week, as the receipts were little, if any, different as to size and prices on killers showed an advance of 15675c all along the line. In the matter of re-ceipts a larger proportion of them were killers and the supply of feeder offerings was rather light. There was another scarcity of right good lambs and sheep, resulting in the packers being good com-petitors for anything at all decent in the way of fat offerings and most everything being disposed of at a comparatively way of fat offerings and most everything being disposed of at a comparatively early hour. Chicago reported another light run and prices advancing logifsc, indicating that the general shortage in the receipts and the meager supply of choice grades of all killers is still re-sponsible for the rising tendency to values. Reports from the eastern trade in dressed mutton is none too good, which is usual at this time of the year, when poultry for the holiday season comes so much into competition with live stock of all kinds. stock of all kinds.

stock of all kinds. The packers this morning paid prices anywhere from 57,30 to 55.00 for what lambs were here, the latter figure being top and the highest point touched in two weeks. The fat ewes ranged from $4.35 to $4.50 and some wethers went to the packers at $5.50. The early transactions also included a bunch of feeder lambs at
