GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Big Corn Speculators Weeded Out from the Pit.

Whether Prices Will Be Driven to a Still Lower Level is a Much Mooted Quention with Many.

COTTON CROWD IS OUSTED

OMAHA, Jan. 10, 1914

OMAHA, Jan. 10, 1814

The big speculators in corn who were long many millions of bushels of that cereal, and who suffered severe losses, dumped the remainder of their line yesterday. These people were known in Board of Trade circles as the "cotton crowd," and were the same speculators who made such a killing in the market when the bull movement was inaugurated during the early part of last summer. This was at the time when the drouth set in and the losses were reported as on the increase, and which afterward became sensational. With this crowd of high rollers forced out of their last corn yesterday, the men who have assumed control of the situation will not have to carry a lot of long corn to a higher level with them and give the hangers-on a chance to secure profits.

It may be said authentically that the strongest coterie of men ever known to coarse grain speculation are now on the bull side of corn at Chicago and that they absorbed all the corn thrown overboard by the cotton crowd. This corn was well bought and they will add to their holdings from day to day, or whenever soft spots are to be seen. These longs are anything but novices in the corn market, and they have made up their minds that the condition during the spring months will not be as good as it was in December.

The guns of these new corn bulls have Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Corn disappointed the buils today and failed to climb. Speculative futures were active, but merchandsing call had dwindled almost to nothing. Trading in the pit closed easy at the same as last night to %c up. Wheat finished a shade net higher, oats unchanged to %c advance and provisions with a gain of 2%4015c.

What strength there was in corn appeared to be mainly due to covering on an extensive scale by some of the larger shorts. One prominent concern thus bought a round 1,000,000 bushels. From other sources, however, there was plenty of short selling of an important character especially during buiges.

Bataments from the government weather bureau that no severe weather could develop within a considerable period had much to do with lessening demand for corn as feed and for shipping piirposes. According to one expert the abortage of supplies in regard to animals on farms.

Wheat showed a little strength early Features of the Trading and Closing on farms.

Wheat showed a little strength early the strength and the strength of the strength Wheat showed a little strength early in sympathy with a temporary swell in the corn market and because of reports that Argentine receipts were lighter and of impaired quality, owing to frequent rain. Snow fall in the west though acted as an offset inter, and the market tended to drop back with corn.

Good buying on the part of two elevator concerns railied oats. Shorts covering took a hand also in relieving a temporary setback in the market.

Support which the trade was inclined to credit to packers put firmness into provisions. The best call was for lard.

The market on beef steers has been in The market on beef steers has been in a very much more satisfactory condition than has been the case for several weeks. While receipts have been fairly liberal there has been a very much broader demand, with the result that the market has taken on a good, healthy condition. Prices have steadily firmed up and at the close of the week are around 15225chigher than at the close of last week. On most days the movement has been fairly active at prevailing prices and early clearances have been the rule.

For the week values show a gain of fully 25c. Receipts were liberal on most days of the week, but there has been a good demand and the advance has been fairly steady. Bulk a week ago was $7.55 ($7.95 and today's top of $8.25 is a flat quarter shove the best price at the close of last week.

to one of the local packers. There were nine cars of ewes from Montans and feur cars of lambs and one of ewes from Sloux City. This makes a total for the week of some 51,857 head, against 26,878 last week, 25,232 two weeks ago and 52,717 for the same time a year ago. While the receipts were fairly liberal compared with recent weeks, but rather moderate compared with a year ago prices fluctuated a little, being up one day and down the next most of the week until at the close yesterday trade on both sheep and lambs hit a basis generally strong to legibe higher than the opening trade on Friday of last week or generally 15625c better than Friday's bad close of last week. On most days trade was featured with more or less unevenness, it being a hard market for traders to do business on and to get anything like an accurate comparison as to values. The most interest continued to center in the best finished grades of ewes and lambs and as a rule other kinds did not meet with as good a reception, this being quite natural to expect, especially at this time of the year.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $3.0028.25; lambs, fair to good, $7.2528.00; lambs, culls, $5.5025.00; yearlings, light, $6.5047.00; yearl

MME. NORDICA SERIOUSLY

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-Mme. Lillian Nordica is in a critical condition with pneumonia on Thursday Island, Queensland, according to a cable message received today by her husband, George W. Young, a New York banker. The message was brief, saying merely that Mme. Nordica 'had developed pneumonia and was in a critical condition." Friends here attributed her illness in a measure to the strain Mme. Nordica underwent recently in the grounding of the Dutch steamer Tasman, which went ashore near Thursday island in the Guif of Papua. The vessel was subsequently

After the accident Mme. Nordica cabled reassuring messages to Mr. Young, but several days later it was reported that she was suffering a nervous breakdown. She was on tour with her company.

MANY CHICAGO SCHOOL ROOMS WITHOUT TEACHERS

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.-Hundreds of Chicago public school children received no instruction in the schools this week because of sickness and absence of their teachers. Every available substitute teacher was called into service and in many instances the principals taught classes.

A number of persons who took the teachers' examination during the Christmas holidays will be given classes Monday and the teaching corps will be augmented by forty-five graduates of the normal school on Pebruary L. Unless many of the teachers now on the sick list are able to return to work before that time hundreds of pupils will go with little or no instruction until the first of the month.
