Iowa and Minnesota Varsities Resume Athletic Relations

IOWA CITY, Ia., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—A resumption of track relations between Iowa and Minnesota this spring was announced today by Manager Kellous, who has just completed Iowa track schedule. The Gophers and Hawkeyes will clash at Iowa City on May 1, furnishing a double attraction with the annual intercollegiate invitation meet. Ames has been dropped from the Iowa schedule, as a result of this arrangement. The complete schedule follows: March 21—Conference indoor meet at Evanson. April 15—Drake relay meet at Des Moines. May 2—Home meet. May 16—Minnesota dual meet at Iowa City and intercollegiate. May 23—Western conference meet at Chicago.

Jess Willard Not Guilty, the Verdict

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 12.—Jess Willard, the heavyweight pugilist, was acquitted by a jury today after an all night deliberation with the accused in the death of John Young after a bout at the Vernon arena with Willard August 22 of last year. In its verdict the jury sanctions boxing contests such as have been conducted in California since the prize fighting statute was amended in 1909.

FIRST METHODIST BARACAS TRIM SCHOOL FOR DEAF

The First Methodist Baracas defeated the Nebraska School for the Deaf last evening at the latter's gymnasium by the score of 23 to 18. The game was extremely well played, both teams being about equally matched. The Nebraska School for the Deaf took the lead during the beginning of the game, but was unable to hold it in the half ending with the score 12 to 11, in the Baracas' favor. During the next half the churchmen outplayed their opponents, taking the contest in handy fashion. Beckwith for the Methodists played the star game, shooting six baskets, while Jackson and Sealey were the stellar performers for the Nebraska School for the Deaf.

Gibbons Knocks Out McCallister With a Right Hook to Jaw

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Gibbons of St. Paul knocked out Bob McCallister of San Francisco in the seventh round of their ten-round match here tonight. The decisive blow, a right hook to the jaw, came at the end of one minute and thirty-eight seconds fighting in the round. Gibbons weighed in at 157½ pounds and McCallister at 160 pounds. The Californian also had the advantage in height and reach. McCallister outpointed his opponent in the first four rounds although Gibbons occasionally sent over a hard left hook. Gibbons got to his man in the fifth, landing left hooks to the jaw and affecting rights to the body, but McCallister's work at long range evened up the round. Gibbons repeatedly hooked McCallister on the jaw with lefts in the sixth and McCallister showed signs of distress. In the final round Gibbons caught the Californian with a right cross to the jaw, staggering him. He followed up his advantage with a bombardment of lefts and rights and ended the contest with a hard right hook to the point of the jaw.

Kansas City Will Have Charity Ball With the Tango Too

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 12.—Society leaders promoting the annual charity ball, which was called off last month after municipal dance inspectors had placed a ban on the tango, today announced that the ball would be held February 11. An agitation among dancers, particularly in society circles, caused the order of public welfare to withdraw its order barring the tango. The charity ball committee announced that all new dances would be on the program and that an inspector from the board of public welfare would be present. The proceedings of the ball will go to charitable institutions.

Postal Savings Forgery First Case of Its Kind Locally in Hands of Authorities.

Postal Savings Forgery First Case of Its Kind Locally in Hands of Authorities. ACCUSED MAN IS ARRESTED Phillip Nugent, Alias Jack D. Lynch, to Be Brought to Omaha on Charge of Cashing Friends' Certificates.

The first forgery to be disclosed in the Omaha postal savings bank, and perhaps the first case of the kind in the United States since the opening of the postal savings banks, came to light yesterday when Phillip Nugent, alias Jack D. Lynch, was arrested at Phoenix, Ariz. Last fall Nugent came to Omaha with Coval Morris and Walter Staats from Chicago. The three men lived together on Sherman avenue and when Nugent was unable to find work they paid for his meals and allowed him to room with them. Morris had secured a job in the shops here and deposited his little savings in the postal savings bank. He had accumulated $60 in the savings bank, when Nugent disappeared. A few days later Hugh Mills, special agent of the United States Treasury department, called on Morris and asked him if he had withdrawn $30 from the postal savings bank. Morris said that he had not. This was the first intimation of the robbery that he had received. Together the two men told Mr. Mills all they remembered about their former friend, Nugent, alias Lynch, as he was known to them. Then for weeks afterward they made a weekly report to Mr. Mills, repeating to him bits of conversation which they had with Lynch. They told of all of the places he had mentioned, and it was from this slender clue that the government authorities finally located the accused man at Phoenix, Ariz. Clara Southard, clerk in charge of the postal savings bank here, discovered the forgery, but not until Lynch, or Nugent, had left the office. The man tried to withdraw the entire $60, but succeeded in getting but $30. Miss Southard, upon seeing the loss felt, was able to furnish a good description of the man and this aided the authorities in locating him. The United States district attorney at Tucson, Ariz., has been notified of the arrest and asked to file a request for the order of removal. In the event that the order is granted, Nugent, alias Lynch, will be brought to Omaha. Morris has since left Omaha and is now working in Cheyenne county, Nebraska.

Ten Thousand Storm Ford Plant for Work

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 12.—A crowd of men, estimated at 10,000 seeking employment at the plant of the Ford Motor company, started serious rioting when told after they had stood in the freezing cold for several hours, that work could not be given them today. An officer was knocked down, his clothes partially torn off and bricks, and other missiles were hurled through the windows and doors of the factory. After water from a fire hose had been turned on the crowd, the rioters dispersed. Five arrests were made. Announcement by the company of a $10,000,000 profit-sharing distribution among its employes in 1914 has brought

Miss M'Hugh Opposed to New Dances and is Glad She is Out of It

Miss Kate A. M'Hugh, principal of the high school, has placed herself on record as decidedly opposed to all the present modes of dancing. Tango, hesitation, one-step, grapevine, castle walk, all are tabooed by Miss M'Hugh, who says that she is very glad she is not in position where it is expected of her to chaperon high school social stunts as in the older days when hops and parties were given under school supervision. She believes that it is a sign of the decadence of the age that fond mothers of high school lasses can amildly look on while their daughters are engaged in one of the modern steps to the strains of "Cuddle My Baby" or "Love Me While the Loving is Good." Miss M'Hugh explains that, although she is not in a position to attempt to put a check on the methods of high school dancing since no dances given by high school students are in any way connected with the school, yet she cannot help but criticize the dances which have taken hold of society and included in their grip the lads and lasses on the hill.

Montana Sheepman Stricken on Street

Stricken suddenly by an affection of the heart, William Buchanan, a sheepman of Billings, Mont., was overcome on Twenty-fourth street last night near Pierce and rolled down a steep embankment. When found two hours later by Albert Sehmer of South Omaha the unfortunate man was nearly frozen. Sehmer notified the police and he was brought to headquarters. Dr. R. B. Harris worked on him for nearly an hour and finally brought him back to consciousness. Buchanan was later given a bed at headquarters and will be able to go to his lodging place in South Omaha today. He came here a week ago on a forty-eight-car shipment of cattle from Billings, which at the time created considerable excitement in South Omaha. He has been here since, but intends to go back to Billings some time this week.

Glynn Refuses to Pardon Loan Shark

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Governor Glynn finally today refused to pardon D. H. Tolman, the convicted New York money lender. District Attorney Whitman refused to say that he favored an absolute pardon for Tolman. The governor requires the indorsement of the trial judge and the prosecutor in every case where he exercises clemency. The governor said the amount of indebtedness which would be cancelled by the notes Tolman promised to destroy if released and the number of people who would be benefited would be based on guess work. Tolman's offer of a bond as a guaranty of his sincerity, was worthless, added the governor.

Flece Quite Jovial at Sister's Funeral

PENDER, Neb., Jan. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—But little progress was made today in the trial of William Flece for the murder of Louise Flece. H. E. Shook, one witness, testified that on the day of the funeral of Flece's sister, he appeared quite jovial and unaffected. William Hendricks testified that Flece and the woman were not on good terms. The day's work was characterized by many heated tiffs between the attorneys.

NEW FACTORY FOR OMAHA

Simpson Windmill and Machine Co. of Fairbury to Move Here. PUTTING UP STRUCTURE NOW Plant to Be Located at Twenty-First and Paul Streets and Will Manufacture Variety of Things.

The Simpson Windmill and Machine company of Fairbury is soon to move to Omaha. It will have its manufacturing plant at Twenty-first and Paul streets, where Henry Gross of Omaha is now building a plant to order for the company. H. S. Simpson, head of the concern, and other members of the firm spent part of last week in Omaha conferring with the Omaha Commercial club and with real estate men in regard to the proposed location of their plant here. The plan is that the building is now under way. The factory is going up in the vicinity of other factories and in a locality that is expected to be one of the manufacturing centers of Omaha as soon as proper trackage can be secured. The plant at present employs between fifteen and twenty men. It is expected that more men will be employed when it gets to running well in Omaha. Mr. Simpson said, "Omaha offers us a better chance to dispose of our output than does Fairbury, and the freight rates are cheaper. There are no foundries in Omaha that make small castings and we ought to build up a nice business here on that kind of work alone." The new building is to be 6512 feet in dimensions and will be ready for occupancy about March 1. The company has been in business for seven years. It manufactures four brands of windmills, makes brass articles and small castings and also bulid-cement mixers.

Won't Admit Queen With Her Umbrella

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Because she refused to give up her umbrella the queen of England was refused admittance to Norwich Castle museum today. Queen Mary was accompanied by the bishop of Norwich. As it was a purely private visit, no notification had been given. The attendant failing to recognize the queen, stubbornly refused to admit her with the umbrella, which she, with equal stubbornness, refused to surrender. The bishop intervened, but without effect until he disclosed the identity of the royal visitor. Profuse apologies followed and the queen entered bearing her umbrella in triumph.
