Team Does Wonderful Work on Metropolitan Alleys-Leading Luxus Players Lose Three Games in Row.

The Omaha Traveling leaguers furnished a few thrillers on the alleys last night, chief among these was the 714 total rolled by Kenneth Sciple, breaking his own former high league record of 690, rolled three weeks ago on the Metropolitan alleys. He started with 236, came back in his second game with 245, and finished with 243. In his thirty frames he made twenty-three strikes. The Old Style favor Lagers came in for their share on the politan alleys, the highest team game eighteen pins below the league's team record of 1,686, rolled by the Wroth's Cafe. The Corey-McKenzie team, who have been setting the league on fire by taking down the first division teams, kept up their gait and won two from the fast of 2,918. In their second game they hit

In the match on the Metropolitan alleys the Old Style Lagers won two from the El Paxos. Gus Toman was high among the individuals with a 621 total and Howell led the single games with 242. The Eagles and Mickey Gibsons were the victims in the Gate City league last night. The latter, who have been on the chutes the last few weeks, jost two to the tallend Pete Lochs, who were going good. Not until the last game were the Obsons able to pile up a large enough count to head off the Lochs. Lee, the six-foot artist of the Mickey Gibsons, led a individual totals with 612. Norgaard stated out for another big total with 211 and 234, but took an awful drop the last game and only rolled 136,

Although they received a thirty-six-pin handidap, the Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 38 team was unable to head off the Ragan's Palstaffa All three games were close and hotly contested, but the Ragans' finished strong each time and won all three. Neither team was going good. Captain Rice of the Eagles was high among the individuals on totals, with 510, also on singles, with 193. Monroe of the Falstaffs, was the only other individual contract to play with the Cincinnati Nato roll in the 209 class. NONPAREILS DEFEAT PREPS AT BASKET BALL in a close and exciting basket ball game at the University of Omaha last evening the Nonparells defeated the prepa, winning by the score of 11 to 12. Both teams took turns in holding the lead, the contest being undecided until the last few seconds of play. For the preparatory students, Beacons was by far the best basket shooter, scoring four field goals. With the exception of one basket made by Parish, the diminutive prep made all the acores for his side. Hansen and Root played the best for the Nonparells. raking between them ten points. Hech-
