THE PERFECT DRESS LINEN

Just received our first shipment of Non-Krush Dress Linen for 1914, which promises to be very popular for the coming season. The flax from which Non-Krush is woven has been treated by a special and hitherto unknown process which gives it a combination of softness, elasticity and brilliancy. It does not crush or wrinkle. Every woman who prefers linen for dresses and costumes will realize the importance of this. It comes in 30 different shades, also black and white stripes, 36 inches wide; registered and stamped "Non-Krush" on selvage; found exclusively at Brandels Stores in Omaha; has been displayed in our 16th street window, and will go on sale Monday in our White Goods Dept., basement; write for sample—at, yard......
