The Bees-Home - Magazine - Page

Dr. Parkhurst's Article

Purging New York of Criminals

How Fine if Such a Policy Could Be Nationalized-Dr. Eliot's Creed; Harvard's Ex-President Forgets Every Man Has Some Form of Faith are cherished

dermines efficency ican continent by refusing to pay 75 cents for a Christmas tree. She de-

cause, she said, it was worth but 50 cents. What caused the continent-wide cherished relevant to that department and upon the intensity with which they

Without such inward assurance a man becomes like a balloon which is able to float because it is so empty, but no one can tell in what direction it will float, and conseequently so unsubstantial as to influence over young men which Mr.

Eliot has acquired by virtue of his brain-iness he prostitutes to the end of fostering among them a state of negativeness and incertitude that saps vitality and un-

What a Dollar

Represents

By ADA PATTERSON.

A girl of 20 who is engaged to marry a young man "worth" according to his father's bequeathed fortune $100,000,000 caused a smile to ripple across the Amer-

This is a case in which first thoughts are not best. Your first thought was with it. The green grocer who sold her the medicine for a sick child no one doubts that the future mistress of millions would have gladly given it to him. It was not the 25 cents that was the stumbling block in their transaction. Her helpful, everyday common sense rebelled at paying more than anything was worth Charity she was willing to bestow, for she does it every day with lavish hands and overflowing heart and kindly eyes, charge for a purchase she denied.

carn to make it herself.

receiving its equivalent.

be unable to draw anything after it. It is very much to be deplored that the

By DR. C. H. PARKHURST

It is already evident that the negative policy of police administration, latterly vogue in this city, is going to be replaced by a policy that is positive and that law is going to be treated as a substantial fact and not as a whim to be respected or ignored, according to executive cap-

The same holds in the law as in business-that people want to know what can be counted on. Peo. ple that would not otherwise be criminals become such because the attitude of the government is so unpronounced as to leave it uncertain where the line lies between what is crime and what isn't

The edict has gone forth that professional criminals will have to sleep and take their meals somewhere outside of New York. That is as far as our own local government can go, and it is going a great way, and is evidently appreciated by the law-abiding element of the town.

It is no argument sgainst what has been already achieved that it simply expels an undesirable class and does not regenerate it or destroy it. When our Lord cast out the unclean spirits and sent them into a herd of swine which ran down a steep place into the sea and were drowned, we infer that that was the end both of the swine and the un-

Now, it is neither constitutional nor humanitarian to treat in exactly the smile to broaden same way the unclean spirits with which was that she got we are locally infected, and to send them the tree for half a out in scows and dump them in the bay.

They will simply move on-are moving away in triumph in n-going to Philadelphia, Chicago and her St. Louis. What is our gain is some lion-dollar fiancee's other cities' loss. We are better off, but sleigh, with her if disease is transferred from the sto- hundred - millionmach to the liver, the body, considered collar flance beside her. as a corporate whole, is as much invalided as it was before.

It would be a wonderful achievement if that the girl who will marry the richest the policy which our local administration man in America is mean. You applied has put in force could be nationalized, that scoreling word, "stingy," to her, and if the large cities throughout the didn't you? The second thought was country, where the vicious experts, who that if the tree was of 50-cent size and have just bidden us a hasty goodbye, are quality, the girl would have been foolish now continuing their operations, would to pay more for it. The fact that a join us in the chase and pursue them till quarter of a dollar is an infinitesima they were compelled either to jump into amount compared with her prospective the Pacific or to adopt habits of respecta- share of an $100,000,000 had nothing to do ble living and of honest industry.

Ex-President Eliot of Harvard univer- Christmas tree was doubtless not an ob sity has again pronounced himself on ject of charity. If he had needed that questions of religious faith. This is a extra quarter of a dollar for a bottle of frequent habit of his.

His ambition seems to be to induce people to believe as little as possible. He has a passion for pulling down, but no genius for building up, and will hardly be likely to create a large following among either Jews, Catholics or Protest-

Differently brought up, he might have issued as a gunman or a dynamiter. According to the account furnished by the press, he has eliminated theology and dogma from the twentieth century. His destructive criticism has gone even to the extreme of exterminating creed, but he so far forgets himself as immediately to proceed to the formulation of a creed of his own. The creed which he exterminates was not one of his making. The one which he claims is henceforth going to prevail is one of his fathering. Like other manufacturers, he is enamored of the excellence of his own goods and interested to have them usurp the market.

The creed which he proposes does not contain a great deal, but he thinks just one of these persons but is charitable retically you can as much of it as other people do of theirs, and that is the reason why he keeps talking and writing about it. In decrying forms of faith, the wall of a narrow, miserly trend of character enough, but in acagainst which the learned ex-president that they count the outgoing dollars as tual practice this butts his head is that every man has carefully as the incoming ones. some form of faith, and has to have if he is going to be any kind of force in is the knowledge of what a dollar repre- cially when it is

In every department in which one would be anything more than a nonentity, one "Only a dollar," but in the apportion- man nature. must have a creed, a creed of his own;

That holds in the matter of politics, of morals, of business, of journalism equally as in affairs of religion.

One's significance in any department of life depends on the beliefs that are

Hair Grew 4 Inches In A Few Weeks

A St. Louis Lady Increased the Length of Her Hair Four or Five Inches in a Few Weeks With This Simple Home Recipe.

recipe she used is as follows, and any not one cent for tribute." lady or gentleman can mix it at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small bex of Barbo Compound their lives and those who allow them to don't. and & oz glycerine. Apply to the scalp slip as waste sand through their fingers. Fault finding and blame never yet retwo or three times a week with the tips is that the first have cultivated their formed anything, but praise is the lever of the fingers. It not only promotes the sense of values. They know what is of Archimedes with which you can move from failing out. hair and makes it soft and glossy. These much character is worth, what is the vulnerable point, our self esteem, and ingredients can be obtained from any value of manhood and the worth of there is a natural inclination to revenue

Her First Proposal

Copyright, 1914, International News Service

By Nell Brinkley

Her first it is, too. So you see, with that, it is entitled to come in the list of "terrible minutes!" It this young two round-cheeked things with fraternity pins on their chests, his hair with the convict cut, hers clinched at the nape of the neck with a black velvet bow that butterflies out above her brows and rippling still down her back-when Youth is this young it likely should be called the "first," for there will come others

Babette is the prettiest girl in school, and she wears her hair in puffs over her ears and her ankles are slim little affairs sheathed in cilk stockings. Billy is a blonde chap with his vests cut extremely high, and his collars deeply pointed, and his coat pinched in the smartest way across the shoulders, and he wears his pipe-like trousers turned up short-so short that it

Road Funds

and Posterity

Pennsylvania is preparing to issue onds for $50,000,000 for road construction,

In New York state the bonds are to the people of the next generation will be paying for roads which they never used

The ordinary life of such roads as are being constructed in New York is little more than four or five years. The roads will have to be replaced many times before the people have finished paying for

In Massachusetts the bonds run fo only fifteen years. This is a much fairer built. The people who use the roads pay

Although New York has been spending such vast sums, an insufficient amount is being laid aside for the purpose of maintaining the roads. But even though the fund were larger and strict attention were paid to maintenance, the roads could not possibly last fifty years, and yet the people fifty years

Economists who have studied the prob lems involved in the financing of roads agree that the serial bond issue is the better plan if bonds are to be issued

Thus bonds will expire periodically, and the people who enjoy the improvement

There is an excellent opportunity here for the conservationists who are auxious to protect posterity. We have a right are leaving improvements which may reasonably be expected to be permanent, money when we are leaving nothing to show for it.-Washington Post.

from now will be paying for them.

for them. The next generation is thus left at liberty to provide its own improve-the original work.

ments in its own way.

will pay for it.

gives him the look of a young heron gone a-wading.

Well, it's a terrible minute. There's a miserable silence, and even her bird and her dog square themselves around and, looking him steadfastly in the eye, seem to wonder when he will begin. And he wonders if she has any notion of the thing that's on his mind. If she has, she manages her face pretty well. "But girls are deep," ruminates Billiam. "You never can tell what's in their heads!"

Seeking a Husband

way."

The Virtue of Praise---A Talk to "Knockers"

By DOROTHY DIX.

but charity in the guise of an excessive The most over-estimated weapon in the world is the hummer. It isn't one mil-When milliners, dressmakers and shoemakers say to you, "Rich people are lionth part as effective as the salve pot, those who haggle most over a few cents." though the great majority of people wo look hard at them and do some thinking. through life without finding it out. The average indi-

Are they telling you the exact truth? Is it not, rather, that the men and vidual's ideal of the women of fortunes, especially those who way to reform have themselves earned their fortunes, things is by perpetand, next in degree of experience, those ual knocking, which who have learned to preserve the for- perhaps explains tunes they have inherited, have fortunes, why so few abuses because they know the worth of 100 cents are ever changed that comprise each of their dollars? Not for the better. Theoyou will find, if you take the trouble to smash anything by investigate, and some of them are un- lamming it hard estentatiously charitable. It is no sign enough and long does not work out The corner stone of every competence successfully, espesents. "It's only a dollar" pleaded a applied to the faults salesmen anxiously to make his sale, and foibles of hu-ment of values what does that dollar repdown in black and white by one's self or $20-dollar bill for a year and that in one much money-bing !- he begins lambastby anyone else, but a set of convictions of the few states in which & is the legal ing her cooking and extravagance. And nary standard. that give shape to whatever one says rate of interest paid by savings banks or she goes on burning the roast, and mak-"Only a dollar," yes I know little, bent lingeric and French hats.

pale-faced girls who work half a week for that sum. What will a dollar do? belonging to a club, or smoking, she in his own home a brand of flattery so It will buy two or three good, plain nour- keeps busy, day in and day out, pegging much more potent, so much higher spiced shing meals for a medium-sized family. way with her little hammer-knock- and so much more inexhaustible than any It will buy the material for sister's best knock-knock, and still he puts on his to be had abroad that it puts all other nuslin dress next summer and she can hat and makes a break for freedom the women into the amateur bot air class minute dinner is over, and he smokes like beside his wife. Whenever you are tempted to spend a furnace.

noney for what you do not need paint If Johnnie is awkward and spills things a hasty picture of what someone has at the table, and hates school, the whole done to earn or has done without to save family organizes itself into an anvil that money. Form that habit and money chorus, and it's bing, bang, bing! from will never leave your hands without your morning till night until Johnnie grows surly, and hates home and books, and The smile that began in derision of the spends all the time he can with acfuture multimillionaireas should end in quaintances he picks up on the street. ommendation of the girl who has a true If an employer wants to speed up his A well-known St. Louis lady, after sense of values. I don't know the creat employes and get more work and better using a sample recipe on her hair which of the family into which she will marry, service out of them, he goes for them she mixed at home, made the following but I hope she will graft upon it that with a trip hammer, and abuses them statement; "Without exaggeration, my which began in war, but should be ap- for loafers and incompetents, and shirks, hair has grown four or five inches." The plied to trade, "Millions for defense, but and the employes say to each other that the old man is a grouch who never ap-One of the chief differences between preciates good work, anyway, so what's people who make a goodly showing of the use in giving it to him? And they growth of the hair, but removes dand- worth much, what is worth little and the world of humanity. And the reason ruff, scalp humors and prevents the hair what is worth nothing. Not only what of this is plain enough. Praise touches a dollar is worth, but what time is worth, us in our weakest spot, our vanity, It darkens streaked, fuded hair, gray how little beauty may be worth, how whereas blame wounds us in our most drug store at very little cost and mixed womanhood, how fine ideals are above our hurt pride by persisting in doing the at home.—Advertisement.

Of course if we were the grand, noble is most trustworthy, the one who knows creatures we should be bent on our high. The boss depends on him who is mos est self-development, when our atten-dependable, the crackerjack salesman who tion was called to our faults we would works ten times as hard to sell as the devote our energies to building up and man who knows that not much is exstrengthening the weak spots in our char- pected of him?

Surely this alone should furnish a tip best. Throw away the hammer, and try the knockers that it would be better spreading the salve! o throw away their hammers and get busy spreading the salve if they want results. As a matter of fact, everybody knows that all you've got to do to make a woman break her neck is to dangle a little flattery before her. She will go for it every time, and so I advise the husband who bemoans his wife's bills to try praising her economy a little. Let him discourse before company upon her thrift and what a help she is, and, my word for it, she will put a Yale lock on and if the plan goes through the people her pocketbook that it will take a pro- of that state in the next generation will fessional safe cracker to undo.

be paying for roads which have long Likewise any woman can be turned into since been worn out and replaced with good housekeeper by a husband who new ones. The Keystone state should Still, when a man doesn't like his wife's judiciously praises a good dish and sorprofit by the costly experience in New not one, perhaps, that has ever been put resent? The continuous hard labor of a housekeeping, or thinks she spends too rowfully remarks over a bad one that it York, where $50,000,000 has been expended isn't quite up to her usual exalted cult- already and $50,000,000 more is to be spent in the same extravagant manner

> Positively the only thing that will nati for mortgages. In many states it is less, ing dish water coffee, and buying imported a man to his own hearthstone and make run for fifty years. This will mean that him a generous, attentive and interested If a woman objects to her husband's lover as well as a husband, is to find

As for employes, isn't it invariably the nan who knows he is most trusted who proposition, if slipshod roads must be

Next Monday

"The King of Diamonds"

A most thrilling serial of great imaginative range, the annals of another Monte Cristo,

By Louis F. Tracy will start in The Bee, to run in daily installments. Start this great story with the first installment

Next Monday

By CONSTANCE CLARKE,

Dr. Hammond proposed that night. Just gaged today, and things might have been acters. That would be the logical thing Oh. it's praise, and not blame, that altogether different, but as it is, here to do, but alas, which of us is logical, makes the world go around. We give you are, jus the same Peggy, and I think hair?" And then I knew that I really when it comes down to brass tacks with the best of us to those who expect the you're just as happy, although I suppose best of us, and who appreciate that been in love. I wore my darling white lace gown when he came. Of course, I didn't ex- ing away, and then he crushed me up pect him to do anything foolish, and, to against him and I didn't like it, because tell the truth, I had lost all the funny I wasn't in love with him a bit. I could illusions I had about him long ago. I hear his heart beat just as plainly, but remember how I felt the rainy day I all I could think of was that I wanted to learned to make tarts. But he has the get away. most adorable hair. Even last night I "I don't like your hair at all," I said, wanted to rumple it up.

He was different when he came. I sniffed and wrinkled up my nose, and kissed." he just looked at me, and I was afraid. was afraid he was going to touch me before he said anything, and I didn't know how much till you fall in love know what to do. So I slipped into the yourself some day. Some day when you library, and called back, "We have some won't hate being kissed." And then he new records."

sensible and friendly while I munched marrons and sorted out records. I never end in such a horrid way? "Some day stopped to think before what a help a Victrola is in time of trouble. How could had said. Why do kisses always make anyone propose to a ragtime tune?

"Peggy," he said suddenly, "every tim think of my first impression of you, I! smile to myself. Didn't I say you were mixture of frivolity and seriousness that was enough to puzzle anyone?" "Yes, fair hero." I said, dropping him mock courtesy, "and you said I didn't have enough sense to be a nurse." "Hardly that." with the idea."

the idea." "No. you see, I have taken your advice about life.

trola safely between us, said tantalizingly, "Such a nice laugh, but why, and why do you have such very nice rumply to heart. That ought to flatter you, any

"It does. But, Peggy, you would look nice in uniform." And then he laughed think, Peggy, you might have been en- shortly, and I, with the bulk of the Vicshouldn't have said it, because, after all, you really can't tell unless you've really the Victrola wasn't a very safe barricade, and he came around so very determindly, "Well, you have," I said lamely, back-with my face all muffled against his shoulder. "I take back everything I said. went to the door, and he brought in that Please, please let me go." And then, dear, funny medicine smell with him. I "Don't you dare to kiss me. I hate being

"Dear," he whispered, in such a funny voice, "I love you, I love you, you'll never kissed me on my throat, under my chin, Then he came in, and was really quite and I let him go without saying goodby. Oh, why do friendships always have to when you wen't hate being kissed," he such a difference? And then I ran out into the hall after him. I wanted to say, "Aren't we going to be friends still?" But he had gone, and I had such a queer little ache in my throat, and I put my fingers up to the place where he had kissed me.

I wasn't going to see him any more, my big, adorable boy doctor. He might have said goodby. But I'm not in love with him, and he really shouldn't have kissed "Well, at least you said I was in love me, even on the throat. But I'm going to miss him, and, and-that part about "And now you senr't even in love with kissing. I wonder what he meant? Oh, Peggy, what a lot you have to learn

Hair Coming Out? Got Dandruff or Does Scalp Itch? - 25-cent Danderine

Save your hair! 'Make it soft, how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just glossy, fluffy, beautiful-Grows hair and we prove it.

saddle posterity with debt when we but we have no right to spend posterity's ing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles ed or injured by careless treatmentthe beauty of your hair. No difference that's all .- Advertisement.

moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing-your hair will Try as you will, after an application of be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an Danderine, you cannot find a single trace appearance of abundance; an incomparof dandruff or failing hair and your able lustre, softness and luxuriance, the sculp will not itch, but what will please beauty and shimmer of true hair health. you most, will be after a few weeks' use. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowiten's Danwhen you see new hair, fine and downy derine from any drug store or tallet counat first-yes-but really new hair-grow- ter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and noft as any-that it has been neglect-