SUNDERLAND APPEALS CASE

Oman Resists Payment of Judgment to Agnes Jacquith.

FLEGE TRIES TO SECURE BAIL

Minden Men Will Get in Running to Make Bid on New State Reformatory—Journal Gets Injunction.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—William C. Sunderland of Omaha has appealed to the supreme court from a judgment for $7,000 and interest, in all amounting to $8,330.13, secured in district court of Douglas county by Agnes Jacquith for money claimed to be due her for the sale of 201 shares of stock in the Nebraska Underwriters' Insurance company.

The claim was made in district court that it was represented to her that the stock was depreciating and was not worth over 75 cents on the dollar. On that representation she advised Mr. Sunderland to sell the stock if he could at that price. He sold the stock to Montgomery & Finkhouser of Chicago and turned over to Miss Jacquith $15,075 as the amount received for the stock at 75 per cent of the par value of the stock.

She averred she discovered later that the stock brought $22,110 and sued for the balance.

Flege After Bail. Fred S. Berry, attorney for William Flege, the Wayne county man sentenced to the penitentiary last week for the murder of his sister, has appealed to the supreme court to be allowed to secure a bail bond for his client pending a hearing in the supreme court on the matter.

Minden Wants Reformatory. Louis Paulson and Chris Aable of Minden called on the railway commission today for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for making a bid for the new $150,000 reformatory. They were not prepared to make any statement as to what kind of an offer they would make but wanted to know what methods to pursue to get in the game.

Fined for Misbranding. Food Commissioner Harman has received notice that Mark & Daniels, a firm of millers at Spencer, had pleaded guilty and paid the assessed fine made by the judge for selling mill stuff without branding.

Report on Crete Branch. The report of the electrical engineers sent out to examine the Crete branch and other lines of the Missouri Pacific railway have reported to the railway commission that the Crete branch is in a fair condition in some places, but on the whole is in need of a general overhauling. They recommend three things: First, ballast; second, new rails, and third general overhauling. A new bridge will be built this spring at one point on the road and much repair work and ballasting has been promised by the company.

Question of Coal Weights. Are Lincoln coal dealers honest, or do the scales vary, is a question which is up for discussion in the capital city, brought about by weighing sixty-two loads of coal by the city after the same had left the scales and were on their way to the customer. Of this number thirty showed short weight to the total amount of 1,750 pounds in a total supposed weight of fifty-one tons and 120 pounds; nineteen loads were overweight to the amount of 2,200 pounds of a total supposed weight of a little over thirty-three and one-half tons, and seven of the sixty-two loads were correct. The biggest overweight was on a load of two tons which weighed 500 pounds more than the requirement. The largest shortage was 170 pounds on a half ton load.

Attack Outside Competition. The State Journal company some time ago made application to Judge Stewart of the Lancaster district court for an injunction restraining Supreme court Clerk Harry Lindsay from delivering a copy of the opinions of the supreme court No. 16 and 17. W. Stevens Printing company of Columbia, Mo., which secured the contract for the printing and the injunction has been granted. It also forbids State Auditor Howard from drawing a warrant for the same and Treasurer George from paying the warrant.

The point brought out is that the Missouri company is a corporation outside of the state and that at the time of the letting of the bid it had not made application as a corporation to do business in this state and had not complied with the state law regarding foreign corporations.

Check from Keith County. State Auditor Howard received today a check for $300 from the county clerk of Keith county, being the first installment of the $1,700 due on the account for care of insane from that county to the state.

Benson Man Who Eloped With Girl is in Plattsmouth Jail

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Porter Camp, who has been residing at Benson for several months, but for two weeks stopped with William Briggs and wife at their rooming house at No. 1312 North Seventeenth street, Omaha, and Miss Adaline Darrough, who resided with her mother and stepfather at the above number, arrived in Plattsmouth last evening and about 7:30 were united in marriage by Judge M. Archer. James Darrough, the father of the girl, who is stopping at the State hotel in Omaha, telephoned to County Attorney C. H. Taylor, and Porter Camp was arrested within half an hour after the marriage. The girl is only 15 years of age, but Camp swore that she was 19 years old. The parents and the girl returned to Omaha this afternoon, but Camp is in the county jail and probably will be prosecuted for perjury. James Darrough resided in this county many years and his daughter Adaline was born about ten miles south of Plattsmouth. Later the family resided in Plattsmouth for a time before removing to Jovina. Camp's former wife died two weeks ago.

Commissioner Hall Proves Some Traveler

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Publicity given the use of mileage in one of the departments under the supervision of the governor has prompted that official to issue the statement that he will in the future require every department to keep a complete check of what is done with mileage books purchased and where used. The railway commission has for the last year or more kept a complete record of every mile of travel made by every member of the commission and its employees. Whenever a mileage book is purchased an account is opened with that book, the book charged with the amount of mileage contained and as it is used checked off. It gives the date used, from what town and to what town with the amount of miles left after return is made. One 2,000-mile book used by Commissioner Hall showed that he had ridden 2,023 miles. Another of 1,000 miles showed 1,001 miles. Another of 1,000 miles showed that but 999 miles of riding was done. All other books checked out even.

PAWNEE FARMERS MAY ENGAGE DEMONSTRATOR

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—At a meeting at the court house yesterday afternoon of the interested farmers of the county, the question of the advisability of procuring the services of a farm demonstrator for Pawnee county were enthusiastically discussed by the large number present. The plan of procedure outlined was to form a crop growers' association with membership open to all, and to have this body secure the official in question. Pending further information as to the possibility of securing a large enough membership for the organization the following committee was selected to investigate the matter and report at a future meeting: D. W. Osborn, chairman; George Sawyer and George Leonard of Pawnee City, J. D. Barr, Liberty; G. Sommerhalder, Steinauer; George Cotton, Table Rock, and George Potts, Dubois. It was pointed out that $1.50 was already on hand in case the committee reported favorably, the Burlington railroad having pledged $100 and the balance being provided for in a state fund.

News Notes from Fairbury. FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal church parsonage in this city Tuesday night, when Miss Gladys Wilby and Orville R. Hiner were married. Miss Mary L. Hiner was bridesmaid and returned from a trip to Kansas City, Mo., where he acted as a delegate from Fairbury Brotherhood of Car Repairers of America, No. 259, at a convention of conference of this order for the Rock Island lines. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buchanan have returned from a trip to Oklahoma City, Okl.

At a recent conference between the Rock Island officials and the "safety first" committeemen it was decided to hold meetings every other month instead of monthly. Owing to a slight advance in the wheat market Jefferson county farmers have been busily engaged in hauling the last year's crop to the market at Fairbury. Don Houck, a machinist in the Rock Island shops at Forty-seventh street, Chicago, is in the city visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Houck.

Senator Allen Appoints Committee. MADISON, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The following committee has been appointed by former Senator William V. Allen to have charge of a primary election for the purpose of recommending a postmaster at Madison, Mr. Allen being ex-officio chairman: J. C. Reeves, Dr. A. E. Gadsbiss, M. C. Garrett, Christ J. Kortman, Thomas Letina and M. B. Foster. The committee will meet at 9 o'clock this morning and begin its labors. A. K. Donovan, editor of the Star-Herald, and H. C. Haskins have voluntarily withdrawn their names as candidates, leaving the field so far as is now known to Fred H. Davis, William Bates and W. S. Tannery.

High Prices for Cattle. CAMBRIDGE, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Record smashing prices for cattle were paid at the public auction of thirty-seven head of thoroughbred Herefords sold here yesterday by Mousell Brothers. The stock sold represented the natural increase of 100 cows for one year. The bulls sold at an average price of $33.17, thirty-four being auctioned. Bidders paid $11.70 for these bulls, the highest price for one animal being $10.25, paid for a yearling bull. The next highest was $10.25, paid for a yearling bull. The highest price paid for a cow was $10.25. The sale netted Mousell Brothers $15,620.

CLUB SECRETARIES MEET

Charles C. Rosewater Tells of Work Done for Publicity of Resources.

MOTION PICTURES BIG AID

Various Problems Confronting Cities of Nebraska Are Presented and Discussed by Men at the Helm.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—While the attendance at the second annual convention of the Commercial club secretaries of the state, in session here, is not as large as was expected, the enthusiasm and interest in the work displayed by those in attendance has made up for the lack of numbers. Some of the best papers along business lines ever listened to have been read and take it as a whole the meeting has been a success.

"An address by C. C. Rosewater, general manager of The Omaha Bee, was one of the interesting talks of the session. Mr. Rosewater reviewed the work of the legislative committee appointed last year to prepare a bill for introduction in the legislature for the purpose of showing the resources of Nebraska and giving the state the sort of advertising it needed. The bill passed in a modified form as regarding the appropriation necessary to make the work bring the best results, but with the $5,000 appropriated a good start had been made. "The work of the committee had been mostly in the hands of Dr. George Condra, secretary of the state university and he reviewed the work done by Dr. Condra. Motion pictures showing the diversified industries of the state had been prepared by the committee under the supervision of Dr. Condra and the work of advertising the state from now on would go on with good results. Mr. Rosewater hoped that by the use of these pictures the legislature would see the need of a larger appropriation at its next session.

On State's Resources. Other papers read were: "The Initiative of the Secretary," by A. M. Conners of Grand Island; "The State Capital as the Store House of Information," by W. S. Whitten, Lincoln; "Securing New and Developing Existing Industries," by Senator George F. Wels, Fremont; "Training of the Secretary," by H. M. Bushnell, Lincoln Trade Review; "Publicity of the State, the City and the Club," by E. V. Parrish, Omaha; "Traffic Problems," by E. J. McVann, Omaha; "The Secretary and the Executive Committee," by Fred Ashton, Grand Island; "The Junior Commercial Club," by W. D. Fisher, Norfolk.

Mr. Parrish impressed upon the secretaries the importance of distinguishing between "publicity" and "notoriety." In this regard, he said, the newspapers could help a great deal. "You will always find the newspapers willing to boost for you," said he, "and will do it right."

One man said he had difficulty with a newspaper man in his town in getting him to come across with the right sort of co-operation. "Let me tell you something," said Mr. Parrish in reply. "Don't try to pull off anything on the newspapers. You can't do it. They are your best friend. Treat them right. Give them the stuff you give and they will in most instances be glad to give it the publicity needed."

Helping Home Institutions. Senator Voltz of Fremont desired to impress upon the meeting the importance of clubs lending their assistance to worthy institutions already located rather than to securing new ones.

F. L. Ringer of the Manufacturers' association demanded that clubs patronize home institutions and asked how many men present were smoking Nebraska made cigars. One man responded that he always smoked cigars made in his home town.

W. D. Fisher of Norfolk and E. V. Parrish spoke on the methods used in junior commercial club work in their respective cities, the latter covering the situation in Omaha very thoroughly. Resolutions asking the next legislature to appropriate $25,000 for the State Publicity commission were passed; also thanking the Lincoln Commercial club for entertainment, the hotel, fire, food and railway commissions for assistance rendered and a vote of thanks to H. M. Bushnell of the Trade Review for efficient work in behalf of the clubs in the smaller towns and general good work.

The following officers were elected: President, A. M. Conners, Grand Island; secretary-treasurer, R. E. Riley, Fairbury; vice president, W. S. Whitten, Lincoln; W. A. Ellis, Omaha; S. D. Thurston, Neligh; J. E. Tillotson, Harvard, and C. O. Wertz, Crawford.

Grand Island and Hastings were placed in nomination for the 1915 meeting, but the matter was left to the above officers, who constitute the executive committee.

FARMER ACCUSED OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

VALENTINE, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Sheriff Rossett yesterday morning arrested Van Lewis, a farmer, who is charged with assault upon Ruth Ayers, the little 12-year-old daughter of William Ayres and wife, who farm about seven miles southwest of here. According to the girl's story the crime is alleged to have been committed Monday evening about 6 o'clock while the little girl was going horseback after cattle. Van Lewis, who is a married man with a family, was arrested when he came to town with a load of corn. The child told the authorities that she believed it was he, as she recognized his voice. Preliminary trial will be held Friday, January 30.

Isaac Robison, an old resident of this city, died Wednesday evening, aged 74 years. He is survived by a widow and three children. Peterson of Sherman Visits State Capital

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Thirty-six years in Nebraska and never visited the state capital is the record of F. P. He was taken to the office of Governor Morehead and introduced to the executive.

Mr. Peterson came to Nebraska in March, 1878, and settled in Omaha, where he lived until 1890, when he went to Sherman county and took up farming near the county seat of Loup City. He has a wife and three nearly grown boys and girls and says now that he is going to let the children look after things here and he expects to take life a little easier. "I didn't have any idea Lincoln was such a big and prosperous place," said Mr. Peterson to a reporter in the governor's office, "and from now on I expect to come here often.
