Graff to Report that the Schools Are Overcrowded

That seven public schools in the city are crowded beyond capacity and in violation of law will be declared by Superintendent E. U. Graff in a report to the Board of Education Monday night.

So crowded are some of the schools that singe sessions are being held and even at this the congestion is still so great that school work is impeded. "Still there is no remedy now," said Superintendent Graff, "We cannot solve the problem immediately. The report 1 will make merely sets forth the facts.' Members of the teachers' and instruction committee have been considering the crowded condition of public schools, but no recommendations have been prepared owing to the reported shortage of school district funds.

Arrangements will be made to continue the summer vacation schools this year, which will, in a way, tend to alleviate conditions, as pupils will be permitted to make up back work or take advance studies during vacation.

Beaton & Laier Co. Is Your Furniture Store

THE wage earner and moderate salaried man, as well as the man with a more liberal income, will find our store the ideal place in the city to buy house furnishings.

Ours is not a high priced store. The stock is selected to meet the requirements of all. It includes the lowest priced furniture that's worth having and the best that's made. We can furnish the modest cottage and mansion with equal satisfaction to the owners and at prices to suit their purses.

Our store is attractive in prices quoted. We have no "cheap" furniture, but we do have low prices. Everything is priced on a cash basis and this means you can buy here for 15 to 20 per cent less than you would pay for goods of the same quality elsewhere. Every article offered, whether modest or expensive, is "the best at the price."

We realize that many cannot pay a furniture bill all at one time. So we arrange terms to meet individual needs-the prices being just the same as if cash were paid.

We offer you large stocks to choose from and give you prompt service.
