Design and Decorations.

The design of the building and its decerations draw their inspiration from the lonic order, with modern modifications, and the period of Louis IV. The dining John J. The walls are decorated in old lvory and gold, the color theme of the lobby being one of rare beauty and perfect harmony.

Part of the structural iron work was empleted in the fall of 1912, but the Suilding did not get well under way until the spring of last year. All of the brick used, including face brick and hollow ille, came from Hastings plants. The work is also a Hastings product. The building occupies a space 122x66 feet and is six stories high with a deep exement. It has all modern equipment for the convenience of its guests.

History of Building. The movement resulting in the building of the Clarke hotel began with the appointment by the Chamber of Commerce a committee instructed to proceed with the organizing of the hotel company and the soliciting of subscription. It was decided first to determine on the location and finite the purchase of the site to the amount of ground necessary for the hotel, thus eliminating speculalive features and making it purely a pubaffair. The capital stock was fixed at $125,000, but later increased to $175,000. The furnishings cost close to $30,600,

The hotel is named after the presiden of the building company, A. I. Clarke who is also president of a local bank Mr. Clarke has been one of the leading spirits in the hotel movement from the seginning, and it was by unanimous vote the executive board that his name eas used for the splendid new building. The hotel will be operated by John M Teeling as proprietor, who came here from Watertown, S. D. His, assistant and chief clerk is Robert Smith, who was Mr. Teeling's first lieutenant at Watertown, and he, too, has served in a numher of leading hotels of the west. He a chof from Vienns, Austria, and bell boys from Korea.

Other Events Scheduled. The Woman's club of Hastings will old a banquet in the Clarke on February It. The business men of Hastings will have a banquet there under the suspices of the Chamber of Commerce on February 22. Later the stockholders of the building company will have a iquet at the hotel, and still later the Motel Men's association of Nebraska will meet there to be the guests of Manager Teeling at a banquet. It is understood that a special meeting of the Hotel Men's association will be called for Hastings at the time they are to inspect the building.

The building company includes about 200 stockholders. The directors are William Brach, G. H. Pratt, E. A. Brandes, Karl Kauf, C. E. Higinbotham, H. E. Stein, R. D. Gaston, A. L. Clarke, Emil Poleneke, William M. Dutton, A. H. Farrens, J. N. Clarke, G. G. Lane and George B. Tyler. The officers are: A. L. Clarke, president; C. E. Histnbotham, vice president; J. N. Clarke, secretary; George H. Pratt. treasurer. The committee which had charge of the construction work is composed of A. L. Clarke, George B. Tyler, A. H. Farrens, Karl Kauf and H. E Stein.

ALMA, Neb., Feb. 6 - (Special.) - Arthur V. Shaffer, who has been editor of Shaffer's Alma Record for the last eight years, sold the paper to Arthur Kimberling, formerly a printer of this city. Under the retiring editor the paper had gained a large circulation throughout the Fifth congressional district and was republican politically, having gained some prominence editorially. Under the new management the paper will be independent politically. Mr. Shaffer has not yet decided as to his future, but is of the opinion that he will get back into the game again after a short rest and upon finding a suitable location.

To Celebrate the Birthday of America's Greatest Son We Will Hold a Sort of Pre-Birthday Sale on Saturday

As the years roll on the opinion of the people of this nation is becoming more and more crystallized until today, it is pretty generally conceded that the man whose birthday will be celebrated within a few days, viz., Abraham Lincoln, is America's greatest son! We say IS for his name and influence counts for more today than when he was in the flesh. Aye, more, if a census by vote was taken covering the opinion of the civilized world, we believe that the name of the great emancipator would lead all the rest, and that the majority of ballots would register his name at the top of the list of great men. The homely truths which he uttered have become world proverbs and axioms, influencing the character and lives of
