

S. O. INSURGENTS WIN OUT

All Delegates Chosen Are Against the Present Officers.

TO COMBAT CHICAGO RATE RAISE

Camp No. 1095, Modern Woodmen of America, Adopts Resolutions in Which it Says Time Has Come to Assert Rights.

Insurgents were in full control of the meeting and election of county convention delegates of South Omaha camp No. 1095 held Thursday. The seventeen delegates and an equal number of alternates chosen are all opposed to the present head officers of the order and to any increase in rates greater than 25 per cent.

"Resolved, That the delegates elected by this camp be instructed to use all honorable means in their power to carry out the following instructions:

"First—That they insist on the repeal of the rates adopted at Chicago.

"Second—That they endeavor to restore the control of the society to the membership and to that end they work and vote to elect new head officers.

"Third—That they favor a change in our laws which shall restrict any of our head officers from serving more than two consecutive terms.

"Fourth—That they oppose any change in our present rates greater than 25 per cent, and any change whatsoever be made only on the age of entry.

"Fifth—That all delegates here and now elected pledge themselves to carry out these instructions.

Plenty of Coal, With No Raise in Sight

With a good supply of coal in Omaha, and no raise of price in prospect, heavy coal users have had some of their worry allayed. The coal dealers say that the present cold spell found Omaha well prepared, and as a result no shortage or price increase will follow.

RAISING WILD ANIMALS FOR FURS UNSUCCESSFUL

"No extensive industry will ever result from efforts to raise wild animals in captivity for their furs," declares E. H. Waterman, a representative of the J. H. Bishop Fur company, who is in Omaha looking after next season's fur business. He referred to attempts made in various parts of the country to produce marketable furs from skunks, muskrats, minks and other animals in captivity, and said that the best results from such efforts had been found inferior to furs secured from wild animals in their natural conditions in America and abroad.

MANY APPLY AT POLICE STATION FOR SHELTER

Over 100 lodgers were accommodated at the city jail Thursday night, and preparations for considerably over double that number were made for the expected Friday night's crowd. As early as 1 o'clock Friday afternoon men began to apply at the station for shelter from the cold. From last night's crowd will be chosen 100 or more men to work on the ice.

Quit Meat When Kidneys Bother

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick.

Six Thousand is Verdict Against the Dewey Hotel

A verdict of $6,000 against John D. Creighton, owner of the Dewey hotel, which burned February 28 last year, in favor of the heirs of Henfree H. Rickard of South Omaha, a victim of the fire, was returned by a jury in Judge Troup's district court. His widow, Mrs. Clara Rickard, and father, Peter H. Rickard, sued for $50,000, alleging that the dead man was unable to escape from his outside room in the hotel by reason of inadequate fire escapes and failure to comply with legal requirements concerning equipment for hotels. It was the first suit brought against the owner of the building as a result of the fire.
