Will Be Contenders for Pennant in New League This Year.

JOE TINKER TELLS ABOUT IT

Says George Baumgardner, Pitcheh, Sam Agnew, Catcher, and Gus Williams, Outfielder, to Go with Stovall.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.-The Kansas City Federals will be among the fighters for the pennant in the new league next summer, according to Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals, who is authority for the statement that Sam Agnew, catcher: George Baumgardner, pitcher, and Gus Williams, outfielder, have left the St. Louis Americans to play with Manager Stovall's team. According to Tinker, the three players agreed to Federal league terms just after the American league season closed last year. With Baumgardner and Blanding of Cleveland the mainstays, Stovall's pitching staff, it is believed will be among the strongest. Tinker today received the signed contract of Cadmus Coles, mho was on the reserve list of the Philadelphia Americaps, and who had a batting average of 356 with Elmyra in the New York State league last year. Coles is an outfielder. McGuire, pitcher last year with the local Federals, today signed a contract with
