

CONTEST NOW NEEDS VOTES

M. and M. Plan at Point Where Interest is Intense.

WILL GIVE LIST WEDNESDAY

Names and Addresses of All Retailers Who Issue Votes to Be Published in The Bee on That Day.

The Bee Merchants and Manufacturers' voting contest has now reached the point where it is a case of votes and the best way to get them. Here is a suggestion from the contest manager that will be a big help to every nominee in the contest: From now on until the finish of this big gift plan—March 25—make it your business to patronize the retailers who give away M. and M. voting coupons. You can find these dealers in every district covered by the contest—Omaha, South Omaha, Council Bluffs, Blair, Glenwood, Ia., Lyons, Fremont, Arlington, Oakland and Wahoo. They represent all of the different lines of merchandise that are good for votes—articles of every-day use. In addition to the value of the labels these retailers will give you five votes for each 1 cent cash purchase; they will sell you dust bunnies that are good for bonus votes, and they will be glad to advise you as to the value of the labels on the articles they sell you.

The Bee on Wednesday, February 11, will be published a complete list of the retailers listed in the contest. Every contestant should read carefully the names published. Not to patronize these merchants means to lose votes. Why not take Wednesday's Bee, cut out this advertisement and hang it up at home as you would a calendar? Then, when you wish to make a purchase, you have only to refer to the list, select the retailer who sells the goods you wish to buy—and then patronize him.

The three-page circular letter that is being sent out to organizations and individual nominees covers completely the increased values placed on manufactured products. There are many sales plans outlined in this circular that will be a great aid to the candidates who are really in the race to win. If this circular has not reached you ask at the contest department for a copy.

The following is a partial list of the candidates—"the workers." The names are printed in the order of the standing of each nominee. The name of the candidate holding the largest number of votes in each district heads the list, the one holding the second largest number of votes is printed second and so on to the last name in the district. This record is compiled up to and including Thursday, February 5:

A young doctor may stumble into the good graces of a patient by a fluke, as in the story fathered, like so many stories, upon Abernethy. After a convivial gathering Abernethy was summoned to the aid of a well-to-do woman. When he pulled out his watch and put his fingers on the patient's wrist he could not count the pulse. "Drunk," he muttered. The next morning he was requested to make an early call to see the woman, who received him most effusively. "Doctor," she said, "you are the first honest doctor I have had. I was drunk." And ever after she was one of Abernethy's staunchest adherents and best patients.—Strand Magazine.

Three Men Are Being Prosecuted for Public Offense in Posting Pharmacy Men on Examination Questions.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Three men accused of conspiracy to commit a public offense in connection with the theft and sale of pharmacy examination papers, pleaded not guilty in police court and were released on bonds today. H. W. Byers, former attorney general, appeared on behalf of State Printer Henderson to prosecute the case. Charles Handolph, the boy who worked at the state printing office, admits he took an extra proof of the form for examination papers and this was the one that was sold to the pharmacy students for $20. He dealt with W. F. Thompson, a printer, and he sold them through J. Packman, a drug clerk.

Taxation Papers Filed.

The argument was filed today in the case of the League of Iowa Municipalities against the state executive council involving the former method of making assessments and adjusting values. This is the argument on behalf of the league on the appeal of the state from an order of the district court, on which order the council did what it could to adjust assessed values by increasing as to many classes of property. The argument involves the entire previous method of making assessments. It was shown and admitted by the former state executive council that in 1911 the farm lands of the state were being assessed at from 60 to 80 per cent of actual value, that railroad and similar properties were being assessed at from 50 to 60 per cent of actual value and property in cities and towns were assessed on a value from 75 to 95 per cent of value. It was also admitted this had been done for years and the laws of the state ignored in all such matters, and that it was the intent to continue to do so. It was because of these facts that the lower court made the order to have assessments adjusted to actual value, which was done this year for the first time under the penalties of the court. The state makes the claim that the court had no right to interfere in the case at all and the hearing in the supreme court will be on this point.

Woodmen Contest is Warm One.

One of the largest camps of the Woodmen Woodmen, located here, has instructed its delegates to the state convention of Woodmen to vote for the reelection of F. H. Korns of this city as director of the national organization. Korns is one of the present board on which the big fight is being made by the insurgent Woodmen over rates. C. W. Lyon, the leader of the insurgents, also lives here. Both Korns and Lyons spoke before the camp prior to its taking action. Both sides are claiming they will control Iowa and send a delegation to the Toledo meeting favorable to their contentions. The insurgents are demanding lower rates than those which were adopted. Camps all over the state will be taking action this month on the subject.

Will Prosecute for Pharmacy Deal.

The state printer will prosecute the persons responsible for the theft and sale of examination questions regarding pharmacy matters. Three persons were arrested and are being held—Charles Randolph, an employe of the state printer, who is said to have secured the copy; J. Packman, a drug clerk, who acted as a go-between, and W. F. Thompson, a linotype operator, who arranged the deal. Whether the entire class will be re-examined has not yet been determined.

Green Secures Papers.

W. R. Green, member of congress for the Ninth district, today secured nomination papers to again become a candidate for congress. Judge Clarence Nichols of Vinton also secured nomination papers.

Members Palmer and Ketchum of the State Railroad Commission returned today from Fort Dodge where they passed on a condemnation matter regarding the railroads.

Much Aid for the Oil Bill.

Commissioner Barney of the food and dairy department, has received many offers of support for the bill introduced into congress by Senator Kenyon to forbid interstate transportation of lined oil that is adulterated. The farm journals of the country will be back of the measure almost unanimously and they will bring much pressure on congressmen to consider the merits of the measure. It is claimed that farmers are the greatest sufferers from the adulteration business with oils and paints.

Will Defend Game Law.

E. A. Cleasby of Portage, Wis., who is a federal inspector of game laws, has written to an Iowa man in regard to the enforcement of the new federal migratory game law.

"I have been advising the hunters and sportsmen of the state that it was absolutely a violation of the federal law to shoot migratory birds in the spring. While we shall possibly have no help from your warden department as we are receiving in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan, yet some measure will be provided to execute the federal law. The big problem is a matter of education, so that the people will understand the value of bird life and the fallacy of spring shooting."

PRESIDENT LAUDS BRYAN

Executive Pays High Tribute to Secretary of State.

FREE TOLLS AID TO MONOPOLY

Asserts Provision Seems to Him in Cleary Violation of Terms of the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 7.—President Wilson, in a letter to William L. Marbury of this city, which will be published in the Baltimore Sun tomorrow, says that the exemption of American coastwise ships from Panama canal tolls "constitutes a very material injury from every point of view and benefits few if any persons, and is, in fact, a monopoly." The president also pays a high tribute to Secretary of State Bryan.

The letter follows: "White House, Washington, Feb. 5, 1914. My Dear Mr. Marbury: I have your letter of January 20 and with regard to the question of canal tolls, my opinion is very clear. The exemption constitutes a very mistaken policy from every point of view. It is economically unjust as a matter of fact it benefits few if any persons, and it is in clear violation of the terms of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. There is, of course, much honest difference of opinion as to the best point, as there is, no doubt, as to the future, but it is at least debatable, and if the promises we make in such matters are debatable, I for one do not care to debate them. I think the country would prefer to let no question arise as to its whole-hearted purpose to redeem its promises in the light of any reasonable construction of them rather than debate a point of honor.

"Your reference to the secretary of state shows how comprehensively you have looked on during the last few months. Not only have Mr. Bryan's character, his justice, his sincerity, his transparent integrity, his Christian principle, made a deep impression upon all with whom he has dealt; but his tact in dealing with men of many sorts, his capacity for business, his mastery of the principles of each matter he has been called upon to deal with, have cleared away many a difficulty and have given to the policy of the State department a definiteness and dignity that are very admirable. I need not say what pleasure and profit I, myself, have taken from close association with Mr. Bryan or how thoroughly he has seemed to all of us who are associated with him here to deserve not only our confidence, but our affectionate admiration.

"Sincerely yours," "WOODROW WILSON."

The Cause.

"Who is that fellow?" asked Greene of a friend one evening at the club.

"Why, that's Henderson," was the reply. "You know him, don't you? Come on over, I'll introduce you."

"Excuse me," said Greene, with considerable emphasis, "I have no use for that fellow."

"Why," queried the other, in some surprise, "what have you against him?"

"Well, old man, of course, you didn't know," explained Green, "but you see, he jilted my wife once."—New York Times.

started, unless we are mistaken, in Seattle, where it got into print at least a year ago. The phrase is a corruption of the German "nicht gefoddt," which means literally "not fiddled." The Germans, especially of East Prussia, and Jews everywhere, have long used it in the sense of "I don't care." "Ish ka bibble" is the way Americans have understood the phrase and spread it. The slang word "masuma," by the way, is a corruption of the Hebrew "mesumen" or "mesumen," meaning ready cash.—Boston Globe.
