Easter in Atlantic City.

A number of Omaha women whose children are east at school will spend the Easter vacation at Atlantic City, where their daughters and sons will join them. Among these women this year will be Mrs. Offutt, Mrs. Charles Kountze and Mrs. Ward Burgess. Mrs. C. C. Allison and Mrs. Wilhelm have no children in Atlantic City.

Creighton Man Marries Heiress.

Miss Anna Butler of St. Louis and Anthony C. Wagner of Omaha, who were married in St. Louis Thursday, first met when "Tony" Wagner was a student in St. Louis and was a star on the St. Louis University football team, in which Miss Butler was greatly interested. Mr. Wagner played football on the Creighton team, going to St. Louis when Creighton was coach of the blue and white. In 1910 he became captain of the team. Miss Butler, granddaughter of the late Colonel Edward Butler, was bequeathed $50,000 by her grandfather's will, under the condition that $10,000 be added to this on the day of her marriage. Her fiancé, who with his father had extensive dealings in Colorado lands and for a time made his home at Sterling, met the requirements of the grandfather's will. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner left for Florida on their honeymoon and intend to spend some time touring in Bermuda, Jamaica and the West Indies. They will spend a part of their honeymoon in Colorado and will then settle down in St. Louis. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Edward Butler, Jr., of St. Louis. The wedding was held at St. Francis Xavier church on the bride's twenty-fifth birthday.

BUST DEVELOPED ONE OUNCE A DAY

A New Simple Easy Home Method That Gives Quick And Permanent Success. Judge from my picture as to the truth of what I say to you—that the crowning feminine attribute is a bust of beautiful proportions, firmness and exquisite development. Then ask yourself how much you would like to have such a photograph of yourself, showing the glory of womanhood with its lines of infinite charm and grace. It would be worth far more than a two-cent stamp, would it not? Then let me give you my message—of being slinky, scrawny, angular and unattractive in body? Misery is not our heritage. Nature planned that you—a woman—should have the rich, pulsing lines of warm, living flesh molded after the mother of us all, the description of whom, perfume our sacred literature, with love and admiration for the divinity of woman's form. For why should there be that pitiful aspect—the face of a woman and the form of a man.

I Will Tell You How—FREE

I will tell you gladly and willingly. Why should any woman neglect an opportunity to escape the pain and heartache of being slinky, scrawny, angular and unattractive in body? Misery is not our heritage. Nature planned that you—a woman—should have the rich, pulsing lines of warm, living flesh molded after the mother of us all, the description of whom, perfume our sacred literature, with love and admiration for the divinity of woman's form. For why should there be that pitiful aspect—the face of a woman and the form of a man.

Write To Me Today

I don't care how fallen, or flaccid, or undeveloped your bust now is—I want to tell you of a simple home method—I want to tell you how you can gain perfect development one ounce a day. No physical culture—no massages, foolish baths or paste-no plasters, masks or injurious injections—I want to tell you of an absolutely new method, never before offered or told about—insuring immediate success and permanent beauty.

Send No Money

Just write me a letter—address it to me personally—that's all. I will answer it by return mail—and you can develop your bust one ounce a day—you can be what you want to be. Believe me when I say that you will bless me through years of happiness for pointing the way to you and telling you what I know. Please send your letter today to the following address:
