IS WOLGAST COMING BACK?

Such is the Question Going Rounds Among Fight Fans.

OPERATION STUNS

Effects of the Abdominal Incision However, Are Said to Be Wearing Off and He is Fast Getting Back in Shape.

BY W. W. NAUGHTON. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7 .- Is Ad. Wolgast coming up again or was his recent showing with Joe Rivers nothing more significant than a flash in the pan? Of course, if you take Ad's word for it or for that matter the word of his manager, Cherokee Tim Jones-the Michignn wildcat's claws have sprouted again and there is trouble ahead for all who attempt to halt him when he starts to mount the steps of the lightweight cham-

"Nothin' to it." said Wolgast. "Nothin' to it." echoes Jones.

"I always knew that I would recover," says Ad. in a letter to the writer What ailed me was simply the lingering effects of the kniffing they gave me at Los Angeles. I mended slowly. In my fights afterwards, I felt a numbness and stiffness in my right side especially where the surgeons made the cut-and weakness extended down my right leg at times. But it's all gone, I took my nedicine and I waited, and Wolgast is himself again. Just watch me. And above all, watch the way I'll corner that boy Eitchie and force him to sign with

It will all come out, of course Wolgast has thoroughly outlived the effects of his appendicitis operation and is experiencing a renewal or return of his former fighting dash, the truth will out. He is still popular enough among the admirers of Queensberry pastimes to warrant promoters handling him occasionally and by his work we shall know

If he continues to do as well as he did in the affair with Rivers, there will surely be a Wolgast boom. There may e and there have been champions whose hold on the affections of the public is and was notably slight, but dyed-in-thewool fight followers always retain a

Classes with Hig Men.

In this respect he classes with John L. ullivan, Bob Fitzsimmons and Battling Nelson, men whose right to call themselves champions was beyond argument. For these reasons, Wolgast, if he begins to climb, will receive many a hearty

If Wolgast qualifies again for a place among the best sellers it will be inter-esting to watch if he falls into an old have become constitutional with him That Wolgast has come to hate the grind of the road and the gymnasium was patent to all who had knowledge of the way he prepared for his later contests in and around San Francisco. It may be that "the lingering effects of the knifing," as he terms it, caused exer-tion of any kind to become irksome, but whatever the reason. Ad's "training"

If he had not been such a vain little wasp it might have been different. When chided by his well wishers for don't need much training to lick this fellow." and he really felt that way about it too.

the ring to box Joe Azevedo at Oakland, lightest pretence of undergoing pre-

Now, the writer is not in a position to the demonstration that this slump in fighting ability during the last year or so was owing to the operation for appendicitis. I'll make bold to say, though, hat he will not be able to demonstrate very much unless he trains more conscientiously than he did for some of his houts during the last half of the year down in Taft, is evidenced by a letter I received from a sport who signs himself "A Bugge." Incidentally I wish my correspondent had mended the graceful York style in which he began his letter. As se proceeded he lapsed into rartime and too much syncopation detracted from the pleasure derived from persuing his epistie. At that much of it can be quoted and as will be noticed, it carries a "punch" in every line.

"A Bugme," nayet "Kenneth is not quanderous in delivery. True, he misses asionally, but after watching him pld recovery. He is, in fact, a larger Cetchell in point of hitting, plus the effectiveness of difference in weight." It's a scholarly summing up of the Official Kid's strong points, but it is doubtful if Gunboat Smith, on reading it for the first tinme, would know exat if called upon suddenly to meet

Here is something, however, which may induce Gunboat to regard Kenneth as a worthy foeman. It took Gunboat fifteen younds to drop Arthur Pelkey. Cenneth accomplished the job in six. By the way, the Taft folks are not go-og to force Kenneth to the front. They feel that he is a promising young husky and they are inclined to send him me slowly and give him a chance to o and mature. They are satisfied destined to make his mark eventually, but for a year or so, if Kenneth follows the course mapped out he will make Taft his fighting headquarters and have his opponents delivered right at

At the end of a year he may take out his first papers as a white hope.

Lajoie is Modest. Larry Lajoie, in picking an all-star am, names Eddie Collins as the ideal could baseman in the game today, Larry, owever, pays Ray Morgan, the Baltisore boy, a compliment by saying: "Next Collins Ray Morgan of Washington, in my estimation, the most consistent the American league." Morgan is a wonserfully improved ball player. He was greenhorn when he reported to Washington in the fall of 1911, but he developed sapidity after Griffith placed him at econd base.

Three and Two

ers' committee is to be congratulated finds the solution." membership to a round hundred, and in some good tries." I have reference to the distaste for order to accomplish this end the initiation W. E. Fenion: "A very pretty prob- Omaha. training which for a while seemed to fee of 50 cents will be walved during the lem. month of February, reducing the cost of embership to the payment of the beauty-the best I ever saw." monthly dues of 50 cents. A membership of 100 will enable us to enlarge our quarters and will make us feel that we are mate in six moves, which we take pleasat last "on the map." Nearly every member of the club has constituted himself a three pleces: K-KRS, P-KR7, P-KR57. at last "on the map." Nearly every membooster's committee of one, and we confidently expect to announce the completion of our task by March 1. Chicago university and Armour institute will play a match to decide the tie in the western intercollegiate chess tournament. The games will be played by the captains of the teams, E. Gordon representing Chicago and A. Schwarz the Armour institute team. The first two games of the match have already been played, For some reason, unexpected setbacks resulting in a victory for each team.

did not seem to bear any lesson for him. The winner of the match, in addition to g to box Joe Azevedo at Oakland, be the western intercollegiate champion bubtful if he could have made the for 1914.

An interesting comparison between Newell Banks and LaRue Williams might ning seven, losing two and drawing one; winning three, losing one and drawing two; and in a second exhibition won five be remembered, of course, that Banks That they think a lot of Kid Kenneth played several games of checkers in ad-

The Metropolitan Chass league of New Rice Chess club and the Progressive the move is right, though the description Chess club are both members of the of it be awkward. eague, which is at present engaged in a tournament. These two clubs met each other in the first round of play, the latter winning by 516 to 216. It was then noticed that several members of the losing club, having membership in both bodies. had played with the winning organizaou are impressed with his conserving oneclousness. Hitting from the most case, whereupon the Rice club, claiming the manufacture of the contest was not a criterion of that the contest was not a criterion of that the contest was not a criterion of the contest wa the relative strength of the two clubs. withdrew from the tournament. Chess players in general will regret the occurrence, but it is difficult to condemn the Rice club's action.

A. Kupehik has won the championship transplanted Pirates he received in exof the Manhattan Chess club, having won | change for Harmon. Mowrey and Konetnine games and drawn two, with no chey will strengthen the team a whole losses. He is also the favorite in the lot. The diminutive pilot of the Car-Progressive Chess club tournament with five straight wins, though Charles Jaffe dinals is also banking on his squad of is running an even race with the same youngsters. number of victories to his credit, and O. Chajes and J. Bernstein follow closely with a score of the to he each. Kupchik is only 22 years old and will yet have something to say when masters meet,

Speaking of A 1 two-movers, here's our entry for first honors. Don't all solve it will enter the field next summer. The at once. If anyone has a better, we shall team will play under the name of the be glad to publish it.

By Murray Marble BLACK, TEN PIECES

by R. B. Clayton of Council Bluffs in the issue of January E is Q-BS. Solved by F. C. Swearingen, W. M. Campbell, W. R. Ellis and W. E. Fenion. Owing to

The Omaha Chess and Checker club not certain whether or not anyone else a tie, problems will be submitted to the now has a membership of sixty, an increase of approximately 100 per cent within the last two months. The boostmakes the solver feel pleased when he contestants who are tied until the tie is P-H3.

Contestants who are tied until the tie is P-H3.

The boostmakes the solver feel pleased when he

contestants who are tied until the tie is P-H3.

The boostmakes the solver feel pleased when he

contestants who are tied until the tie is P-H3.

Contestants who are tied until the tie is P-H3.

W. M. Campbell: "It certainly is a

W. E. Fenlon sends an end game with White, three pieces: K-Kaq, B-Qsq, Kt-Q2.

Arrangements have been completed for Newell Banks to give a dual exhibition of checkers and chess at the South Side Checker club in Chicago on Saturday, February 14, and Sunday, February 21. Mr. Banks will try to break Frank Mar-shall's world's record, made at Pitts-burgh, of fifty-three boards in seven hours and forty minutes.

One of the first steps which should be taken by a beginner in chess is to master the systems of tabulation that are in vogue among the fraternity. Much pleasvogue among the fraternity. Much pleas-ure as well as benefit may be derived Q-R7, solved by Dr. J. W. Brendel, W. from running through games of experts, M. Campbell, G. E. Cypher, W. E. Fenfrom running through games of experts. and one is saved from vexation and embarrassment when wishing to describe a whether Wolgast will be successful be drawn from the percentages made at move, if one knows just how to express simultaneous play in Omaha. Williams one's self. One of the points in which all on December 2 played ten games, win- systems agree is that when describing the move of a white piece, one should speak and Banks on one occasion played six, in terms of white, and of black in like manner. For instance, a white bishop does not move to the black king's square, and lost two of seven contests. It is to but rather to the white king's eighth square, or, to describe the move in short, did not confine himself to chess, but B-KS. Or, for another example, the key move of tourney problem No. 3, is not white bishop to black bishop's fourth square," as four or five of the solvers had it, but white bishop to white bishop's York City finds itself embarrassed just fifth, or simply B-B5. Those who used now by difficulties which Nebraska chess the incorrect expression will, of course, will not encounter for many years. The be credited with the correct answer, as

> Rules of tournament: Contestants must reside in Nebraska or Iowa. Tourney consists of twenty-six problems, and the contestant who solves the greatest number will be declared winner. In case of sacker and manager of the St. Louis

Cardinals, who is entirely satisfied with the wholesale trade he negotiated with lished. The prize is a $5 set of chess- B-Q2. upon the success of its efforts. We have W. R. Ellis: "Not the best 2-er, but a men. Answers to problems and all cor- Kt-Kts. now set ourselves the task of raising the clever use of the pinning principle, with respondence should be addressed to E. M. Alkin, Ill South Twenty-fifth avenue,

BLACK, FIVE PIECES

WHITE, SEVEN PIECES.

ion, H. S. Nielsen, J. G. Fort, A. L. Joseph, F. C. Swearingen, L. A. Tyson, H. Thomsen, L. R. Marr, I. E. Minier, W. C. Findley, B. I. Darting, Verne K.

bers are urged to attend.

within the next two weeks and will give an exhibition of blindfold chess and checkers. Experts in either game are cordially invited to attend regardless of Banks. The exact date will be announced next Sunday.

Banks, Wednesday, January 23; PHILIDOR'S DEFENSE.

Viele, Mrs. R. C. Moore and Otto Kruse. A business meeting of the Omaha Chess and Checker club has been called for Sat-urday, February 1, at 2 o'clock. All mem-may justly feel proud of this win. and Checker club has been called for Sat-Newell Banks will be in Omaha again WESTERN LEAGUE TO whether or not they are members of the addition the players would be getting club. They may feel sure of a hearty welcome and a chance to lock horns with season.

Following is Sitera's win from Newell

Sitera Black. P-K4 P-Q3 Banks, White.

B-K2 year. Kt-KB8 High 5 Castles Kt-R4.. QR-B sq Kt-K2 R-KB 80 BxKt ch..... RxR... PxP... B-BZ.

50 K-K5 K-K4

and save time.

HAVE LIVELY MEET

(Continued from Page One.)

The arguments against that are that bad weather would make the late games a losing proposition. In addition Hanlon seems to think it would be an injustice to the fans. Why he doesn't say, but anyway he thinks it an injustice. The big rough house should be between Hanlon and Holland. Hanlon called the to call it February 8, but after he consulted with Pa Rourke he decided per haps it would be better to wait until February 12. Chicago was decided as the psychological city to hold it. Holland, according to reports, can't see why Hanion should call the meeting even if he is vice president. Holland announces that the heard of directors run the league dur- interest a large portion of the men of the ing O'Neil's absence and that, therefore, school. In soccer foot ball, he believes,

Mr. Hanlon cuts no ice at all. Hanlon ignored Holland by calling the grinning at the fraces.

Wichita Sanguine.

last a little while and the management is sanguine of success. Holland is still of the opinion that Wichita is a good ers, are intent on kicking up a rumpus town in which to have no Western in the Missouri valley conference. The league franchise. Wichita was offered Jayhawkers this time have called into $10,000 for the franchise, but the owners question the Missouri Valley rule relatwanted over three times that amount ing to the participation of any student which was termed extravagant by Hoi- in athletics who has already taken his land so no deal was made. Wichita college degree, the rule originally harwill undoubtedly start the season and if ring his participation. The conference at It fails to finish the proposed guarantee its last meeting decided to ease up a bit law protects the other club owners. - and passed an amendment permitting the

Some Rourkeites Do Not Seem Frantic

(Continued from Page One.) obliged to open the side door of the mint for him. Wallace is a hit timid because of the uncalled for criticisms which were heaped upon his head when he was here last season. Rourke believes he can remove the timidity from the youngster and if such is the case he expects Wal- and Saturday nights. The Drake quintet lace to prove one of the surprises of the Hicks is reported to be considering the Ames team comes here for a two-game Federal league and therein lies the series trouble. The doughty little southpaw will be reluctant to return to the Western if the Feds make a flattering offer not be accommodated. The Cornhusker B-Kt3 and Rourke may lose him. Pa is not schedule is complete already, even withinclined to make any concessions to out making arrangements for games with Hicks because of his fallure last year. Kansas. The South Dakotans are also RA Hicks was not in first class condition at seeking a foot ball date with the Cornany time last year and caused Pa codies huskers next fall, but it is not likely that of grief on that account. If Hicks can the Nebraska management will take Q-B2 B-Q3 figure and is in good condition this be persuaded to return at a reasonable year, he should prove one of the leading B-R2 twirlers of the circuit as he was two years ago.

Feds After Krug.

Krug is perhaps the one player Pa is a bit uncertain about. Krug has manifested no inclination to sign and rumors persist that the Feds are after him. Pa, of course, is optimistic and predicts that Krug will enter the fold with the rest of the lambs, but just the same he has a sneakin' suspicion that if Krug did fail K-K2 to show up the Omaha outfield would probably suffer thereby.

Closman, Congalton, Ward, Kane, Bell and Ormaby have not even communicated with Pa. What their intentions are no one knows. Brenner, who made the backfield for Chamberlain, rated as such a fine showing last season, is sure the best foot ball possibility of recent to sign up and he likes Omaha and is years. Corey, the big linesman, is as particularly struck with the healthy cli- clever a first-year performer as ever mate of the north. Clancy, who was pur- donned moleskins at Nebraska and is chased from New Orleans, makes the going to be a mighty hard man to get habitual complaint. He wants more off of the team. Rasmussen, another rale, but he is not expected to be unruly backfield man on the freshman team, B-Rich about it. Shestak will assuredly return. and Renfro, the clever little quarterback B-B6 He has been given a substantial increase and drop kicker, are the other two men in salary and he is ready to do the bulk with whom regulars will have to reckon. of the catching this summer if necessary. It is for the special purpose of devoting Expects These Soon.

tice, Schlitzer and the rest are expected ball practice, for the Cornhusker mentor already lined up before the gate. Pa chine. has the nucleus for a team and he should Two others have reported since the have an excellent team to open the sea- opening of the second semester who may son with unless luck breaks bad and the be valuable additions to the squad. Tib-Federal league steps to the fore with bets, an old Lincoln High school player. such flattering offers that the players and Otapelik, a former David City High can't resist. Then it will be up to Pa school star, are intending to join the to hustle, but he hopes for the best and spring training squad. The David City there are many fans in Omaha who are lad is reported to have all of the qualifihoping just as hard as he is.

Gets Overhauling at Nebraska Uni Soon

(Continued from Page One.) he has landed the sport.

For the first year at least, soccer will meeting anyhow, so look out for the fur be confined entirely to inter-class conwhen they mix. Both can talk long and tests, the athletic instructors picking the loudly and they may be expected to do captains of the interclass teams and alit while the wiser moguls quietly occupy lowing them to choose the individual an unobtrusive corner in the grill room members of each class team. Stiehm says that between 400 and 500 men can take part in the soccer game so that It is hard to tell what will happen to seted in athletics can take part.

Kansas Looks for Row. Nebraska's old friends, the Jayhawk-It will be one gay little meeting and athlete who had already taken his dethe war scribes should make merry with gree to participate, providing he con-Hanlon and Holland. How it will come formed to the other rules of the conferout cannot be forecasted, but what mat- ence. The change was to become effecters so long as a full detail of the Hol- tive thirty days after its passage by the land-Hanlon controversy is made public? conference officials, providing no protests were made from the schools whose delegates voted to drop the degree pro-

Kansas comes forward with a protest and now another vote is necessary to absolutely determine the status of the to Get on Pa's List Cornhuskers' ruling. The Nebraska authoritles do not expect the conference to change its recent action in abolishing the old rule. Secretary Manley will take a vote by wire in the near future.

Start Home Banket Ball.

Nebraska opens up its home series of Missouri valley conference basket ball games on the university floor next Friday will furnish the entertainment for the Cornhuskers and two weeks later the South Dakota has asked for a basket ball date with the Cornhuskers, but can-

Spring Foot Ball Practice. With his basket ball squad in excellent shape and giving promise of annexing another basket ball championship, Stiehm is now busy laying plans for his spring foot ball practice. The excellent material on the freshmen squad which must be developed for the varsity next fall makes the foot ball practice next spring of unusual importance.

Although Stiehm will lose but two or three of last year's regulars from his allvictorious foot ball team, he will have two or three freshmen players who are very liable to beat regulars out of their places.

With the close of Captain Purdy's three years of foot ball there is a vacancy in attention to these men that Stiehm is The other players, Payne, Stevens, Jus- particularly concerned in the spring foot cations for a linesman.

A Fine Tonic That Prevents Wasted Energy

Proper Stimulus to Nerve Centers Gives Impetus to Blood Health.

8. S. S. By this they mean that it causes them to feel good; they get rid of stagnstion. Things are happening within us all the time that give evidence of having slipped a cog.

We are constantly producing waste products that should come out promptly.

But they accumulate here and there, the nerves tell us about it, the skin shows it, there are almost always certain indications that we need help.

The blood and the herres are so inti-mately associated that they are mutually dependent upon each other for health. And since the lanuence of S. S. S. is so And since the influence of S. S. S. is so pronounced in the blood it necessarily must prove a proper stimulus to the nerves whereby each assists the other to check and eliminate conditions of disease. There is probably no other remedy so well known as S. S. for the blood. And for this reason it is the one remedy invariably called for. But there are many people who do not insist upon having S. S. and are easily persuaded to try something else "just as good," so they ing S. S. S. and are easily persuaded to try something else "just as good," so they are told. If your blood is this: if you have rheumatic pains; if your skin is irritated with eccema, lupus, terter, psorfasia, or any other blood bumour; if you are troubled with pimples or boils do not permit yourself to be talked into buying something else, but insist upon S. S. S. It is really a remarkable remedy. It contains one lugredlest, the active purpose of which is to attendance the tlaness to the healthy selection of its own essential nutriment. And the modifical alse as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats grains, fats and sugare of our daily food. Not only this, but if from the presence Not only this, but if from the presence of some disturbing poison there is a local or general interference of autrition to cause boils, carbuncies, abscesses and aindred troubles, S. S. S. so directs the local cells that this poison is rejected and eliminated from their presence.

Then, too, S. S. has such specific stimulation on these local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and a proper relative assistance to each other.

In a very brief time S. S. has the reconstructive process so under control that remarkable changes are observed. All eruptive places heal, mysterious pains and aches have disappeared, and from and aches have disappeared, and from head to foot there is a conscious sensa-tion of renewed health. That strange, moody, morbid feeling of depression is lifted, and the entire system responds with surprising energy.

From the fact that S. S. S. is purely prom the fact that S. S. Is purely a botanical preparation, it is accepted by the weakest stomach and has great tonic influence in all the digestive organs. It is certainly a wonderful blood medicine, and is prepared direct from native materials gathered by the experts of the famous Swift Laboratory. Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and insist upon having it.

having it.
You can get S. S. S. at any drug store Beware of any effort to sell you something claimed to be "just as good." If yours is a peculiar case and you desire expert ac-vice, write to The Swift Specific Co., 260 Swift Bidg., Atlanta, Su.

Huggins Expects the Downtrodden Cardinals to Jump in Standing Miller Huggins, the grizzled second

