

MOOSERS TO TRAVEL ALONE

Meeting in Lincoln Decides Against Fusion with Any Organization.

SUFFRAGE PUT IN PLATFORM

Judge Wray, Toastmaster, Likens Gifford Pinchot to John the Baptist, While Others Assail Ex-laboring Parties.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—With about 600 people seated at the banquet table, composed of a liberal sprinkling of republicans, democrats and quite a large number of women, the progressive party conference closed its meeting at the Lindell hotel this evening.

Resolutions had been adopted by the party conference earlier in the day, declaring unequivocally against amalgamation with any other party and demanding equal suffrage. These when read at the opening of the banquet program were greeted with loud applause. The banquet sent greetings to Colonel Roosevelt and to several conferences like the one held here, and then listened to addresses by proponents of their cause. Judge A. G. Wray of York, as toastmaster, opened the program in a half hour speech in which he likened Gifford Pinchot to John the Baptist and said the country had faced three great periods, the revolutionary war, the civil war and the present fight of the progressive party to save the country. He scored both old parties and said that the democratic party could not solve the problem of poverty because a party that was afraid to meet a committee of suffragists was already on the rocks, while one might as well expect to hang the Mississippi river on a clothes line to dry as to expect the progressive party to fuse with the republican party.

McCormick Gives Program. Medill McCormick assailed both old parties in a fiery speech entitled "The Progressive Program for 1914." He said: "We have a political code—a political creed which is held by progressives in Maine and Maryland, in Oregon and Ohio, in North Dakota and North Carolina, in New York and Nebraska. By these ties our leaders are bound to one another and united with us; Miles Polinder in Washington, Victor Mordock in Kansas, Gifford Pinchot in Pennsylvania, Albert Beveridge in Indiana, Hiram Johnson in California, Jane Addams in Illinois and Theodore Roosevelt in New York.

"Contrast with them the composite of compromise: the hybrid leadership of Hildreth and Aldrich, Borah and Cannon, Gronna and Taft, La Follette and Guggenheim, Penrose and Cummins, Barnes and Bristow.

"Let us thank heaven that we shall not live to see another robber tariff, but let us pray to heaven that we shall never see the enactment of another tariff law except under the guidance of an expert commission and thus freed from the inequalities, the crudities and the unemployment consequent upon the passage of the Underwood law. The currency law, patterned upon European models, following designs conceived by other parties, fails to give to the government complete control of our system of credits or to establish a uniform currency. The foundation will remain, but the superstructure must be remodelled in the years to come.

Trust Program Failure. "But in its trust program the democratic party fails most distinctly to effect a radical cure. A remedy of the evils arising from monopoly must reach their source at their source. The currency of directors by companies, the dissolution of combinations by industries, the separation of ownership into classes will not destroy the private monopoly of the Michigan copper range or the private monopoly of iron ore or of anthracite coal. If a corporation is not divested of an overshadowing ownership of such raw elements of industry it remains within the power of that corporation to fix the basic principle of products manufactured with or from its raw material.

"We say that the government of the state or nation should adopt the best system of the times to broaden the market for the loans of our farmers. We say that it is not enough that the government should answer his demand for scientific information by sending him pamphlets on planting. We hold that personal instruction in agriculture should be as intensive as the methods of farming which it seeks to teach. We say that it is the duty of the government to increase the means of securing the present comfort and the future happiness of the race. We hold that, if need be, the law shall require that God's creatures rest one day out of seven.

Protect the Women. "There are 8,000,000 women in this country who earn their bread and we hold that measures shall be taken to guard the strength of the future members of the race and that the state shall limit the hours of their labor, raise the conditions of their employment and see that they are not paid wages which threaten them with starvation or the loss of virtue.

"We demand that there shall be an end to the enslaving of children in the mills of the land. We are not so agreed about the constitutional intentions of our forefathers that we are blind to the future of our offspring. What have you gained if, in Massachusetts or Nebraska, you protect the women and the children and men, then go to Alabama and the Carolinas, where great industries may be exploited upon the wretched wages of wretched children and women?

"We are one people living under a single government. Therefore, the progressive party insists that not only shall the government, whether of the state or of the nation, do all these things necessary for the welfare of the people, but that the national government must deal with those problems which are national in their scope."

Mrs. Harriet Vittum of Chicago told of the campaign which had given woman the ballot in municipal affairs in Illinois and said that the democratic party in that state had invited the women to come in and to come in quickly.

William E. Cadmus of Illinois made an appeal for funds to run the progressive headquarters for the next ten months, saying that $4,000 would be needed and some of it badly right now and at the close of his address pledge cards at each place were collected.

Beveridge Attacks Democrats. Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, the principal speaker of the evening was introduced as the "greatest progressive in North America in the absence of Theodore Roosevelt." He said the country could expect little relief from the democratic party and attacked its policy on the trust question, saying that it would accomplish nothing, but that the trusts would continue to thrive.

According to Mr. Beveridge the progressive party is following in footsteps of immortals. He said the southern states were in the hands of a political machine similar to New York, but that the progressive party was breaking up the old system.

In referring to the birth of new parties the former senator said that at different times five new parties had ruled the country and that Thomas Jefferson, the greatest political prophet the country had ever known, had said that seventeen years was long enough for any party to live. He caused considerable laughter by saying that a progressive republican was a progressive who was not good enough to be a progressive and a republican who was not good enough to be a republican.

The musical program was furnished by an orchestra. Mrs. Myrtle Wells of Omaha gave a whistling solo.

WIN HITCHCOCK TO BANK

Senator Says Believes Omaha May Have Chance to Get It.

SAYS WILL WORK FOR IT NOW

Mr. Bryan Says If Lincoln is Counted Out Will Still Exert Influence in Favor of Nebraska Institution.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Nebraska delegation today listened for more than an hour to an argument presented by William F. Baxter of Omaha, urging concerted and aggressive action on the part of the delegation to secure the designation of Omaha as one of the regional bank centers.

Present at the meeting of the delegation were the two Nebraska senators and every member of the lower house from Nebraska, with the exception of Judge Kinkaid, who demonstrated his inability to attend on account of committee work, but who signified to his colleagues that he was heart and soul in accord with the justice of the demands of Nebraska for a reserve bank.

The sentiment developed at the meeting was clearly in favor of Omaha, the only objective in an otherwise affirmative proposition being Representative Maguire, who made a strong and urgent plea that the claim of Lincoln should be given serious consideration in pushing Nebraska's claim.

Mr. Baxter said that the only object in having the meeting, was to present the views of the Omaha committee having charge the matter of the regional bank in charge to the Nebraska delegation, in order that they might be thoroughly informed as to what had been presented at the Lincoln meeting before Secretaries McCAdoo and Houston, relating to a regional bank in Nebraska. He said to the delegation, that politics ought not to play any part in the location of a regional bank, and he hoped that the members of the delegation would get in touch with their constituents, either through letters or by communication with the commercial organizations in order to ascertain the wishes of those whom they represent.

It was Mr. Baxter's opinion, as he forcibly expressed it to the delegation, that the country was back of Omaha and would support the contention that Omaha could better serve them than any of the cities in the Transmissouria valley.

Wins Hitchcock Over. Senator Hitchcock, who has been, to say the least, doubtful about the ability of Omaha to take care of a regional bank in view of the amount of money which a regional bank will have to have, after listening to Mr. Baxter's statement, said he was strongly impressed by the argument and would enlist himself in the cause of Omaha.

The meeting today was brought about through the efforts of Congressman Lobeck, who had invited the delegation to be his guest, but Senator Hitchcock, having returned to town after a short absence, asked the delegation to take luncheon in the senate restaurant and then hold the meeting in the committee room on the Phillips.

During the meeting, which was especially harmonious for Omaha as against Kansas City, Mr. Lobeck spoke in favor of the Gate City and expressed his satisfaction that both republicans and democrats were apparently solidly united in favor of presenting Nebraska's claim.

Mr. Baxter had an interview with Secretary of State Bryan previous to his meeting with the Nebraska delegation and, naturally, the question of a regional bank for Omaha came up. Mr. Bryan said he was in Lincoln on general principles, but if the situation should develop that the contest lay between Omaha and a city in a near adjacent state and his opinion be sought he would favor a Nebraska institution.

Dr. C. C. Gafford of Wymore, Neb., is in the city for a few days.

Carriers and Postmasters. Noble L. MacVey has been appointed rural letter carrier at Rolfe, Ia. Postmasters appointed: Nebraska—Lavaca, Cherry county, Ethel Johnson, vice W. H. Turner; Ranger, Logan county, Pearl J. Shattuck, new postoffice; Rescue, Saunders county, Carolina E. Skilton, vice Frank Wirtka; Iowa—Summitville, Lee county, Earl A. McKee, vice H. R. Brown.

Wyoming—Crocket county, Mrs. Pauline Schill, vice E. W. Williams. The Western National bank of Mitchell and First National bank of Mitchell, S. D., have filed applications to join the new banking system.

Cities of Dixie in a Busy Scramble for Regional Bank. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12.—The federal reserve bank organization committee today heard claims of Louisville and New Orleans for a federal reserve bank. Memphis tomorrow will present its claims, after which the committee will go to Atlanta.

Sol Wexler, president of the Whitney Central National bank, maintained that a regional bank located here should include the business of Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida and a part of Tennessee. New Orleans, however, was willing to eliminate that part of Texas lying west of Austin or the state of Georgia.

Louisville representatives wanted to include all the territory claimed by New Orleans except Texas, Louisiana, a part of Mississippi, a part of Tennessee, and include the southern portion of Indiana. Memphis tomorrow will claim a bank located there should take in territory embracing Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama.

Washington, Feb. 12.—That the price—the little "pickers being stung" by operators on the Stock exchange—although a big one, is not too big to pay for the benefit of an extended market which would be narrowed by the operation of the proposed law for the regulation of stock exchanges, was the position taken today by Henry C. Emery, professor of economics at Yale, before the senate committee on banking and currency.

Prof. Emery insisted that the benefits of a stock exchange would be ruined by government regulations.

E. J. Page of New York, a member of the Hughes commission, also opposed government regulation. The real need for regulation, by congress, he said, was the issuing of securities, and public opinion was sufficient to keep the stock exchange straight.

MAKES BAGKACHE QUICKLY DISAPPEAR

A Few Doses Relieves All Such Miseries, Bladder Weakness, Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism Promptly Vanish

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backache, kidney trouble, bladder weakness, kidney trouble, or to be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for finding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away, all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings about the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.—Advertisement.
