The cash demand for corn has proved that market, as it has

Cash demand for corn has proved a drawback to that market, as it has caused many of the bulls to switch to the bear side and the longs to sell out their lines and take losses. James & Petteres on Board of Trade. ChilcAGO, Feb. 13.—Ample anow conting the latter part of 1913, but he is now as strong a believer that prices will sell lower, and he is backing up his opinion with his money.

And the money.

The man while others are bears. It will be remembered that these people as one man were on the bull side for a time. Today's generally steady market leaves lambs still 10925c higher than the close of the previous week and the bulk of the aged sheep 10925c higher. The improvement in prices is attributed to keeping the receipts within moderate proportions most of the week and to strength in the eastern trade in dressed mutton.

OMAHA GENERAL MARKET.

Appointed to Complete Arrangements.

In spite of the blustery weather yesterday afternoon more than a hundred members of the Douglas County Ploneers' association attended the regular monthly meeting in their quarters in the court house. At least half of these present at the meeting were women. The principal business before the meeting yesterday was in planning the details of the mid-winter social, which will be held on February 23. William J. Kierstead, general chairman in charge of the affair, announced that arrangements had been made to hold the social at the Masonic temple, Sixteenth and Capitol avenue. The birthday of George Washington falling on Sunday this year it was more convenient to hold the social on the following day, which is the legal holiday in Nebraska.

The social will start at 10 o'clock in the morning, and until noon the members will be allowed to visit with each other Receipts from the six principal west-ern markets.
