What the police believe to be a veritable vendetta in the local Austrian colony culminated in the death of Piti Babich Friday night at the murder hole near Twenty-eighth and R streets. Mike Zigich, a young Austrian, was arrested esterday morning at Ralaton by Detec-Mike Gillin. Zigich admits that labich was an enemy of his and delares that the dead man had often threatened his life. He says he left the pool hall of Nick Dasovich Friday night cause he feared wouble with Bableh. He denies absolutely that he fired the revolver that put out the life of Babich. Babich had been in the city for a few months only. He came here under a loud and the local police have always cuitted principally, it is thought, be-had threatened him and that he left the pool hall Friday night in order to escape trouble. Bablch had been ordered out of town Friday morning by Police Magistrate James Callanan. The inquest on the death of Babich will be held Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at Larkin's undertaking parlors.

Different Phase of Case. Alex Bogdunovich, who was shot Thursday night at Twenty-eighth and R streets, according to advices from the South Omaha hospital will recover from wounds unless complications set in. life assailant, Rade Kundak, is being held at the South Omaha police jail without bond pending the outcome of Bogdunovich's wounds. Bogdunovich claimed that he had been wantonly shot by Kundak, but evidence discovered by the police yesterday indicates that Kundak shot in self-defense after Bogdunowich had threatened to make sausage out f him. Kundak says he went to visit a riend at 2814 R street and after transecting some business he left the place. He says Bogdunovich followed him and offered to make "sausage" out of him. Kundak has a wife and is said to be a
