You folks who still use ordinary coffee have a treat in store. Change for a week to

TONE'S Old Golden Coffee

You'll wonder that such an improvement in flavor can be possible. Thousands of families, after changing from brand to brand, look upon Old Golden Coffee as coffee perfection, for it contains, in the greatest degree, all of those elements of goodness which make you like coffee—freshness, full flavor, uniformity, proper aging, roasting and blending. One pound shows you.

Good grocers sell it—ground, steel cut, or in the whole bean, as you prefer.

Kugel Listens to Pleas of Pool Hall Owners for License

Pool hall proprietors appeared before the city commission at Police Commissioner A. C. Kugel's invitation to show why their applications for licenses should be granted, as reports from Fatsy Harvey, special police investigator, had led Kugel to decide on a general "clean-up" of pool halls.

Harvey's reports on the following places were considered: Ferris Brothers, 712 1/2 South Sixteenth; A. E. Ashmore, 406 North Thirtieth; F. E. Silvers, 102 North Sixteenth; Joseph Keller, 410 South Fourteenth; Tony Bonardo, 115 South Sixth.

MISS JANE SMITH, HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER, IS DEAD

Jane Spott Smith, an instructor in history in the Central High school, died at her home, 1914 Locust street, at 6:05 o'clock Sunday evening, after an illness of several months of an affection of the spine.

Miss Smith was a graduate of the Omaha High school class of 1888, spent one year in the Peru State normal in preparation for teaching, and taught for some years in the Long school. Later she attended the University of Chicago for one year, returned to Omaha and taught for a short time in the Kellom school, then resumed her duties in the State University of Nebraska, where she graduated just before taking up her work as a teacher in the Omaha High school.

She is survived by a sister, Miss Penelope M. Smith, a teacher in the Central High school, and by two brothers, John Smith, 230 Bristol street, and Robert Smith, clerk of the district court.

The funeral services will be held at the residence, 1914 Locust street, on Tuesday afternoon, February 17, at 3 o'clock. (Interment will be later). The exercises will be conducted by Rev. A. C. Douglas, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, of which congregation the deceased was an active member.

MRS. HORACE D. CORNEAU TO RECEIVE CITY PENSION

Mrs. Horace D. Corneau, widow of a police officer who died in the discharge of his duties, was granted a pension of $40 a month by the city commission sitting on an excise board.

As no provision has been made by state law providing means of raising the money to pay these pensions the commission will pay Mrs. Corneau out of the salary fund.

This is the first pension under the new law, which provided for a minimum of $20 a month.

CXWELL PEOPLE HAVE BIG DINNER AND THEATER PARTY

Following a banquet at the Home tendered to its Nebraska salesmen by the Oxwell Acetylene company of Chicago, C. E. Baldwin, Omaha sales manager for the concern, piloted the party of forty-five gentlemen to the Gayety theater, where, through the still further courtesy of the Oxwell company, the party witnessed the highly enjoyable musical entertainment.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

Society

WE HAVE all seen yellow hair, red hair, brown hair, black hair and, yes, indeed, gray and white hair, and have admired all of these shades, but now Dame Fashion, who is ever fickle, would impose upon us varied shades of blue hair, green and orange, according to our favorite gown, or perhaps nationality.

Whether this idea originated in Paul Poiret's fertile brain, or whether it was some other Frenchman's idea, I do not know. Fortunately, these weird colors are not to be used permanently and are only wigs to be changed with the costume.

The new custom was introduced by the living models in the various shops in New York, but the fact that the stage beauties have hesitated to take up the novelty makes it doubtful if the new coiffures will ever become popular.

Not long ago a friend of mine purchased an automobile to match her tailor suits. This seemed at first a great extravagance, but as all of her suits were dark blue, the shade of the car, it was really no extravagance. When I thought of the extensive wardrobe of some of the society women it came to my practical mind what the cost would be to add a wig for each costume, and I asked the price.

"Twenty-five dollars and up," said the saleswoman. Again I became curious. "Do you sell many?" I asked. "Oh, yes," she said.

She was a good saleswoman.
