foreigners had made new investments in United States wheat. Not much selling pressure could be put on corn, higher cables and the firm-ness of wheat being ton serious handi-caps for the bears. Moreover, there were advices that stocks all over the 2 state were light despite messages pur-porting to ask that shippers hold back 2 supplies on account of a lack of dis-tributive demand. Oats had fair support, mainly from shorts, who were impressed g by a failing off in the visible suppity. ackers and other longs made free of-fers of provisions. As a result, the mar-ket gave way regardless of an upword slant in the price of hogs.
