The remaining weeks are the ones that will tell the tale. The winners will collect their votes during this period. Young American Singer Big Hit in London

Miss Juanita Prewett.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—A new American prodigy has undoubtedly been sprung on the British public in the person of Miss Juanita Prewett, whose name is equally well known in the state of Illinois, where she was born, and in various parts of California, notably Los Angeles, where her early teaching was carried on under the direction of Elizabeth Carrick. That she has taken England and English impresarios by storm is proved in the fact that an unknown singer to the public here should have made her debut in the Albert hall, reserved only for singers of the highest merit, such as Adelina Patti, Melba and Albani in their day. This phenomenal success occurred in the recent New Symphony Orchestra concerts. The London papers are in ecstasy as to the gifts of the brilliant young soprano, for whom they predict great things.

Hammond is to Be Returned to Seattle on Federal Charge

Harry C. Hammond, who is charged with impersonating a federal officer and obtaining money under false pretenses, was taken to Lincoln Monday night, where it is expected that an order for removal will be issued by Judge T. C. Munger. Marshal Warner accompanied the prisoner, who will be returned to Seattle as soon as the order for removal is issued. Hammond was arrested in Omaha, while on his way to Chicago in company with the entire family of Charles Loring and a nurse, whom they had engaged at Hammond's suggestion. It was Hammond who told them the wild tales of ordering the death of Japs on the coast and is said to have impersonated a secret service agent in the employ of the United States Treasury department. When the game of story telling grew monotonous to him Hammond secured telegraph blanks and then pretended to receive important cipher messages, which he translated into beautiful yarns for the edification of his little audience of victims. The Loring family was sent back to Seattle last week.

Stenographer Reads shorthand Report of Conversation of Mrs. Paul at Council Bluffs and Hazel McVey Resorts.

Testimony of two witnesses that they heard Charles Risley say in a conversation at Sixteenth and Farnam streets last December that Arthur Brandeis was innocent of the charge against him, was introduced by the defense in the trial in Judge Day's district court of Mrs. Nellie Paul's $250,000 suit against Mr. Brandeis.

The evidence was to the effect that young Risley, who is a son of Mrs. Paul, was boasting that he had gotten $7,000 from Mr. Brandeis by frightening him although his charges against the wealthy merchant were not true.

DISTILLERS PRESENT CASE

Advance Many Arguments Against Nation-Wide Prohibition.

WOULD AFFECT CORN PRICES

Demand for Grain Would Be Lessened and Many Men Would Be Thrown Out of Work if Establishments Shut Down.

That the establishment of nation-wide prohibition would greatly affect the corn market of the country because the corn now used in the distillation of whiskey would no longer be in demand for that purpose is one of several arguments the liquor interests are now putting up in a circular that is being distributed in Omaha. Other arguments on the circular are that prohibition would mean a great loss in revenue to the government, and that it would throw a great many men out of employment.

This literature is being circulated to combat the efforts of the Anti-Saloon league which seeks a prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. Although there is no state-wide prohibition issue pending in Nebraska this year, the literature against prohibition is being circulated here.
