Notes from Beatrice and Gage County

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—The February term of the district court opened Thursday. There are 106 cases on the docket, ninety-two of which are civil and the others criminal. In the case of the state of Nebraska against Lewis N. Kate G. Miller, proprietors of the Toussaint hotel at Wymore, charged with violating the state law in regard to the placing of fire escapes on their hotel, a motion to quash the information was sustained and the case dismissed. The jury will report for duty next Tuesday.

Superintendent Bodwell left Thursday for Richmond, Va., to attend the annual meeting of the National Educational association.
There is a warm fight on at Wymore for the postmastership, and each of the candidates, George A. Campbell, A. P. Mentgen and William Ellingsham, claim to have the appointment in his vest pocket.

A meeting of farmers of Gage county has been called for next Saturday at which Prof. Cooper of the state farm will give an address on the subject, "Pruning Orchards." The meeting will be held in Farm Demonstrator Libers' office and will be in charge of Lake Bridenthal of Wymore.

News Notes from Tekamah.
TEKAMAH, Neb., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—The people of the Riverside country north of Tekamah held a Farmers' institute on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The Tekamah Woman's club held its annual Valentine party last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wetherell. The women on this occasion invited their husbands to be their guests and also included as guests the Tekamah school teachers.

The annual firemen's ball was given by the members of the Tekamah fire department on Thursday evening. It was largely attended and in many ways was an interesting event.

"Nick" Littel, a prominent business man of Herman, whose people all live at Tekamah, died on Wednesday afternoon at Excelsior Springs, Mo., whither he had gone to take a course of treatment at the medicinal springs there. He was in the implement business at Herman with Waldo Hancock. Funeral services will probably be held Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chase left yesterday morning for their home at San Jose, Cal., after several weeks visit at Tekamah and Craig.

The funeral of Thomas Howard occurred Friday. He had been ill for some time from an abscess in his side brought on by a fall and passed away suddenly while sitting in his chair on Wednesday. Heart failure was the reason assigned for his death.

J. H. Denny, one of the pioneer residents of this community, died Sunday afternoon from pneumonia and other complications. He had been a resident here since in the sixties. Funeral services were held from the home on Monday afternoon. He leaves a wife and three children, two sons and a daughter, Mrs. George Stout, of this city.

H. M. Hopewell went to Excelsior Springs, Mo., last Sunday to while away a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weitzel were at home on Monday evening to a delightfully interesting bunch of Tekamah men and their wives. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Fred Michael was hostess to a 6 o'clock dinner and evening Valentine party last Saturday evening to a number of Tekamah women. The decorations and menu would have made the old Saint ambitious to have been present and enjoy the fun.

License is Issued at Eastis.
EUSTIS, Neb., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—One of the fiercest municipal campaigns in the history of the village is now being staged. Heretofore all that was necessary for a saloon keeper to do was to get the required number of freeholders to sign his petition and he was granted a license without quibble. This year, however, the dry element is taking a new tack and an effort will be made to submit the question to a vote of the people, either by petition or ordinance. The wet maintain that taxes will aviate by leaps and bounds if the village is deprived of $1,750 revenue each year. In addition the school district receives $1,000.

GILAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Saloon keepers of the city have asked for the appointment of a special officer at their expense to look to the apprehension and arrest of men violating the liquor laws by attempting to buy if not of age, or if on the "prohibit" list, or by attempting to secure liquor for others.
