Improved Order of Red Men. Fontenelle tribe No. 73, Improved Order of Red Men, met in regular council on last Monday night and an interesting meeting was had. The old chiefs are beginning to come out again. The chairs were filled with a majority of the regular officers, which is a pleasing sight to the regular attending chiefs. Another feature which is drawing an attendance is the degree work, which has actually commenced, and under the instruction of the able chief in charge, Brother Holliday, bids fair to become the leading team in Redmanship in this reservation. The tribe will give an open meeting to brothers and their gentlemen friends Monday, Feb. 23, at 8 o'clock. The list of benefit certificates is growing nicely and it is hoped to have the majority of the tribe enrolled before long.

Fraternities of Eagles. Omaha Eagles held one of the most enthusiastic meetings in their history Thursday evening. A large class was initiated and the amplified work was put on. The class comprised some well known business and professional men, and the indications are that this will be the banner year of the series. After the initiation the drill team gave an exhibition drill, which was highly appreciated and which was followed by a social.

Balmacaan Coats--the New Spring Idea

It is a slip-on effect, with capacious sleeves, slashed side pockets and mannish cuffs. May be worn buttoned closely at the neck or open with revers. Made of all wool fancy coatings in tweed, thus carrying out in the fabrics the swagger, sportive character of the garment itself. Being very much worn this spring by the younger set. Priced at, $10.

The New Suits Have Many Interesting Features

Among the most pleasing of the new developments of suit styles, as reflected by our early showings, are the jaunty short front jackets, the Gaby and Eton styles. The tendency is away from the severely plain, many being quite novel in cut and trim. Skirts, of course, are peg top and tunic effects. They are tailored of serges, poplins, gabardine and novelty cloths, and are priced at $15 to $75, according to style and fabric.
