THE members of the woman's club of the railway mail service were transported back to colonial days in America when they arrived at the home of Mrs. R. L. Frantz Wednesday afternoon. Priscilla and John Alden, Pocahontas and Powhatan, to say nothing of Gen. George Washington and Mistress Washington, were among those present. There was a goodly gathering of colonial dames and sires and also their neighbors, the native red men, who came arrayed in war paint and feathers and carrying their tomahawks and pipes of peace.

Each guest had been instructed to come prepared to do something to illustrate her costume and this was strictly enforced. A stately minuet was danced by Mesdames D. C. Dodds, A. C. Rawson, J. K. Bittinger and J. B. Good. A pow-wow, or Indian dance, was participated in by Mesdames W. P. East, W. J. Nash, O. F. Hubbell, W. R. Marshall and Curtis Cook. Miss Dorothy Frantz was a charming Priscilla.

Among the colonial dames were Mesdames C. E. Presson, Edwin Cole, C. B. Sargent, H. E. Gregory, V. Paxton, J. G. McNichols, A. J. Anderson, F. H. Cole, J. L. Langfeller, C. T. Leigh, J. M. Reynolds, J. W. Taylor, E. F. Wallace, B. Westerdahl, G. G. Whitmore
