

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Have Root Print... Mayor and City Treasurer Opposed Over Back Tax Disposal... FIFTEEN THOUSAND INVOLVED... Hoctor Calls Me to Transfer Money Friendly Suit, but Martin Has a Different Opinion...

MAJORS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Mayor and City Treasurer Opposed Over Back Tax Disposal... FIFTEEN THOUSAND INVOLVED... Hoctor Calls Me to Transfer Money Friendly Suit, but Martin Has a Different Opinion...

MISSISSIPPI SOLONS GIVE PAGES HOLIDAY FOR A SNOW BATTLE

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 23.—The south and southeast tonight shivered in the grip of a general snowstorm, which blanketed the Atlantic seaboard as far south as southern Georgia and reached the gulf states. Weather bureau records for from eight to twenty years were broken.

SENIILITY EXISTS IN PLANTS

Newest Leaf on Old Tree is Not Really New at All... OMAHA MAN MAKES DISCOVERY... Dr. H. M. Benedict of University of Cincinnati Studies Botanical World by Result of His Studies...

AN ANCIENT CITY UNCOVERED

Roman Town of Uriconium, in England, is Yielding Precious Secrets... Archaeologists are intensely interested in the old Roman city of Uriconium, which is being uncovered in Shropshire soil, reports the London Correspondent of the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

REUBEN FORBES DIES AT AGE OF SEVENTY-FIVE

Reubens Forbes, aged 75 years and a veteran of the civil war, died last night at the Wise Memorial hospital from illness incident to old age.

BLAUGAS MEN ELECT AND RETURN TO THEIR HOMES

After a two days' session, Blaugas dealers from Nebraska and Iowa adjourned last evening, to meet again April 11, in this city.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

CITY DADS GRANT SESTO'S LICENSE UNANIMOUSLY

City commissioners granted Joe Sesto a license to operate a saloon at 224 North Fifteenth street, after applicants for this location had been refused a license.

POLITICS

Charles A. Prouty, interstate commerce commissioner, yesterday at Burlington, Vt., told friends he would accept a candidacy for the United States senate.

WILSON

2429 Farnam Street

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS

All connections between the Omaha and South Omaha high schools were severed yesterday by Principal S. W. Moore of the South Omaha High school.

WASHINGTTON AFFAIRS

Robert B. Dixon of Easton, Md., 91 years old, shook hands with President Wilson yesterday and completed a record of having personally greeted every president since William Henry Harrison.

FOREIGN NOTES

The centennial of the separation of Norway from Denmark was commemorated yesterday by services in every church in Norway.

RAISING BAIT FOR ANGLERS

Michigan Man Explains Secret of Success as an Angle Worm Success as an Angle Worm

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts. Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally.

WYOMING OIL PRODUCT USED IN OMAHA BOILERS

The Wyoming oil fields are turning out a new product that is finding a fairly good market in Omaha, and as a result the Northwestern is daily bringing in tank cars filled with the new fuel oil.

KELSO TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE RAILROADING

On March 1, A. W. Kelso, superintendent of the Nebraska division of the Rock Island, with headquarters at Fairbury, retires from the service and will quit railroading.

SCHOOLS SEVER RELATIONS