OMAHA, Feb. 26, 1914, Those at the head of the Armour Grain company are reported as buils, not only in wheat, but on corn and cats as well. It has been known for many months that this big concern was friendly to which, and it was believed in grain circles that it was carrying a line of May as well as a line of cash article. When word was circulated around the various pits yes-terday that the LaSalle street house, which was beside on corn for many It was carrying a line of May as well as a line of cash article. When word was circulated around the various pits yesteriasy that the LaSaile street house, which was beariah on corn for many more than one surprised.
Along with the taik of Armour people favoring the buil side of corn came the suggestion that the larger short in that market was none other than James A. Fatten. That this big trader put out short lines in the way of "hedges," and that he sais short a good-sized amount in addition. The fact that Armour was reported to have changed found on the bear side of that market, they are now good-sized holders and are fullified out the claim that his brokers have been taking May corn for several weeks, and that instead of being found on the bear side of that market, they are now good-sized holders and are fullified out the claim that his brokers thave been taking May corn for several weeks, and that instead of being found on the bear side of that market, they are now good-sized holders and are fullified on littel attention. Word came from the corn beit that farmers are willing to accept present prices for their grain and that the movement is likely to be somewhat larger. The fact that buils are in this grain, and are now good sized holders of May ruture, has done more to intead or the thit will mean a point in favor of the buils.
Cash corn was unchanged to like lower. The news on wheat from abroad was builth. The trade on the whole is at so in there we need that this will mean a point in favor of the buils.

from on a Thursday packers started out this morning with the plain intention of bearing the market. They seemed to feel that they could afford to take their time in filling orders, so that the trade was very dull during the early part of the morning. In the end, however, pretty much everything changed hands. The trade as a whole might be summed up as slow to loc lower. Cows and helfers were also around lik lower than yesterday morning. Considering that it was so late in the week the demand for stockers and feed-ers was quite fair, but still the tendency of prices was a little easier. The market on cows and helfers, as well as on stockers and feeders, closed up in pretty good shape, the market being stronger than it was early and about stated with the close yesterday. PASSES SENATE COMMITTEE KINKAID'S CUPID BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.-A favorable report was agreed to by the senate committee on public lands on the bill of Representative Kinkaid to provide that the marriage of a homesteader entryman to a homesteader entry woman shall not impair the right of either to a patent if they have complied with the law for a year.

OH GIRLS CAN YOU BEAT IT? Missouri Girl Takes International as a Bride Ten Times.

Mrs. Mary Moore-Smith-Peabody-Pettijohn-Smith-Smith-Hill - Smith - Meoman-Brown-Dyer of Parnell, Mo., the woman who made Soloman roll over in his mausoleum and who married one man as often as most of the more fashionable divorcees do in a lifetime, is at it again. He is James Dyer, 72 years old, ef Cuttawa, Ky., practically a novice in matrimony, having been married but three times. He and the only woman who ever irritated Nat Goodwin have gone to Chicago for a brief honeymoon and will return to Parnell to make their home. Mrs. Dyer, who started after the international marriage record forty-seven years ago and is now 65 years old, was Miss Mary M. Moore before she started to take out licenses and romp altarward.

Mrs. Dyer says that most men are good. She adds: "Happiness in marriage is a question of understanding, concessions-a give and take.

"If you haven't any children of your own, adopt some. I am sorry I didn't adopt more than two.

"Let a husband have his own way or think he is having it. If you have to use blind bridles, a curb bit and spure you can make him used to them so they come natural. He needs petting and coaxing, too, and occasional lumps of SUGER.

"Everybody knows the main thing to make a man fond of his home is good cooking, neatness and comfort, and to know his wife isn't gadding about.

"It is the real Christian spirit that counts. Religion does not.

"A wife should avoid gossipy women, who make most of the trouble in life.
