

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, February 27, 1914.

THIS is the season of the year when milady replenishes her wardrobe and social affairs do not interfere with shopping and fittings. An important item is the hosiery, and never before has there been such a large assortment from which to choose. And there seem to be so many fads and novelties. There is one kind for morning wear, for hiking, for golfing and for shopping, then different kinds for afternoon wear, and another assortment for evening wear. To match the light gray spats and the black shoes with the gray uppers, gray stockings of different varieties have been very popular this winter and the early spring styles seem to favor the gray silk stockings, especially those flecked with black, for daytime wear with Colonial pumps, which will be worn again this season. For evening wear with the dainty, filmy summer frocks, there will be quite an array of beautiful hosiery from which one may choose. You may have your favorite flower in the design of your hosiery. Pink roses, blue forget-me-nots, dainty shades of orchids and other flowers in their natural colors are woven into the white silk hosiery. These seem more practical than the tango hosiery embroidered in pearls, rhinestones and various kinds of oriental beads. The new Paris hosiery shows a novelty in the purse stocking. The purse, a flat envelope of satin with a snap fastening, is sewed to the upper part of the stocking. And another new style has circles embroidered round the ankle, apparently to simulate the anklet affected by some few women.

W. R. C. Kensington. Mrs. Lillian Allen, Mrs. Jennie Bryant, Mrs. J. E. Cramer, Mrs. Beulah C. Davis, Mrs. Duffenbacher, Mrs. Susie B. Foster and Mrs. Ada W. Lampman entertained the ladies of the U. S. Grant post, No. 104, Women's Relief corps, at a Kensington last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allen. The prize was won by Mrs. Ida A. Miller. Miss Wilcox sang and Mrs. Miller read two selections. The guests of honor were Mrs. Dora R. Gilbert, Mrs. G. W. Lower, Mrs. Hazel Moore and Mrs. R. S. Wilcox. Those present were: Mesdames—May D. Preston, L. S. Morse, A. A. Whitney, Lillian Eddy, Helen Jefferson, G. W. Lower, G. S. Guild, Dora R. Gilbert, Duffenbacher, Josie Swanger, M. J. Stern, Cora B. Stern, Marguerite Wilcox. Messrs.—R. S. Wilcox, William Lampman. Surprise Party. A surprise party was given for Mr. Martin Straaser at his home Tuesday evening in celebration of his birthday anniversary. Popular music was furnished by Miss Lottie Burgers and dance music by Mr. Adolph Lange. Prizes were won by Robert Miller, Maude Brady, Vera Gettys, Gus Hartel, Elsie Harbe, Leoline Lindermier, Helen Tuma and Joseph T. Straaser. Those present were: Misses—Helen Tuma, Marie Jorgensen, Eleanor Straaser, Maude Brady, Vera Gettys, Leoline Lindermier, Messrs.—Adolph Lange, Joseph Straaser, William Hughes, Robert Miller, Lloyd Brady, Mrs. Kate Straaser.

Congalton Sends His Signed Contract to PA. Bunk Congalton, who had promised Pa Rourke that he would sign a 1914 contract, has sent his contract signed. This includes an outfield, even though the rebel, Martin Krug, sticks to his promise not to play with Omaha unless he is given a salary equal to those offered by the Federal league. Rumor Has it that Stoval is Tinkering With A. Thomason. A report emanating from St. Joseph has it that George Stoval is still tinkering with Arthur Thomason, who is signed up to play this season with the Rourkes. Thomason received Federal league offers before he signed with Omaha, but refused to enter the new organization. Thomason stated when he signed that he thought it better to wait a year and he could grab a bigger figure, while if the new league failed, he would be out of a job. In the St. Joseph report it is suggested that Stoval is after Thomason for next year, in order to beat the draft or a sale to an organized club at the conclusion of the approaching season. Fashion Hint. Another new version of the popular tano-shanter with this small hat of satin crepe in the vanilla tones. On a brim flat on the left side he shows a supple crown of satin crepe, and at exactly the left point he shoots out two "flares" of perlatine.

Celebrates Birthday. Master Jack Gunner entertained a number of his little friends Saturday in honor of his seventh birthday. The decorations and games were suggestive of Washington's birthday. Those present were: Misses—Gertrude Stevens, Ruth Carlberg, Ruth Jane O'Neil, Beryl Long, Vesta Laird, Mesdames—J. F. O'Leary, James O'Neil, Messrs.—Bert Stevens, Harvey Carlberg, Jack Gunner, Allen Tillotson, Frederick Kuhl, James Stillwell, James Cummins. At the Prairie Park Club. Mrs. D. K. Smith is in charge of the musicale to be held Friday evening at the Prairie Park club. The program includes the following numbers: PART I. Piano solo—Miss Bruce Reading. Vocal Solo—Miss Robertson. Violin Solo—Miss Ella Klapp. Viola Solo—Mr. Charles Worthington. Piano Duet—Splashing Waves. Misses Ethel Weldner and Katherine Smith. Reading—Lady Demonstrator. PART II. a. Once A Day. b. Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes. c. The Monk. James E. Carnal. Duet—Miss Silver and Hamilton. a. Calm is the Night. b. An Open Secret. Miss Silver. Trio—Hast Thou Wandered. Miss Silver, Miss Hamilton, Mrs. Charles Stombaugh, accompanist. Pleasures Past. Mrs. E. L. Alexander entertained Thursday afternoon for her daughter, Helen, in celebration of her sixteenth birthday. The guests present were: Misses—Virginia Lane, Margaret Loomis, Eleanor McMillon, Letitia Van Buren, Beatrice Johnson, Helen Rickard, Harriet Stambaugh, Margaret Spalding, Winifred Rouse, Pauline Westerfield, Mary Rouse, Marjorie Alexander. University Dance. The University of Nebraska College of Medicine will give its fourth annual dance at Turpin's hall, Twenty-eighth and Farnam streets, Friday evening, March 5. Earl C. Sage will act as master of ceremonies, the patrons and patronesses being: Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Cutler, Dr. and Mrs. O. T. Schultz, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Palmer Finley, Dean W. O. Bridges, M. D. Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. W. F. Hartford addressed the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church this afternoon at All Saints church. In and Out of the Bee Hive. Mrs. Samuel Katz has gone to Lincoln to visit her sister, Mrs. L. J. Herzog, for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Koptel are entertaining their mother, Mrs. L. Harry Rosenbaum of Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank and Mrs. Rose Newman will leave Saturday for Chicago to attend the wedding of Miss Grace New

MR. EDHOLM TAKES STAND "Black Tony" to Be Tried on Charge of Murder on Tuesday

Chief of Detectives Stephen Maloney and Detectives Charles Van Deusen, J. T. Dunn, Edward Fleming, Frank Murphy and Thomas Ring, A. E. ("Tony") Anderson, Twenty-seventh and Poppleton avenue, who was in the resort at the time of the shooting and narrowly missed death from a bullet fired by the robber; Stanton Nickell, 2908 Cumming street, a younger brother of the murdered bank teller; Louis R. G. Bostwick, photographer who took pictures of the scene of the crime; Mrs. Samuel McCleghen and L. H. Footman, Hazel McVey and eight other women inmates of the resort.

Snow is Cleared from Center of City

Street Commissioner J. J. Ryder has cleared the business section of the city and intersections of 16,000 wagon loads of snow since the worst storm of the winter struck Sunday. From 2,300 to 3,100 loads have been hauled daily, beginning Monday. All of the down town intersections, business streets and transfer intersections have been cleared, although a large force of men is still working on the snowdrifts in different parts of the city. This snow has been dumped in the regular "snow dumps" at Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth street intersections on Jackson, and Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh streets on Jones.

Don't Like Cut Rates

Further testimony of Mrs. Cornell was to the effect that Mrs. Edholm had been given a ticket for a trip to New York by her husband, and that she was glad to get it, but that she complained that Mr. Edholm had roused her from her morning slumbers to give it to her, and that she said it was very small and mean of him to buy the ticket at a cut rate over a certain route, for a limited time instead of letting her make her own choice of the route, time and rate of the transportation.

Beat on by Mrs. Edholm

Benjamin Edholm recited certain alleged incidents of Mrs. Edholm's conduct, which Albert Edholm had already told on the witness stand. The witness declared that Mr. Edholm's attitude seemed kindly toward his wife, whereas Mrs. Edholm acted indifferent to her spouse.

HONEY TAKES DROP IN PRICE Heavy Crop of Last Year Floods the Local Market.

The big crop of honey last year has caused this product to take a drop. While a month ago it was selling at 1 1/2 cents a pound in the comb, it is on the market today at 1 1/4 cents. High grade strained honey in jars can be bought for 25 cents a pint. Colorado had what is said to be the largest crop of honey in the state's history last summer, and this is being rapidly thrown on the market now. New potatoes are on the market, and in spite of the almost prohibitive price, they are selling just the same. They are selling at 85 cents a pound, or at the rate of $5 a bushel. Old potatoes can still be bought for around 11 a bushel, but in spite of this the new ones are finding a market.

Sugar is an Uncertain State—Better Grades of Coffee Go Up Little—Eggs Expected to Take Stamp.

The price of sugar is a somewhat doubtful subject at this moment, as no contracts are being made for large quantities. This is believed to be due to another small reduction in the sugar tariff that is to take effect shortly as a result of the graduated schedule provided by the new tariff bill. The best grades of coffee have gone up a cent in the last week. Eggs are still 23 cents, but are expected to come down lower very shortly. "I look for eggs to come down to 25 cents by Tuesday," said Al King, manager of the grocery department of Hayden Bros., "especially if this mild weather continues."

$14.75 SPECIAL SALE SATURDAY, FEB. 28

So many "Sales" have recently been advertised that much of the force and real meaning has been lost from the word. For this reason many people look upon a sale as merely a dealer's artifice to attract business. In many instances this may be so, but when a special sale is inaugurated by BEATON & LAIER CO. it is genuine—it rings true. It means an opportunity for everyone to get high quality at a distinctly low figure.

Why Can We Afford to Offer Merchandise at a 50% Cut in Price?

BECAUSE new shipments require the space now occupied by odd pieces of furniture, parts of partially sold out suites, discontinued rug patterns, draperies, etc., and it saves money for us to make a price reduction that cannot fail to clear our stock.

Does it Pay to Attend Special Sales?

Thoughtful people have been asking this question for several years. Business methods have been such that many people would not make a purchase unless they were told that there was a special sale on the article which interested them. The big fakers have catered constantly to the speculative element in human nature, and indeed pushed the "Bargain (?) Sale" to such a point that they succeeded in working upon the dear public to such a degree as to make it almost impossible to interest it without a sort of Tabasco appetizer in the advertisement. The women who appeared before the committee sitting in Washington (for the purpose of inquiring into the high cost of living) struck a keynote in directing attention to Bargain Sales as a contributing cause. THOMAS KILPATRICK & COMPANY do not have the kind of sales criticized. For nearly twenty years in season and out of season we have attacked FALSEHOOD and FAKE—and sometimes at great cost. The public conscience is awakened and it is interesting to watch the antics of the fakers—in their efforts to get under cover. Wonderfully interested, too, in the toilers. Some of them are—and to those who know, it is amusing to watch their philanthropic (?) efforts in their behalf. "Morrison's Pills" as the Sage of Chelsea would say.

Saturday we will demonstrate on Main Floor—the use and comfort of "Utility Dresses." We are not given to the exploitation of live models from Gay Paree, or the Bowery—and per consequence this is not to be an exhibition of that kind. Our own saleswomen, in their own modest way, will make demonstration of these dresses—and you will be interested. Prices from $1.00 UP and they will be sold at square adjoining the place of demonstration.

Our Infant and Junior Sections contain so many dainty and useful mother saving wearables that they merit a visit. Lingerie beautifully made—every piece possessing apparently the loving sort of mother touch so appealing to women. Long Petticoats and Dresses in fine materials up to $4.00 each formerly; on sale Saturday $1.69.

A REGULAR FASHION SHOW is the display of Dresses, Suits and Coats for girls and juniors. Patterned after their elders they yet possess all the charm and distinctiveness of youth.

About 75 Dresses for Children to sell Saturday. Cotton—sensible and very practical, formerly $2.00, will go at 79c each. Eight Children's Wool Dresses, formerly up to $6.00, at $2.00 each. Fourteen Children's Wool Dresses, formerly up to $10.00, at $3.75 each. Six Junior Party Dresses, formerly up to $20.00, at $5.00 each.

It is so easy to step into the SENIOR SECTION that you'll be tempted to know. Indeed, worth a special visit. The Coats, Gowns and Suits are certainly made on new lines and entirely different ideas this season. The first glance is perhaps not wholly pleasing in its revealing of bolero style jackets and flounces and fur-belts—later quaintness, novelty and artistic charm appears in so many that you become interested.

We are going to offer a lot of new coats at a very low price Saturday. Just as a drawing card. Prices $17.95 and $18.50. New Ratines and Waffle cloths in the lot. Silks on the main floor—Crepes in silk, part silk and wool. Charmeuse, satins, foulards, poplins, vestings—real works of art. Special for Saturday, a new lot of Wash Silks, 32 inches wide at 69c—regular price 85c. 40-inch Crepe de Chine, all colors, all silk $1.59.

Saturday at Kilpatrick's Important Items from the Colling Stock

Fine French tapestry, imported cretonnes, velours, etc., in lengths adapted to upholstery purposes—recovering furniture, card tables, pillow covers, etc.

Works of art—really a revelation as showing the artistic taste and ability of the man, Colling. Curtains that are exquisite. A small stock, but wonderfully choice—Half Colling's prices or less.

A few of the Tufted Rugs left; also a few quaint Rug Mats made from new rugs, quaint reminders of the days of our grandmothers—on which there is now a sort of a redivivus.

Colling had some very choice Oriental Rugs. These have all been sold. During the first days of this sale a man brought in a number of sample Oriental Rugs, mostly small pieces. We made him an offer on the lot. We got them—they are being offered with the Colling stock. If interested in Orientals take a look.

THE WALL PAPER WILL GO ON SALE SOON. Wait for announcement. Watch for displays.

The new Spring Suits and Dresses come in great variety—both of style and material—Moires are good. Ask to see the $27.50 Suits—black, copenhagen and navy.

More Dollar Poplins at the Dress Goods Section. Beautiful combination of plaids and plain, checks and plain, brocade and plain.

Men, lend us your eyes—if not your ears. Not so easy to attract the attention of men to advertisements—but they are learning. Our Valentine ad was a wonderful success. We could have sold many more. Most men are good fellows—after they are once started.

SATURDAY, SWEATERS—Serviceable all the year garments—oxfords, navy, maroon, etc. Shown in east window—$1.98 instead of $2.50; $2.98 instead of $4.00; $3.98 instead of $5.00; $4.98 instead of $6.00.

A little lot of extra fine Silk Socks, $1.98 instead of $3.00.

WOMEN'S UNDERWEAR, Saturday, 50c Per Garment. Odd garments—vests, pants, suits—many were $1.50, some were $1.00. All at 50c Saturday.

WOMEN'S HOSE—For Saturday a mercerized lisle, full fashioned, black—and our guarantee both as to color and wear; 3 pairs in a box for $1.00.

WASH GOODS—Never, never, no, never did we see such an array of beauties. From over the sea, the most gorgeous conceptions in Ratines, Crepes and choice printed fabrics—France, Germany, Great Britain, each trying to outdo the other, and your Uncle Samuel is in the race also—American-made goods so dainty, so exquisite, so choice, that their only fault is "Made in America"—if that is a fault.

The variety is large, but the lengths are limited in the choicer kinds to patterns—hence the wisdom of early selection.

In the Basement Saturday—A Sale of Crepes. Wide selection, silk stripes, embossed, etc. They were sold from 35 to 60 cents. Saturday, 23c yard.

Yes! The Kilpatrick sales are different. Contributing to the high cost of living? NO! The arraignment does not fit these sales of ours.
