Plain Corset Talks

WISE WOMEN

A very light corset is never a

Corsets may be made lighter by using very thin fabrics and leaving out a lot of the boning;

but then you have a waist rather

If you need corset support,

there must be plenty of boning and firm material—to buy a flimsy

Be a Wise Woman!

—and wear the lightest STRONG corsets in the world—

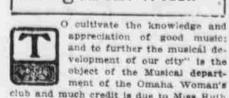

corset is useless and wasteful.

That is-NEMO!

very strong corset.

than a corset.

What Women Are Doing in the World

appreciation of good music; and to further the musical development of our city" is the object of the Musical department of the Omaha Woman's club and much credit is due to Miss Ruth ; Canson, who is the new leader of the deariment, and her assistant, Miss Helen adilek, for a most interesting program which has been arranged for the coming year. The members of this department have for many years given spiendid programs and the new program, which has recently been given out, brings to mind that the study in this department is still the same standard of good work which program for the year; October il —Bohemian day. Talk on modern Bohemian composers by Mr Frank Mach. Program from works by Smetana and Dworak, in charge of Mrs. Wagner-Thomas.

this department has always maintained.

The work this year will be confined to the study of modern composers of the different countries, and the following is the Naguer-Thomas.

November 1:—Scandinavian day. Talk on the moders composers and program taken from Grieg and S.nding, in charge of Miss Flanche Scrensen.

Miss Blanche Sorensen.

December 12—Hungarian day. Talk on the striking rhythm and tonality of Hungarian music and the uses made of the folk songs by List Brahms, etc., in charge of Mr. Henry Cox.

January 16.—Folk songs. Paper and program in charge of Miss Helen Mackin.

January 20—Open meeting. Program by the Omaha Symphony of My orthogram, Mr. Henry Cox. conductor, assisted by Miss Ruth Ganson and Miss Helen Sadilek.

flick.
January 30-McDowell. Talk and pro-January 30-McDowell. Talk and program in charge of Edith L. Wagoner.
February 13-German day. Talk on the composers and a program from the works of Strauss. Hugo Wolf and Weingartner, in charge of Mrs. Louise Jansen Wylle.
February 17.—Tschak wski. Talk and program in charge of Mr. Jean Duffield March 18-Russian day. Talk and program from the works of Balaskirerf. Arceiski. Rachmaninow. etc., in charge of Mrs. J. A. C. Kennedy.
March 27.—English day. Talk and program from modern English composers and gong writers. Edward Elgar, Coleridge-Taylor, Sir Charles Stamford, Cyril Scott Liza Lehman, Granville Bentsck, in charge of Thomas J. Kelly.
April 10-Scharwenka, Talk and program in charge of Miss Helen Sadliek.
April 24-French day. Talk and program from Debussy, Massenet, Charpentier etc., in charge of Mrs. Mabelle Crawford Welpton.

etc., in charge of Mrs. Mabelle Crawford Welpton. May 8—American day. Talk and pro-gram, from Buck, Nevin, Chadwick Grant-Schaffer, etc., in charge of Mrs.

Inder the auspices of the Omaha Soclety of Fine Arts, Mr. Dudley Crafts Watson will lecture on "American Artists [Abroad" at the Young Women's Christian association auditorium, Seventeenth and Howard streets, Friday evening at

Mr. Watson is an artist of ability who has worked and traveled extensively throughout Europe. He is personally acquainted with most of the American painters who live abroad, and has been an honored guest in many of the European studios.

His lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon slides, many of which have been prepared by the artist and colored from the original paintings. more's or Darling's.

The Mothers' Culture club will meet Kock will give a reaging. The discussion will be in charge of Mrs. W. H. Indoe. This will be the annual meeting of the club and there will be an election of ofmeet at Library hall Wednesday after- streets, Monday afternoon, October 25, at noon at 2:30. A forestry program will be 2:15. The subject of the afternoon will given, when the speaker of the after- be "Juvenile Delinquents." Mr. and Mrs. York, Neb. Miss Ruth Flynn will give a done at the school, Mr. E. F. Denison piano solo. The members of the Omaha will use "The Training of Children" as Woman's club are cordially invited.

The art department of the Omaha Woman's club will have its regular meeting Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the club. Mrs. P. S. Swick will be the leader and the subject will be the Albright gallery at Buffalo, N. Y.

The advanced French class of the Omaha Woman's club will hold its meeting Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the club rooms, with the leader, Mrs. Ben

The philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club, under the

The Diamonds

that are worth investing in are the Blue White Wesselton or Jager Gems. We carry a splendid stock of these goods to show

We do not carry the cheap diamonds some Jewelers sell. We leave that to the pawnbroker.

We sell our goods at reasonable prices and sustain our reputation and our customers' confidence and respect. A good diamond is a joy forever. A poor one is a disappointment forever.

C. B. Brown Co. Jewelers and Diamondsmiths Sixteenth and Farnam Sts.

Her Engagement Announced

MISS DOROTHY STEVENS

leadership of Mrs. M. B. Newton, will K. Gault, Mrs. W. B. Millard, Mrs. Argive the first of its winter series of lecture Williams, Mrs. John Williams, Miss WEDDINGS INTEREST SOCIETY tures at the club rooms Thursday after- Edith Pearl, Miss Katherine and Miss noon at 3:30. The first address will be Margaret Hillard. given by the Rev. T. H. McConnell and Tickets may be had at Hospe's, Whit- his subject will be "The Sources of What We Know of St. Paul's Writings."

The members of the West Side Wom-Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. George B. en's Christian Temperance union held a Mrs. John McDonald, The influence of Miss Louise Storz Will Be Married D. Lenhoff will be hostess of the meeting mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. the school of Dusseldorf and the native and will be assisted by Mrs. George E. H. G. Claggett Friday afternoon. "Pur-Mickel. Mrs. T. L. Combs will read a ity" was the subject of the afternoon. paper on "How to Interest Children in Mrs. L. E. Lents gave two readings, fol-Books on Natural History." Mrs. I. W. lowing the business of the meeting. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Claggett Friday, November 1.

The social science department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet at the The Century club of South Omaha will Detention school, Fourth and Bancroft noon will be Mrs. H. W. Harriman of M. B. Thompson will speak on the work the subject of his talk, Mr. F. C. Best of the Board of County Commissioners will speak on "The Responsibility of the County Commissioners Toward Delinquents" and Judge Howard Kennedy will speak of the "Responsibility of the Community" from the viewpoint of the juve nile court.

A recital will be given at Brownell Hall Friday afternoon, November 1, at 3 g'clock, for the benefit of the Social Settlement. The recital will be followed by a 4 o'clock tea, when Miss Bell, Miss Paine and Miss Berger will assist Miss Johnson.

The oratory department of the Woman's club will meet Tuesday morning at 16 o'clock in the studio of Miss Lillian Fitch, the leader. The lesson topic will be, "How to Read Drama Aloud."

hold their meeting Friday, November 1, in | Harriet, Heller will speak on "The Benethe lecture room at the public library at o'clock. Miss Jennie L. Redfield will be the leader of the afternoon, when character stories will be told.

The Dundee Woman's club will mee Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. J. LEADER OF MUSICAL SECTION OF Guinter will be hosters of the meeting. Miss Ida Johnson will be the leader and the current topics will be under Miss Fisher. The subject for the afternoon will be "Ivanhoe."

Mrs. E. G. Eldrige will be hostess at the meeting of the Major Isaac Sadler chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home, 515 North Thirtieth street, Saturday afternoon. A Thanksgiving program will be given. Miss Laura Waterman will read a paper on "The Early Thanksgiving in the Colonies," Miss Ruth Ganson will give several vocal numbers and reports from the recent state conference at Lincoln will be read by Mrs. Thomas Burchmore and Miss Dorothy Sayre.

The local branches of the Women's auxiliaries of the Episcopal churches held their monthly meeting in the parlors of Jacobs Memorial hall Friday afternoon The woman have decided to take up the study of Japan with their work for the

The semi-annual meeting of the Womwill hold their meeting in Lincoln, Neb., Tuesday, October 26. On Monday evening a reception will be given to the out-of-town visitors and the meeting will be opened Tuesday morning with high comm at 9:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a business meeting. In the afternoon an address will be given by Dean Tancock. Among those from Omaha who expect to attend are Mrs. Philip Potter, Mrs. A.

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts met Thursday morning in the lecture room at the public library under the leadership of Mrs. N. P. Fell, who was assisted by influence on the American painting were spoken in a most interesting way by both Mrs. Fell and Mrs. McDonald.

Mrs. Fell considered the works of Emanuel Leutze, who, although American born, was a student at the Dusseldorf school. Among the sides shown were the historical painting "Washington ton alumni. Crossing the Delaware," and the rural painting of "Westward, Ho," which are be given in February has been started. perhaps the best known of the artist's work. Mrs. Feil also spoke on the works of Eastman Johnson and John F. Weir. The paper read, by Mrs. John McDonald on Winslow Homer was exceptionally interesting and instructive. Mrs. Mc-Donald called attention to the fact that notwithstanding the faults as to his technique his work is representative of American art.

Mrs. W. W. Keysor of Kirkwood, Mo., formerly of Omaha, was the guest of the morning and was unanimously elected an honorary member of the society. Mrs. Keysor, perhaps more than any other woman in Omaha, has done more for art in the city and her efforts have been appreciated by many clubs of the city. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Key sor spoke to the women of the splendid work which they were doing.

There will be a meeting of the Omaha Political Equality league in the auditorium of the Young Women's Christian association Tuesday evening, October 29, at 8 o'clock. An educational program will be given. Mr. Robert Cowell will give an address on the "Benefit of Suffrage from The Omaha Story Tellers' league will the Standpoint of the Employer," Mrs. fit of Suffrage from the Standpoint of the Wage-Earner," and Judge Kennedy will speak on "Suffrage from the Community Standpoint.

OMAHA WOMAN'S CLUB.

MISS RUTH GANSON.

The Ber's Medding Book

October 27, 1897-Albert W. Jefferis, one of the tall pines of the legal profession, and Miss Aurora Kortlang solemnized transplanted from Pennsylvania, marks their marriage at Kountze Memorial the day as the crystal anniversary of church. Rev. John E. Hummon fled the hie marriage to Helen J. Malaskey. The nupttal knot. The bride was attended by wedding took place at Oregon, Ill.

and Miss Irene Cole, daughter of Mr. Tetard, inex Bloom and Ceimer Watteand Mrs. David Cole, were married at math. The groom was attended by Mr. by Mr. T. J. Kelly and the entire choir Kornmesser, Alvin Bloom and August of the church. It was a yellow chrysanthemum wedding. The bridal party was headed by the ushers. Messrs. Walter Coleman, Samuel Rees, jr.; Fred E. Ry- torney and real estate dealer, scores ner and Harry Steel. Preceding the bride forty-two years of wedded life. Frances was the maid of honor, Miss Viola Cole, of Chicago. The bride walked with her father and was beautiful in her wedding gown of white crepe de meteor, with his brother as best man. About 200 guests Jennings. Newcastle was the scene attended the reception at the Cole home. the ceremony.

Miss Florence Brewitt as maid of honor and six bridgemaids. Miss Beatrice Cole October 27, 1939-Mr. Charles H. Wright Mamie Munson, Helga Rasmussen, Irene the First Methodist church by Rev. F. L. E. B. Conrad as best man, and and six Loveland. A pretty feature of the cere- ushers, Messra, George Rasmussen, mony was the music, which was given Walter Springer, Will Kortlang, Carl Rasmussen.

> T. Jefferies was his bride and Ann Arbor, Mich., the scene of the ceremony stole front and back of hand embroid- and former postmaster, hails from Inered chiffon. Mr. Joel Wright attended diana, and there won his bride, Helen Wednerday afternoon.

The Sanford hotel will give the first of their series of dances for the winter to Omaha. The wedding will be very quiet the guests of the Sanford and the Bachelor hotels and their friends Saturday Afternoon Bridge Party. evening, November 2 give its eighth annual charity ball at placed for the game the Auditorium Tuesday, October 29. The proceeds will be devoted to the charity work of the society during the winter.

Relief Society Dance.

Hallowe'en Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith entertained at a delightful Hallowe'en party last evening at their home in celebration of the twelfth birthday of their Caushter Helen. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and the evening was spent with Hallowe'en games. Those present were: Misses-Virginia Pixley, Eleanor Burkley.

Misses—
Helen Smith,
Elizabeth Ringwalt,
Louise Fort,
Eather Smith,
Heiena Chase,
Messrs.—
James Wyman,
Donaid Shepherd,
Arthur Ringwalt,
David Caldwell,
Richard Page, Peggy Reed,
Mary Morsman,
Orace Smith,
Messrs.—
Harry Burkley,
Robert Burkley,
George Voss,
Morse Palmer,
Danman Kounts Denman Kountze

Pleasures Past.

Dorothy Stevens and Ben Wood,

Lody - Original Cooking

Club to Give Parties.

(Continued from Page Two.)

be assisted by a number of the Creigh

U. of N. Alumni to Meet.

Tea for Miss Cranmer.

women attended the ten.

For the Future.

Work on the formal annual concert to sity club rooms Tuesday evening to determine a policy which the local Corn-

Mrs. Ben W. Cotton was hostess at an informal tea Saturday afternoon at her ome on South Thirty-eighth avenue from to 6 o'clock in honor of Miss Willamain

Cranmer of Denver, who is the guest of Mrs. Glen C. Wharton. Men as well as prices on a few of the different sizes:

Scotch Weave, 36x36...... $ 2.75

Scotch Weave, 36x72...... $ 5.50

Scotch Weave, 4-6x6..... $ 8.00

Mrs. John Light was hostess at the meeting of the E. O. P. club Friday afternoon. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. J. G. Lohlein, Friday, November 8. Those present were Mesdames: R. G. Sward, James Dillotte. William Poff, Elmer Kinkenon, J. B. Green, J. E. Wilson, P. J. Austin, Arthur Sorenson and Max Smith.

Mrs. Paul P. Platz, Jr., entertained at a surprise party last evening at her home, 2667 Douglas street, in celebration of Mr. Platz birthday. A pleasant evening was spent at cards. Prizes were won by Mr. Williamson, G. Byberg, Miss Ruby Batey and Mrs. Ida Burness. Those present

Engagement is Announced of Miss Museu Minnes-Myrtle Batey. Nellie Rentfrow. Messrs.— George Byberg, Charles Radeliff. Mesdames—

Paul Platz, gr., Tea for Mrs. Keysor and Miss Hanna. Mrs. J. W. Griffith entertained Satur

Hanna of Kansas City. Receiving with Mrs. Griffith and the honor guests were. Mrs. Ralph Gaylord and Mrs. Isaac Raymond of Lincoln, and in the assisting The University of Nebraska Alumni party were: Meadamesclub of Omaha will meet in the Univer-S. B. Sarson,
M. A. Hall,
F. N. Conner,
W. B. Millard,
A. W. Jefferts,
Osgood Eastman,
Arthur Keeline,
A. J. Beaton George Paterson, husker graduates shall pursue in regard Seorge Squires, C. E. Johannes, to support of athletics at the State uni- Fre Freeman, G. W. Megeath, A. W. J. Connell, Marren Blackwell, Mins Jessie Millard.

day afternoon at a tea in honor of Mrs.

W. W. Keysor of St. Louis and Miss

Mrs. George A. Joslyn entertained informally at luncheon Saturday at Lynhurst in honor of Mrs. W. W. Keysor of St. Louis, guest of Miss Jessie Mil-Covers were placed for ten.

Wedding Announcement. An out-of-town wedding of interest is announced to take place at Emerson, Ia., The Busy Bee Card club will give a November 12, when Miss Dott Odett

Scotch Weave Rugs

dows a very complete assortment of the new Scotch weave rugs. They are new designs and patterns and are very desirable rugs for any room in the home. Their color schemes are such that they adapt themselves to wall decorations and draperies without an artistic clash. The prices are reasonable and the rugs are very serviceable. We herewith quote

Do not fail to take advantage of this opportunity. It will pay you to see the new styles, even though you do not wish to purchase.

We are showing a splendid collection of exquisite Oriental Rugs on our Second Fioor

Miller, Stewart & Beaton Co.

415-417 South Sixteenth Street

We are now displaying on our third floor and in our show wineard party in Brandels' Pempelan room Ranz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ranz of Emerson, will be united in marriage to Mr. George M. Wallace of Miss Dorris Wood entertained at an aft-The Jewish Ladies' Relief society will chrysanthemums. Seven tables were

> The Omikron club entertained at a dancing party Friday evening at Champresent were: Attenes-Misses-

Margiaretta Burke. ; Uarda Scott, Eva Lambert, Helen Murphulne, Josephine Murphy, Anne Dennis, Myra Breckenridge, Florence Liver, Roxer Holman,

Nannie Page. Carroll Belden. Lee G. Mitchell,
Brandon Howell, Morten F. Engelman,
W. S. Byrne, R. C. Martin,
Edward F. Leary, Lloyd Smith,
A. I. Creigh, John Latenser, jr.;
William N. Anderson R. A. Gantt,
Correct Livers, Nannie Page,
Messrs,
Messrs,
Messrs,
Messrs,
Messrs,
Messrs,
Morten F. Engelman,
A. C. Martin,
Edward F. Leary, Lloyd Smith,
John Latenser, jr.; Earl Burket, J. L. Woodworth, A. G. Sibbernsen, George Engler, Harold Thompson NorLort C. Leary, J. L. Wood,
J. F. Anson,
Roger McKenzie,
R. L. Montgomery,
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. King,
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ress, Jr.

Miss May Hamilton sails today from

Tuesday from their motor run to Kansas

Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Magee returned Friday evening from a week's stay in Chicago.

Mrs. R. R. Kimball has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Charles Crane of Charlestown, W. Va. Mr. Frederick G. Baker of Chicago is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Baker, sr. Mr. P. P. Kirkendall and Mr. E. E. Bruce are spending a few days in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

father's home at Cohassett, Mass. Mrs. Lester C. Hitchinson, who has spent the summer in Spokane, Wash. and other western cities, has returned. Mrs. J. E. Rugg has as her guest her cousin, Miss Ida Green of Burlington, Va. who will make her a visit of a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Raiph E. Sunderland and family are at the Hotel Loyal until they to spend the winter, Miss Olabell Hervey, Miss Betty Penny and Miss Adelaide Thomas are the guests at a house party at the home of Miss Florence Harford of Ashland, Neb. Mr. Daniel Stapleton, who spends his time between South America and Londen, was in Omaha for the past week end and has sailed again for Columbia. Mrs. Perry Allen, formerly Miss Bertha Sloan of this city, sailed recently for Paris with her husband and children to remain for the winter. Her mother, Mrs. Sloan, is in Washington for the winter.

October 27, 1870-Dexter L. Thomas, at-

October 27, 1886-Joseph Crow, lawyer

ernoon bridge Saturday. The rooms were prettily decorated with yellow and white

Omikron Club Party.

bers academy. This was the first of a series to be given this winter. Those Allsacs Misses Misses Grace Melbride. Namic Barrett, Marjoric Foote. Ruth Latenser, Gretchen McConnell, Marguerite Busch, Margharetta Burke. L'arda Scott. Esther Hunter of Fremont. Harriet Copley. Marion Carpenter, Ruth Gould, Carolyn Harkalow.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

San Francisco on the "Siberia" for Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldrige returned Mr. Bobert R. Ringwalt returned Satirday from a visit of several days in

Mrs. Herman Kountze is visiting be sister in Dunkirk. N. Y., but expects to return adon to Omaha. Mrs. N. P. Dodge, ir., returned last week from a summer spent at her leave for California about November 1

Scotch Weave, 6x10-6...... $18.50

Scotch Weave, 9x9......$23.00

Scotch Weave, 9x12......$32.00

Scotch Weave, 9x10-6.........$27.50

SELF-REDUCI

The greatest FIGURE-REDUCING

Corset ever sold for $3.00. FOR STOUT FIGURES

With improved Self-Reducing front; long, stylish skirt with hip-confining bands of elastic Lastikops Webbing which give the modish "in-slope" and ease

n any position: No. 319—low bust 3.00 At least a MILLION women here

For Siender Figures

nd abroad wear these corsets.

Four splendid models for me-dium and slender forms; supporting bands of elastic Lastikops Webbing bring comfort and safety. Fine for athletic women: No. 330—medium bust No. 331—low bust No. 332—high bust

With elastic "Holtite" straps (inside of the corset); extra-long skirt. Two beautiful models: No. 306—low bust No. 308—medium bust $300

No. 333-girdle top

No other corset can take the place of a Nemo—in service, style, wear or comfort.

Be a Wise Woman! - and deal only with stores that will sell you a NEMO when you ask for it. (P) KOPS BROS., Manufacturers, Now York

Hot Chocolate and Lunches

Visit the Owl's Nest or Sodo-asis when in the shopping dis-tricts. These being the only down stairs exclusive soda rooms in the city, this fact has attracted to us a discriminating patronage. Join the happy throngs who visit these pretty rooms daily.

THE SHERMAN & McCONNELL DRUG CO., 16th and Dodge Streets. THE OWL DRUG CO.,

TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER Reaches the Live Stock Growers,