CANDIDATES UNDER LEASH AT EAGLES' ENTERTAINMENT

A bulldog straining at its leash, trying to pull away from its bonds is the only apt comparison that can be made to the political candidates who last night addressed the Eagles at their smoker and house warming party. Politics were absolutely barred by Chairman Tom Flynn and it was really funny to hear the candidates try to evade the rule.

The Eagles recently refurnished their quarters at 1410 Harney street and last night was the occasion of the official housewarming. Nearly 300 members were present to enjoy the excellent program prepared. Beside the many candidates ho spoke, the following were on the program: A. S. Ritchie, Tom Flynn, the Gate City quartet, C. J. Taylor, A. P. Saunders, Doc Tanner, Henry Rotholtz in The Bee and I was horror stricked and Jack McKenna.
