MEET FOE WORTHY OF HONOR

Cornhuskers Fight Battle with One of Best Valley Teams.

MISSOURI CLOSE TO LEAGUE CLASS

Muddy Field Also Factor in Game

By CLYDE E. ELLIOTT. "Why didn't the Cornhuskers lick Missouri by a larger score?" This question is being shot at Nebraskaans from every side. There are two answers: The Missouri Tigers are a team of much greater strength than the 29 to 0 victory of Ames against them indicate; the field on which Nebraska met the Missourians was muddy, presenting a condition which prevented the fast Nebraska backfield—one of the best in the middle west today—from getting off a series of plays that would have netted touchdowns.

Consider the first reason—that Missouri is a strong team. Ames played the Tigers 29 to 0. During the first half of the game the Tigers held the Aggies to a 2 to 0 score, the two points being handed to Ames by a Missouri player who let himself be pulled over the goal line for a safety. The other points which the Aggies registered, in the third and fourth quarters, came because the Tigers were "up in the air," as they say, at Columbia. The team fumbled twice, and the Aggies made each of these blunders count touchdowns. The other two touchdowns came from end runs and a forward pass. The Cornhuskers in their battle Saturday made more yards in advancing the ball than the Aggies did in their contest against the Tigers. Nebraska was very unfortunate, however, after it placed the oval on the ten and five-yard lines of the Tigers, the condition of the ground making it impossible to shove the ball over the remaining feet necessary to score. The manner in which the Tigers fought the Aggies during the first half proves they are powerful. The way in which they held the Cornhuskers during the first three-quarters of the game Saturday also is proof they have a stubborn defense. On the offense they were dangerous against the Nebraska team in the first quarter, and it was real foot ball—not luck—that enabled them to endanger the Cornhusker goal on two different occasions in the first half. Nebraska has a strong eleven this fall—not, however, as powerful as that of last season, because the line cannot compare in strength, agility and skill with the 1911 forwards—while Missouri is possessed of a much better team than it had a year ago. Ames could not defeat Missouri, 29 to 0, if the two eleven were to meet next week; the Aggies would have a hard time to win, and it is doubtful whether they would be favorites in the betting at Columbia.

Spalding College

Trounces Indians

SPALDING, Neb., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—The Genoa Indians were given a decisive beating at the hands of the Spalding college warriors Friday, by the score of 19 to 0. Baker, the quarter back of the college, scored two of the college touchdowns and Frendersgat the other. At no stage of the game was the college goal in danger. The college goal has not been crossed this season.

Quiet Day for State House

Officials Away to Vote or to Hustle for Votes.

OPINIONS AS TO THE OUTCOME

Paul Clark Likely to Reap Whirlwind He Has Sworn for Several Years—Bryan Closes Tonight.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—There will be very little doing at the state house Monday. Several of the state officers will go home to vote, many of them still holding their legal residence in the town in which they resided at the time they were elected. Governor Aldrich will go to David City, State Treasurer George to Broken Bow, Land Commissioner Cowles to Fairbury and Attorney General Martin to Fremont. Most of the deputies and a large percentage of the male members of the different offices also will vote in their home towns, and in consequence the capitol building will be a very quiet place on Monday and Tuesday.

REMEMBER MARTIN LUTHER

Lutherans of Omaha Hold Celebration Sunday at Auditorium.

PROF. W. H. T. DAU THE SPEAKER

Eulogizes Luther and Tells of the Present Standing of the Lutherans Whom, He Says, in This Country Are Loyal Americans.

A thousand Lutherans gathered at the Auditorium yesterday afternoon to join in the celebration of the anniversary of the reformation wrought by Martin Luther, who October 31, 1517, posted his famous ninety-five theses on the doors of his church denying the power of the pope to forgive sin, Luther's first step in drawing away from the Roman Catholic church.

Western Farms Are Increasing in Value

"I have never seen a time at this season of the year when there was such a demand for farm land as now," said F. N. Durkee of Lexington, who spent Sunday in Omaha. "All through the section of the country where I live, farms are changing hands at advances of $25 to $50 over last fall, many of them improved ones selling as high as $125 and $150 per acre. North of Shelton, in the Wood River valley, I heard of a farm owned by a Mr. Newell that the other day sold for $152.50 per acre and the best thing about the sale was that two years ago last spring, Newell bought the land for $40 per acre and since that time he had not put more than $80 in improvements. All that he had done was to build a small frame barn and put up some hog sheds."

Retribution Hits Clark

That the way of the transgressor is hard is evidenced by the fact that a concerted effort is being made by life long republicans who were made victims of a scheme of Paul Clark, bull moose candidate for congress in this district, to keep him from carrying his own precinct. Clark, so they claim, by the assistance of several men who had been butchering republican candidates for years and who with Clark fought Will Hayward two years ago, put up a job to keep regular republicans out of the republican county convention as delegates. The scheme won out by a small majority and now they propose to give Clark a little taste of the same medicine he gave Will Hayward two years ago.

Bryan Winds Up Tonight

W. J. Bryan will conclude the campaign as far as the democrats are concerned with an address at the city auditorium Monday night. Mr. Bryan has spoken in twenty-nine states, having been on the road continuously since September 15. He has run up a record of as high as twenty speeches in a day and most of the time getting in no less than five. Many of the state candidates expect to close the campaign here with Mr. Bryan.

Secretary of Cubs Kills Highwayman

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Rutherford B. Cooke, assistant secretary of the Chicago National league base ball club, shot and killed one of two men who stopped him on Washington boulevard early this morning. Cooke said that two men in a motor car drove up to the sidewalk ahead of him and one leaped out and ordered him to throw up his hands. The base ball man drew a revolver from his overcoat pocket and shot the man dead. The other man, according to Cooke's account, had not left the automobile and he threw in the clutch and sped away. Police found in the dead man's pocket an accident insurance policy made out to Edward Meyers, and a deputy sheriff's star, No. 512.

Cooke said the man he shot pointed a revolver at him. He was taken to a police station, but later released on his own recognition to appear at the coroner's inquest.

Large advertisement for Prince Albert cigarettes. Features a large illustration of a man's face and a pack of cigarettes. Text includes: 'You say "P.A."—and make a real Cigarette Smoke!', 'Go right up to the counter, like you had been wise a long spell, and say: "Give me some Prince Albert and a flock of cigarette papers."', 'Stop in your tracks, roll up a cigarette and get a mouthful of cool, delicious P. A. smoke! Man alive! You've hit the flavor, fragrance—class! You've hit real and true smoke joy at last!', 'marks the high spot in cigarettes as well as being king pin of jimmy pipe tobaccos. It's a double header for one admission! Play it either way—just as the idea hits you when you get P. A. hungry.', 'Here's hard facts: Prince Albert has doubled the number of American pipe smokers, because the bite is cut out by a patented process. And it's doing the same thing with cigarette smokers, because it's freed 'em from the fast running dust-brands and fire-brands. Catch the idea?', 'Buy P. A. everywhere tobacco is sold and lots of places where no other brand is sold. It's always at hand, no matter where you are. In 5c tippy red bags; 10c tidy red tins and pound and half-pound humidors.', 'R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.'"/>
