

CHICAGO LOSES ITS FIGHT

Commerce Commission Puts Old Rate Between Here and Gulf in Effect.

WHEATS STARTS MOVING AGAIN

Railroads Figure They Can Get All Shipments of Wheat to New Orleans by January First on the Old Rate.

The Chicago Board of Trade has lost out in its efforts to have the Interstate Commerce commission cancel the low rate put in by the Missouri Pacific on grain between Omaha and New Orleans and Galveston.

The result of the suspension of the cancellation of the 15-cent rate has resulted in enormous quantities of grain again starting toward the gulf, a train of twenty cars loaded with wheat having gone out from Omaha Monday night.

Advance Wheat Price. The old rate was 15c cents per 100 pounds and with the reduction it enables Omaha grain men to advance the price of wheat close to 3 cents per bushel, which is more than the normal difference between this market and Chicago, especially when the wheat went to destination by way of Chicago.

At this time the Missouri Pacific is the only road having the low rate between Omaha and gulf ports and with its continuance until the first of the year it is figured that the bulk of the wheat in Omaha territory will be moved prior to that time, taking advantage of the prices paid here, which are up to those of Chicago and considerably higher than those of Minneapolis and Duluth.

There is still a shortage of cars for the movement of grain, but according to local railroad officials, some relief has been afforded within the last twenty-four hours. The roads have been able to find some empties at out stations, and they have been rushed in and put into carrying service.

Freighters at Gulf.

Missouri Pacific officials learn that within the last forty-eight hours a number of large freighters have arrived at New Orleans and have commenced loading the wheat for export to Europe. With the boats now in port, it is held they will be able to take care of the wheat that has been held for several days in the 1,200 cars. As soon as the cars are unloaded, which will be during this week, they will be brought back to this territory on fast freight time and again loaded out with wheat.

Jannus Will Try to Fly to New Orleans

Two years of progress in the manufacture of the aeroplane have made it possible for the aeronaut not to disappoint his spectators unless an unusually strong wind suddenly arises, according to Tony Jannus, who tomorrow will start to fly from Omaha to New Orleans. Jannus yesterday afternoon and began arranging the final details for his trip. He will test out his machine, a hydro-aeroplane, on Carter lake at the Rod and Gun club this afternoon and see that it is ready to begin the flight tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The exhibition this afternoon will be for aeronauts and newspaper men. Wednesday afternoon he will give a public exhibition at the club.

Jannus' machine resembles the ordinary aeroplane, but has underneath it devices equipping it for sailing on water. Before his start to New Orleans he will give an exhibition flight on Carter lake, rising and circling over the city. He will go over the Woodmen of the World building where J. J. Derigat, president of the Nebraska Aero club will mark his starting time, and, ending down to the Missouri river, he will leave Omaha for the south. Jannus is scheduled to arrive late Wednesday afternoon at Nebraska City and will proceed from there to St. Joseph. He will be received at Kansas City by George M. Myers, president of the Kansas City Aero club. Circling over that city his time will be marked as he leaves the Commercial club there.

At New Orleans Jannus will be received by the Chamber of Commerce. Jannus' machine is expected to arrive in Omaha from Chicago early this morning. It will be taken to the Rod and Gun club where he and his mechanics will assemble and test it out.

Scanlon Has Voted for Seventy Years

Jerry Scanlon, aged 91 years, an inmate of the county farm, was discharged in police court yesterday on a charge of being drunk, in order that he could vote. Scanlon said he had not missed a presidential election in seventy years.

BAR COMMITTEE IS NOW INVESTIGATING LAWYER

The Douglas county bar committee named to consider whether or not disbarment proceedings against certain attorneys should be instituted is considering the case of just one attorney. The committee is finding it difficult to decide whether action against him should be taken. A decision will be reached and a report will be made to Presiding Judge Abraham L. Sutton within a few weeks. One attorney, whose name the judge would not give, told the judge he had tried to practice rightly, but maybe he had been a little "stronger" than he should have been. If he should escape attack by the committee this time, he said, he never will give the least cause for complaint in the future.

VAULTS OF SAVINGS BANK CONTAIN BUT EIGHT HUNDRED

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The vaults of the Kirby savings bank, which was taken charge of by receivers yesterday on the discovery of William T. Kirby, president of the institution, had been insane for some time, were found to contain but $82.12 when the funds were counted today.

A mob of several hundred persons, representing about $50,000 in deposits, it is said, was jammed outside the bank doors and shouted in rage when the information was given them. Police were summoned to disperse the crowd.

The total liabilities of the bank are not known. The $82.12 was made up in part of change and stamps.

By FINNEGAN.

Since my identity became known I have been besieged for a statement of some kind. I am rather sorry to have this forced upon me at this time, for I fear that it will have considerable influence at the polls today, but be that as it may, it is too late for regrets now, so I will give to the world my story.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Republicans Close Campaign With Two Big Meetings.

The republican campaign in South Omaha ended last night with two big meetings. Two hundred listed people at thirty-third and L streets listened to Arthur C. Pancoast of South Omaha, republican candidate for state senator and a representative of Howard H. Baldrige, who was detained in Omaha. At the colored men's club at Twenty-fifth and N streets nearly one hundred men crowded into a room to hear the same speakers.

There is no doubt that the republicans are in better shape today in South Omaha than they have been in years. This is the opinion of Frank Koutsky, Henry Murphy, George Brewer and others who have battled through many campaigns.

Among the foreign born the name of Wilson is anathema. Lobeck is out of the running because of his stand against the laboring men of this district who are for the employer's liability law. Baldrige has been promised the support of the republicans to a man and all of the laboring people of South Omaha. He has made a campaign that has astounded his friends. Day in and day out he has visited the packing houses where the men, irrespective of party, have welcomed him and offered their support. Last night no one would take a bet against the success of his election.

Pancoast is Popular. Arthur Pancoast has a good deal of the same undivided support given to Baldrige. He is popular and to his aid has come also Henry Murphy who is well liked. At the meeting last night both in the Polish hall and at the colored club rooms Mr. Pancoast was accorded an ovation. The feeling is strong against Tanner, whom the laboring men regard as a member of the Gillin gang and a supporter of the rich.

The threat of having a national detective agency on the ground today brought to light certain machinations of the democratic gang to control the election. It is said that some of the police and firemen have been out making an endeavor to coerce certain voters in favor of the Gillin nominees. This is said to have an especial bearing on the position of county attorney, in whose hands rests the pushing of the indictments against Members Ryan and Plovka of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners. Friends of the commissioners are saying that if Magney is elected the indictments will be quashed.

Another democratic candidate for the legislature is said to have arranged an automobile transfer system in the Third ward and in Douglas precinct. At the last minute, it is understood, the services of a national detective agency were secured by the progressives, who are watching the polls in South Omaha for democratic strong-arm methods.

Short Council Meeting. It was short shrift at the meeting of the city council last night, because of the anxiety of the members of that body to get out and put the last touches to the campaign. P. J. Barrett, for the southeast improvement club, entered the complaint that the council had not provided a water main 60 feet instead of 40 feet from Fifteenth and Polk streets. The council agreed.

John McKale, chief of the fire department, asked that the fire hall at Thirty-third and K streets be put into better condition. The matter was referred to the building inspector. Fire hall No. 2 at Thirty-first and R streets was also reported as dilapidated and Councilman Williams made a motion to have an estimate of repairs prepared by the building inspector.

The money for the registration places was allowed. Adjournment was taken until November 18.

Savings Bank for School. In order to carry out the idea of a real business school Prof. R. H. Johnson of the commercial department obtained the backing of the superintendent and school board to his plan inaugurating a savings bank department in the commercial school. Each member of the school will be required to deposit money in the bank. A midyear school commencement was decided upon by the board.

After a deadlock of some weeks Emma Dickman was elected supervisor of music instead of Miss Buntce Ennor, resigned. The board also decided upon a night school at Washington school.

Wannamaker Bound Over. Harry Wannamaker, accused of having mistreated the 3-year-old daughter of Jacob Shearer of Twenty-sixth and N streets, was bound over to the district court yesterday by Judge Callanan, who fixed the man's bond at $5,000. Judge Callanan justified the extent of the bond by the nature of the crime of which Wannamaker is suspected.

According to the story told in court by the little Shearer girl, Wannamaker enticed her into a cellar at her home some weeks ago and there mistreated her. The child contracted a disease.

SHARP BLOW KILLS M'DONALD

Railroad Man Hit on Head Two Weeks Ago Dies Last Night

SCHROTTNER GIVES HIMSELF UP

Says He Struck a Blow in Self-Defense, but He Did Not Think It Severe Enough to Cause Any Injury.

Following two weeks of illness as the result of a blow on the head, Daniel P. McDonald, a Union Pacific engineer, aged 29 years, who lived at 1817 North Twenty-first street, died early last night while an ambulance was taken to take him back to the Clarkson hospital, where only a few days before he was discharged, supposed to be cured. Frank Schrottner, a Union Pacific fireman, living at 1258 1/2 South Sixteenth street, was arrested this morning in connection with McDonald's death.

On October 13, McDonald was found by friends, lying unconscious at Thirteenth and William streets. It was said at the time that Schrottner had walked up to him and suddenly struck him a blow on the head with a blackjack. Examinations showed a slight fracture at the base of the skull and he was taken to the Clarkson hospital.

Fracture Aggravated. The patient became seriously ill while there, and a few days after he was brought in, he fell from his bed while unwatched. His eye was badly discolored and the fracture aggravated. Several days ago, however, his condition was much improved, that physicians said he could be taken home with safety. Yesterday he became subject to convulsions and examination showed that blood clots had developed near the base of the brain. While an ambulance waited to take him back to the hospital, he died.

The body was taken to the Gentleman undertaking parlors and late last night Drs. MacDermid and Newell performed a post mortem examination which showed that the fracture, which was only about an inch in length, was the primary cause of death, but that blood clots had formed and meningitis had also set in, causing convulsions and death.

Police Hear of Case. Following the post mortem examination, the police were informed of the affair for the first time. Detectives were sent to arrest Schrottner, but could find no trace of him last night.

Schrottner came to the police station this morning and gave himself up to Detectives Sullivan and Lahey. He told the police that he had struck McDonald in self-defense and did not know that the blow caused his friend's death until he read it in this morning's paper.

"Mac and I had a friendly scuffle two weeks ago on the street," Schrottner says. "We had both been drinking a little. Mac lost control of his temper and called me a vile name and lunged at me with the intent of striking. I thought I struck at him with my right hand and knocked him down."

"I did not think I had struck him very hard and that the blow would even cause an abrasion on his face. I hit in self-defense. We had been friends for years and never had any trouble."

Schrottner spent last night at a hotel in Council Bluffs. While eating breakfast this morning he read of the death of his friend and came immediately to the Omaha station and asked to be placed under arrest. He will be held pending a full investigation of the case.

According to the story told by Will McDonald, a brother of the deceased,

Aldrich Addresses Bull Moose Meeting

HEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—The campaign closed here this evening with two big political meetings, one held by the Taft men at the Paddock opera house and the other by the bull moose men in a local garage. The speakers at the Taft meeting were Samuel Rinker and R. W. Sablin, who showed that it was to the interest of the business man and farmer to vote for Taft.

MAN SEEMS LITTLE HURT WITH AUTO ON HIS NECK

After a heavy automobile had knocked him down and stopped with one wheel directly on his neck, E. Carlson, 214 Howe street, was dragged from underneath, unhurt, except for a few slight cuts and bruises about the head and body. Several men who witnessed the accident, which occurred early last night at Sixteenth and Harvey streets, had a heavy task to move the machine so that the victim could be taken out.

According to witnesses, the mishap was an unavoidable accident. L. P. Shield of the Vincent hotel, who was driving the car, took Carlson to a physician and afterward took him to his home in the auto.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Sage Tea Will Darken Faded and Gray Hair

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.
