MR. WILSON IS STILL DAZED President-Elect Says He Can Hardly Realize It is True. RECEIVES MANY TELEGRAMS Congratulations from Bryan, Parker and Hearst—Says It is Too Early to Think About Extra Session. PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 6.—"I can't realize that it is true," Woodrow Wilson, president-elect, thus greeted forenoon visitors today, who swarmed to his house to offer congratulations. Among them were many members of the Princeton faculty. "I can't realize that it's true," repeated the governor. "It hasn't quite dawned on me. I had been in an impersonal atmosphere for the last three months, reading about myself, reading that I was to be elected, and now I can hardly believe it is true." Mrs. Wilson and her daughters assisted the governor in receiving callers today. Among the first to arrive was Charles W. McAlphin, secretary of Princeton university. Another caller was Felix Deutscher of San Antonio, Tex., who bears a striking resemblance to Colonel Roosevelt. He had been stumping the east for the governor and is now on his way home. Governor Wilson received the following message this morning from President Hibben of Princeton: "In the name of Princeton university I extend to you the congratulations and best wishes of your alma mater upon your election to the presidency of the United States." Nothing to Fear. Governor Wilson this afternoon issued a statement in which he declared that "there is absolutely nothing for the honest and enlightened business men of the country to fear" from the democratic administration. To President Taft at Washington, Mr. Wilson sent the following telegram: "I warmly appreciate your kind message and wish to express my sincere personal regards." To Colonel Roosevelt at Oyster Bay he sent the following telegram: "My sincerest thanks for your kind message. Pray accept my cordial good wishes."

PROBABLY ELECTED TO BE NEXT GOVERNOR OF NEBRASKA. WILSON-MARSHALL SLATE HAS NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED VOTES (Continued from Page One.) Legislators which is to select two senators; in Colorado, where two senators are to be chosen, the democrats are in apparent control; and in other states later returns may show a shift of the legislative power from republican to democratic hands. Governor Wilson not only carried his own state, New Jersey, by a large majority, but he carried also the states of his opponents, the state of his own running mate, Indiana, and the state of Colonel Roosevelt's running mate, California. Control of the legislature in New Jersey assures to the democrats the choice of Governor Wilson's successor in the gubernatorial chair; and the choice of William Hughes as senator to succeed Senator Briggs, republican. Taft Makes Humorous Remark About Ride Down the Avenue CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 6.—Even in the moments when it became apparent that the country President Taft did not forget his philosophy and good humor. Here is a story of how the president looked at the situation at that time, told by a friend today: "We've got to find some comfort in this," the president is reported to have said. "I'll be very glad to ride down Pennsylvania avenue with Governor Wilson. It wouldn't have been so easy if things had been different, but I would have taken the ride just the same." The president was up early today. He took breakfast at the home of his brother and shortly before 9 o'clock started for the Cincinnati Country club to play golf. He had intended to play yesterday, but the weather interfered, and with election returns out of the way today's game was arranged.

REPUBLICANS FOR SOLONS Douglas County Legislative Ticket Goes to This Party. LOCAL RETURNS SLOW IN COMING Count Delayed by Long List of Name on the Eight-Foot Ballot, Leaving Some Cloud of Doubt Over Results. Complete returns from Douglas county with the exception of nine precincts give the republicans four out of five state senators and nine out of twelve representatives in the house. Hancock is probably low man in the senatorial race and Sugarman and Lee low men among the representatives. Grossman is the only democrat who has a chance to get in the senate. He votes Boland is ahead of Sugarman by 150 votes. The returns from the other nine precincts may change these results. So great was the task that confronted the election boards of Douglas county because of the 8-foot ballot, that the tabulation must be incomplete for some time yet. Douglas county fell in line with the rest of the state in giving a big vote to Wilson for president. Roosevelt runs second and Taft third, but Taft is much closer than he was in the primary race. It looks as if Wilson had carried with him the democratic candidates near the head of the ticket for majorities in this county, including Shallenberger for United States senator, Morehead for governor, and possibly Lobeck for congress. On the state ticket the race is close enough that the majorities will not be strong either way. For county attorney Magney is ahead of Smith and seemingly sure of the lead. For county assessor Cousinsman is running ahead of Harrington enough to indicate his election. For county commissioner, while McDonald has a lead, it is not large enough to make sure of the results until further returns are made. On school board the regular republican nominees are safely elected and the two candidates for Water board had no opposition. No tabulation on constitutional amendments or bond propositions have been made, but the presumption is that few votes were registered against them. CABINET MAKERS ACTIVE Several Groups of Names Suggested for Wilson's Advisers. SPECULATION ABOUT BRYAN Possible Advent of More Students Into the Machinery of Government Opens Wide Field of Choice. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Cabinet makers are already busy conjuring up names of those who will share with Wilson in shaping the policy of the next administration. Necessarily this is purely gossip, but the cabinet builders are nonetheless active in pointing out the persons and the elements available as cabinet material. One of the available elements embraces those who were conspicuous party figures at the Baltimore convention, including Speaker Clark, Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, William Jennings Bryan, Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Governor Hill of Ohio and some others. It is generally assumed, however, that Speaker Clark and Chairman Underwood would prefer to continue their work in congress, especially now that the legislative program on the tariff and other questions is likely to meet with fewer obstacles. As to Mr. Bryan, one of the democratic senators was quoted during the campaign as definitely assigning Mr. Bryan to a cabinet place in case of Wilson's election, although the latter stated about the same time that no consideration had been given to the personnel of the cabinet. Nonetheless speculation is active as to whether the Nebraskan will have a portfolio. Campaign Warriors Considered. Another element from which cabinet material is being suggested embraces those who have been prominently identified with the Wilson campaign, notably Chairman McCombs of the democratic national committee, Representatives Brisson and Henry of Texas, Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, Assistant Chairman McClellan and a number of others who bore the brunt of the conflict at Baltimore and during the campaign. Still another available element is made up of prominent party figures in the various states who were not conspicuously identified with the recent national convention, while another includes some of the veterans of the last administration. Outside of these usual elements from which cabinets can be constructed many foresee the entry of a considerable new element in public affairs made up of men like Mr. Wilson who have been identified with collegiate educational and the economic, et al. of public questions. This opens a wide field of available material. All of this activity of cabinet making is necessarily confined to gossip and conjecture and though names are likely to be put forward from now on nothing authoritative is expected until the president-elect himself has in his own way and time given mature consideration to those who will make up his official household.

DEMOCRATS MAY GET SENATE (Continued from Page One.) led Mr. Taft's pre-election campaign. Representative Bartholdt of Missouri is among the republicans who have weathered the storm in Missouri, and General Sherman, the democratic author of the "dollar-a-day" pension bill of last session, comes back from Ohio. The strengthening of the democratic house also marked the retirement of several old-time republican leaders who have been national figures for nearly a generation. The greatest interest attaches to the result in "Uncle Joe" Cannon's district, which he has represented in the house for thirty-eight years. Ebbenezer Hill Defeated. "Uncle Joe" aid friend through the stormy days of his speakership, Ebbenezer Hill, went down to defeat in Connecticut, and Connecticut for the first time in years elected a solid democratic delegation of five to the house. Incomplete returns seem to presage the defeat of Representative Crumpacker of Indiana, who as chairman of the house census committee, framed the reapportionment bill that created the congressional districts for yesterday's election. In Illinois, near the scene of former Speaker Cannon's defeat, William B. McKinley, who managed the Taft campaign, seemed to be defeated in the early returns. Seneca Payne, one of the fathers of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, was returned by his New York constituents. In Chicago "Jim" Mann, floor leader of the minority in the present house, fought bitterly to maintain a narrow lead with only half of his district reported. But Champ Clark was returned to be speaker of the next house in the first returns received. With him came Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, chairman of the house ways and means committee, which framed the tariff bills of the present house. And with Underwood came a solid democratic delegation from Alabama and the remainder of the south. Progressive candidates for the house reported elected in the day's returns were J. A. Falconer and W. J. Bryan, candidate-at-large for Washington, and W. J. McDonald in the Twelfth allichigan district.

WASHINGTON SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—Roosevelt has carried Washington by probably 30,000 plurality over Wilson. The progressive state chairman claims 45,000. The democratic chairman concedes 20,000. Roosevelt has carried with him to victory the two progressive candidates for congressmen-at-large, J. A. Falconer and J. W. Bryan. One hundred and twenty-six precincts out of 1,905 in the state give: Roosevelt, 10,145; Wilson, 6,895; Taft, 5,574. For governor fifty-five precincts give: Lister (dem.), 1,897; Hodges (pro.), 1,893; Hay (rep.), 1,883. SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Progressive State Chairman Snyder, with returns from more than seventy-five precincts and reports from the county chairmen of the big progressive counties, says Roosevelt's plurality in Washington will be 45,000, and that the immense Roosevelt vote has carried to victory the whole state ticket and two congressmen-at-large. Seventy-six of 1,905 precincts in the state give Roosevelt, 5,983; Wilson, 3,795; Taft, 3,022. For governor twenty-two precincts give Hay (rep.), 1,930; Hodge (pro.), 1,075; Lister (dem.), 1,094. ILLINOIS CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—With 1,224 precincts in Illinois to hear from Roosevelt led Wilson by 14,015 votes. The plurality of 25,477 given Roosevelt in Cook county probably has carried the state for him, but if the subsequent returns from the TURKS ARE IN LAST DITCH (Continued from Page One.) the approaches to Constantinople to prevent the ingress of fugitives. Notwithstanding these measures and the arrival of the foreign war vessels the public is still unsettled and many families continue to leave for abroad, while residents of the suburbs are coming into the inner city. The public is astonished and dumfounded at the repeated Turkish reverses. It is now recognized on all sides that the end has come. The Mussulman population of the towns along the Dardanelles, although depressed, maintain calm. Saloniki May Surrender. ATHENS, Nov. 6.—A Greek naval squadron today occupied the Turkish island of Tenodes, near the entrance to the Dardanelles. The investment by the Greeks of the fortress is nearly complete. Negotiations for the surrender of Saloniki were opened Friday between the foreign consuls and the military authorities, but the Turkish commander demanded that his troops be allowed to march out with their arms and with all the honor of war and the negotiations fell through. The civil governor is said to have committed suicide. The Greek newspapers, in discussing the proposed armistice, say it can only be accepted on condition that the Turkish throne be transferred to Asia Minor and that reforms for the benefit of the Christian population there must be introduced.

WYOMING CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 6.—Figures at 11:30 a. m. indicate Warren (rep) for the senate has thirty-five and Kendrick (dem.) thirty-four members of the legislature. MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram)—I. S. Ryan, a brakeman on the Milwaukee, was killed at Sexton last night. He was run over by an engine. He was 19 years old and in the employ of the company but six weeks. He lived here.

WISCONSIN MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6.—Latest figures for Milwaukee county complete and 92 precincts outside, give Karel, democrat, for governor, 96,679, and McGovern, republican, 87,782, showing Karel's plurality to be 12,897, with about half the state yet to be heard from. Thomas Konop, democrat, Eighth congressional district, appears to have been Karel's victory over Morse. The race for congress in the sixth district between James H. Davidson, republican, and M. K. Kelly, democrat, is close, both claiming election. Chairman Scott says Kelly probably is elected. Scattering returns on the woman's suffrage amendment shows that the proposition was overwhelmingly defeated in Wisconsin. Cold Cause Headache and Grip. LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE removes the cause. Three counties yet to hear from claimed by both sides. Republicans claim 1,000 majority on head of ticket. SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Young Man Killed. MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram)—I. S. Ryan, a brakeman on the Milwaukee, was killed at Sexton last night. He was run over by an engine. He was 19 years old and in the employ of the company but six weeks. He lived here.

WILSON-MARSHALL SLATE HAS NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED VOTES (Continued from Page One.) Legislators which is to select two senators; in Colorado, where two senators are to be chosen, the democrats are in apparent control; and in other states later returns may show a shift of the legislative power from republican to democratic hands. Governor Wilson not only carried his own state, New Jersey, by a large majority, but he carried also the states of his opponents, the state of his own running mate, Indiana, and the state of Colonel Roosevelt's running mate, California. Control of the legislature in New Jersey assures to the democrats the choice of Governor Wilson's successor in the gubernatorial chair; and the choice of William Hughes as senator to succeed Senator Briggs, republican. Taft Makes Humorous Remark About Ride Down the Avenue CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 6.—Even in the moments when it became apparent that the country President Taft did not forget his philosophy and good humor. Here is a story of how the president looked at the situation at that time, told by a friend today: "We've got to find some comfort in this," the president is reported to have said. "I'll be very glad to ride down Pennsylvania avenue with Governor Wilson. It wouldn't have been so easy if things had been different, but I would have taken the ride just the same." The president was up early today. He took breakfast at the home of his brother and shortly before 9 o'clock started for the Cincinnati Country club to play golf. He had intended to play yesterday, but the weather interfered, and with election returns out of the way today's game was arranged.

WASHINGTON SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—Roosevelt has carried Washington by probably 30,000 plurality over Wilson. The progressive state chairman claims 45,000. The democratic chairman concedes 20,000. Roosevelt has carried with him to victory the two progressive candidates for congressmen-at-large, J. A. Falconer and J. W. Bryan. One hundred and twenty-six precincts out of 1,905 in the state give: Roosevelt, 10,145; Wilson, 6,895; Taft, 5,574. For governor fifty-five precincts give: Lister (dem.), 1,897; Hodges (pro.), 1,893; Hay (rep.), 1,883. SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Progressive State Chairman Snyder, with returns from more than seventy-five precincts and reports from the county chairmen of the big progressive counties, says Roosevelt's plurality in Washington will be 45,000, and that the immense Roosevelt vote has carried to victory the whole state ticket and two congressmen-at-large. Seventy-six of 1,905 precincts in the state give Roosevelt, 5,983; Wilson, 3,795; Taft, 3,022. For governor twenty-two precincts give Hay (rep.), 1,930; Hodge (pro.), 1,075; Lister (dem.), 1,094. ILLINOIS CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—With 1,224 precincts in Illinois to hear from Roosevelt led Wilson by 14,015 votes. The plurality of 25,477 given Roosevelt in Cook county probably has carried the state for him, but if the subsequent returns from the
