MAY DENY REQUISITION

Governor Aldrich May Not Turn Willard Over to Sheriff.

EXECUTIVE STAYS IN LINCOLN

Decides Definitely that He Will Enforce in Practice of Law in Capital City—Lawmakers Selecting Seats for Winter.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Governor Aldrich late today took under advisement until Saturday the requisition request of the governor of Michigan for the return of C. W. Willard, said to be wanted in that state on a charge of withholding money he had collected for several principals.

One of the features of the case on which the governor will base his denial of the extradition, if such is his action, is that the Michigan governor's requisition sets out that Willard is wanted in Lenox county and that the alleged crime was committed in Van Buren county.

Willard was arrested in Lincoln recently, when several of his collection agency clients alleged that he was not turning over to them money which he had collected as their agent. Willard was proprietor of the "New Departure" collection agency.

Following the arrest, Sheriff Hayne of Van Buren county arrived in Lincoln with the papers and the hearing was held yesterday afternoon. Willard's attorneys claimed that under his contract with the Michigan principal he is not liable for returning the money until next February.

Aldrich stays in Lincoln. Governor Aldrich has decided to establish a legal residence and make his home in Lincoln after the inauguration of Governor-elect Morehead next January. The governor has given it out that he will leave David City and enter the practice of law in the capital city.

Nebraska officeholders of the appointive brand are grooming themselves for the rush for jobs.

Solons Seek Seats. Newly elected solons of the state of Nebraska are engaged in a scramble for desirable seats in the senate chamber in representative hall and Secretary of State Wait is flooded with letters, verbal requests, and applications of friends on behalf of the new legislators.

Mr. Wait is reserving seats as fast as they are applied for without regard for party affiliation and he is assigning to each legislator-elect the particular desk each wants as far as is in his power.

The following members of the new senate has been assigned seats Friday afternoon: Jacob Klein, Beatrice, No. 13; H. H. Bartling, Nebraska City, No. 15; E. K. Bushlee, Kimball, No. 14; J. Cox, York, No. 14.

In the house of representatives the following assignments have been made: Earl Mallory, Alliance, No. 27; W. N. Stebbins, Gothenburg, No. 28; C. Fallon, Beatrice, No. 40; G. W. Botts, Du Bois, No. 21; D. S. Hardin, Alma, No. 22; C. R. Keithley, York, No. 27; F. A. Reiter, Syracuse, No. 42; G. W. Tilden, Hazard, No. 47; J. W. Norton, Polk, No. 55; F. E. Sterns, Scotts Bluff, No. 64.

Abolishing Assessor. Attorney General Martin today informed the county clerks of Keith, Webster and Nuckolls counties, that in his opinion, a majority of all votes cast at the election is necessary to carry a county assessor office abolition measure.

County clerks of these three counties were of the opinion that if the vote for abolition was greater than the vote against, that the abolition program would carry. Mr. Martin says that several supreme court decisions not bearing directly, but along the same line have been that in order to carry the proposition must have an affirmative vote greater than half of the votes cast at the election.

State Prison Roll. The Nebraska penitentiary roll passed the 6,000 mark today, when three new prisoners brought the total number of men who have been confined since the prison was built up to 6,002. At this time there are 400 prisoners at the state prison.

Governor's Defeat. Taft republicans at the state house offices were interviewed Friday in connection with the statement included in Governor Aldrich's explanation of his defeat, that the desertion of Taft supporters was responsible for his failure to carry the state.

Every official of the Taft brand seen smiled broadly when shown the governor's statement, but refused to deny or to affirm it. It is known that nearly every republican in the state house, including some of the few who joined the bull moose in spirit as well as letter, really portrayed in the general knifing of the governor by the Taft supporters in Lancaster county.

Potts for Speaker. G. W. Potts of DuBois, confessed candidate for the legislature at the election Tuesday, was in Lincoln Friday and announced his candidacy for speaker of the house of representatives.

Beatrice Patriots Anxious for Office. BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Already a number of Beatrice residents are slying their castors into the ring for the postmastership since Wilson was elected president. Among those mentioned are James Lawrence, O. P. Fulton, E. P. Mumford, P. E. Wheeler, E. Marvin and W. C. Brooks. All of these men have been prominently identified with the democratic party in Gage county for a number of years.

Richard Lowe, a resident of Beatrice since 1871, died last evening at his home in this city. He served during the civil war as a member of the Eighth Ohio Infantry and was 73 years of age. He is survived by a widow and two sons, George and Frank Lowe of this city.

Aldrich Will Not Call Special Meeting of the Legislature

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Following a conference with Governor Aldrich this morning it was indicated that the attempts of the insurgent Woodman of America had not yet proved successful in inducing the governor to call a special session of the legislature to pass reform insurance measures.

James P. Hansen of Hampton, Neb., one of the group who called on the governor, stated that Aldrich emphatically refused to call the special session on the grounds that the new legislature will be in session within sixty days. The governor, following the conference, gave out a statement in which he indicated that so far he had not determined to issue a call, but had not definitely decided against the request.

The conference today followed the meeting of insurgents last night, addressed by J. L. Sandson, in which 429 members participated. The governor told the insurgents that a court would afford relief by an injunction suit until the legislature had convened.

QUALITY

A much used, much abused word. No word is so freely used by clothing advertisers and none so thoroughly abused. That word and the word "Values" have been used most unscrupulously. The latter word, being more suggestive, was formerly so freely used that its latter day significance is utterly nil. The word "quality" has more meaning, hence—lots of advertisers use it recklessly—without thought of its application to their needs. When used to describe clothing it means excellence in the garment, fabric, lining, trimming, making that will stand the test of comparison and the strain of hard usage. Inferiority is the opposite of quality. Some merchants make fat profits on "inferiority" which they advertise as "quality."

Half-Minute Store Talk

Looks and price, the two most deceptive things in the world, are what guide most men in their clothes buying. Thousands of miserably poor suits, made to look good in the store, are sold every year to unformed men. The price at which they are sold seems very reasonable. But it is what a suit is, not what it appears to be, that determines its value. This store is universally known as the quality store of the town. Its clothing is as good as it looks and the reasonableness of its prices becomes more apparent with each additional day's wear of one of the garments it sells.

Only Quality Clothing Sold Here

When you buy a King-Swanson suit or overcoat you get a quality garment, without question. You take no chances with shoddy fabrics or sweat shop tailoring in this store. The fabrics that enter into our clothing are the best that the foremost American and European mills produce. The tailors who make the garments are the most proficient that money can procure. They work in the finest equipped, most sanitary buildings that skilled architects can design. Our buyers work according to a quality standard and they bear a hard-to-please reputation in the markets. Our garments are sold in a store whose very atmosphere is toned up to a quality standard. Yet, withal, no man is of too humble position in life—and no man's allowance for clothes is too small, to entitle him to the best and most courteous treatment that twelve gentlemanly clothing salesmen can give him. Quality clothes are as easy to buy as inferior clothes, if you know where to get them. Our time is yours, use it.

Quality Suits for Fall

There is something indescribably attractive about a storeful of quality suits. It makes a fellow glad he came and makes him sorry he didn't come before. These suits fit perfectly and are worthy of your fullest confidence. They are not to be compared with ordinary clothes. They match up to a high class made-to-measure standard.
