

Throw Away the Washboard.

YOU WON'T NEED it any more, for here is a household tool that makes rubbing clothes unnecessary. It is the Vacuum Washer which goes in your wash boiler and pumps five gallons of sudsy, boiling water every minute through and over the clothes. In twenty minutes they come out snowy clean—without any back-breaking rubbing at all.

Every housekeeper who sees one of these wonderful Washers work is anxious to have one at once. Half the women who try the Washer will not rest until their friends also have the advantage of its work-saving.

Come and see it demonstrated. Price is $2.50.

BRANDEIS STORES

Develop Your Bust

In 15 Days

A Full Firm Bust is Worth More to a Woman Than Beauty

Develop Bust New Way

I don't care how thin you are, how old you are, how you have fallen and flaccid and the lines of your figure or how flat your chest is, I can give you a full, firm, youthful bust quickly, that will be the envy of your fellow-women and will give you the allurements of a perfect womanhood that will be irresistible.

There will be a meeting of the directory of the Omaha Women's club in their rooms at 1:30 Monday afternoon.

Frederick Ames Stiff, associate professor of English language and literature, University of Nebraska, will give his next lecture at Unity church Friday evening, November 22. Subject, "Bret Harte, Is It Worth While to Know Him?"

There will be a regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union federation Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the assembly room of the Young Women's Christian association.

The Wyche Story Teller's league will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Holyoke, 383 Farnam street, Thursday afternoon. Japanese stories will be told by Miss Grace Lennon Conklin, Miss Ida Crowell, Miss Margaret Gibbs and Miss Calista Reynolds.

The West Omaha Mothers' Culture club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. B. Dietrick, 124 South Thirtieth street, Friday, November 22, at 2 o'clock. The lesson for the afternoon will be Bible stories for children. First on the program will be a love song, "Messiah and Story," by the club. Paper, "What Everyone Loses by Not Being Familiar with Bible Stories," Mrs. P. T. Barber. Paper, "How to Use the Bible with the Children," Mrs. R. C. Dozier. General discussions follow these papers by the club. Mrs. C. D. Hutchinson will speak of children's interest in the Bible and Mrs. L. C. Hutchinson will read a little sketch written by Theodor Roosevelt, "What Not to Do." Mrs. W. D. Carmichael will tell a story from the Old Testament, followed by one from the New Testament by Mrs. J. A. Hamilton. These stories to be selected. Mrs. Blaine Truedell will give a piano solo.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dale, No. 15 Majestic apartments, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Dale will give a short illustrated talk on the Schubert songs and Mrs. G. E. Biggerow will read a paper on literature for children. There will be a general discussion of the subjects on the program.

The November meeting of the Women's Club of Railway Mail Services will be held at the home of Mrs. G. G. Whitmore, 4102 North Twenty-first street, at 10 o'clock. The day will be spent sewing for the Child Saving Institute. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, which will be followed by a business meeting at 2 o'clock. The roll call will be responded to by ghost stories. The first dance of the season will be given at the Home hotel Friday evening, November 22.

The Educational and Health departments of the Omaha Women's club will have charge of the program which will

Members of the P. E. O. society will give an evening party at the home of Mrs. George B. Darr, Thursday evening when the guests will be the B. I. L. society. Mrs. Darr will be assisted by Mrs. Bertha Lehnhoff, Mrs. J. A. Bryans, Mrs. H. B. Cameron, Mrs. F. C. Newcomb, Mrs. D. W. McVey, Mrs. Minnie Lannhoff and Mrs. Thomas H. Matters.

Preparation is being made for the state suffrage convention, which will be held here the first week in December. Every effort is being made to make it one of the most successful affairs of its kind. The program as at present outlined, incomplete and subject to change, is as follows:

Wednesday, December 4-10 a. m., executive meeting; 2 p. m., address of welcome, greetings from other organizations, president's address, conference of publicity, with Mrs. J. L. Claffin, University Place, leader; 4 p. m., reception and "Votes for Women" play at Orpheum; 8 p. m., addresses by leading suffragettes.

Thursday, December 5-9:30 a. m., call to order by president; appointment of committees; reports of officers; reports of clubs; 11 a. m., conference on suffrage literature, Dr. Emma Demaree, Rock, leader; 2:30 p. m., "What the Nebraska Suffrage Association and the Local Suffrage Clubs Have Accomplished," Miss Mary H. Williams, Kenesaw; "Glimpses of English Suffragettes and Suffragettes," Miss Helen Gregory, Lincoln; "The New York Parade of May 1912," Mrs. J. L. Claffin, University Place; "L. L. Lock, Lincoln; B. Frank Harrison, Lincoln, leader; 8 p. m., speakers from out of state.

Friday, December 6-9:30 a. m., election of officers; reading of resolutions, action on minutes, adjournment.

There will be a special meeting of the Omaha Political Equality league in the city council chamber at the city hall Thursday evening, November 21, at 8 o'clock. Delegates will be elected to the state suffrage convention, which will be held in the city the first week in December. It will be an important meeting and it is earnestly desired that all members will be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Department club was held at the Young Men's Christian association club rooms Monday afternoon. The tourist department gave the program, but several musical numbers were given before the presentation of the papers. Miss Reed and Mrs. Boslaugh gave a piano selection and Meedames Pitts and Sandall sang together. Miss Clara Graham sang. Mrs. W. L. Thorne told of travel scenes in North-west America and in Canada. Mrs. Bonkemper read a clever imaginary letter describing a visit to the West Indies. Mrs. A. M. White's subject was "Through Cuba on Horseback." Mrs. Robert Armstrong talked of the experiences incident to the trip through California by automobile, taken last winter with her husband and son, and the homeward journey to Nebraska. As a representative of the civics department Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick talked on "Municipal Art."

Mrs. Leonard Everett of Council Bluffs will be the leader next Thursday morning at the regular meeting of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, the topic being "Classical or Italian Influence." Under this heading examples will be shown of the works of Charles Cary, Coleman and Ellhu Vedder, including a number of the latter's illustrations of the Rubaiyat. On December 5 Mrs. Lowrie Childs discusses the Hudson River and White mountain school.

Wednesday, November 20, will be the annual donation day at the Old People's home. The board of directors will be at the home all day to receive the donations which are sent in by the public. In the afternoon there will be tea from 3 until 5 for the friends.

Mrs. W. W. Johnson will be hostess at the meeting of the Dundee Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, Miss Silver will be the leader and "Anna Karenina," by Count Tolstoy, will be the subject of the meeting.

Diagnoseful Conduct of liver and bowels, in refusing to act, is quickly remedied with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Easy, safe, sure. 50c. For sale by Rex on Drug Co.—Advertisement.

What Women Are Doing in the World

PROMINENT women in club circles in the city is Mrs. John J. Stubbs, who was elected president of the Omaha Needlework Guild, which held its annual meeting Thursday morning at Jacob's Hall. Mrs. Stubbs has taken an active interest in all club affairs and has been an untiring worker.

The Needlework Guild is one of the societies in the city which does a great deal for the poor of Omaha and each year at the annual meeting two garments are brought by every member for distribution among the poor. Nearly four thousand garments this year were given by the members to be sent to the different charities of the city which profit by the work of these women. Mrs. Stubbs has been a member of the Guild for many years and she is most deserving of the honor which the members have bestowed upon her.

The Dorcas club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. M. Woodard, 2245 Manderson street, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The Oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the studio of Miss Lillian Fitch, who is the leader of the department.

Under the auspices of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union, Mr. John B. Hammond of the National Purity association will speak this evening at the Central United Presbyterian church, at 8 o'clock. Invitations are extended to every one, especially the ladies.

The literature department of the Omaha Women's club will meet Wednesday morning at the club rooms at 10 o'clock. Mrs. W. P. Heller will be leader for the day and will read a paper on the French drama. Mrs. Henry McDonald will give a short biography of Racine and Mrs. A. D. Touraine will read a review of Racine's play, "Thadras." Mrs. Frank Johnson will give a biography of Corneille and Mrs. A. D. Bradley will read a review of "The Cid," by Corneille.

Members of the P. E. O. society will give an evening party at the home of Mrs. George B. Darr, Thursday evening when the guests will be the B. I. L. society. Mrs. Darr will be assisted by Mrs. Bertha Lehnhoff, Mrs. J. A. Bryans, Mrs. H. B. Cameron, Mrs. F. C. Newcomb, Mrs. D. W. McVey, Mrs. Minnie Lannhoff and Mrs. Thomas H. Matters.

Preparation is being made for the state suffrage convention, which will be held here the first week in December. Every effort is being made to make it one of the most successful affairs of its kind. The program as at present outlined, incomplete and subject to change, is as follows:

Wednesday, December 4-10 a. m., executive meeting; 2 p. m., address of welcome, greetings from other organizations, president's address, conference of publicity, with Mrs. J. L. Claffin, University Place, leader; 4 p. m., reception and "Votes for Women" play at Orpheum; 8 p. m., addresses by leading suffragettes.

Thursday, December 5-9:30 a. m., call to order by president; appointment of committees; reports of officers; reports of clubs; 11 a. m., conference on suffrage literature, Dr. Emma Demaree, Rock, leader; 2:30 p. m., "What the Nebraska Suffrage Association and the Local Suffrage Clubs Have Accomplished," Miss Mary H. Williams, Kenesaw; "Glimpses of English Suffragettes and Suffragettes," Miss Helen Gregory, Lincoln; "The New York Parade of May 1912," Mrs. J. L. Claffin, University Place; "L. L. Lock, Lincoln; B. Frank Harrison, Lincoln, leader; 8 p. m., speakers from out of state.

Friday, December 6-9:30 a. m., election of officers; reading of resolutions, action on minutes, adjournment.

There will be a meeting of the directory of the Omaha Women's club in their rooms at 1:30 Monday afternoon.

Frederick Ames Stiff, associate professor of English language and literature, University of Nebraska, will give his next lecture at Unity church Friday evening, November 22. Subject, "Bret Harte, Is It Worth While to Know Him?"

There will be a regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union federation Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the assembly room of the Young Women's Christian association.

The Wyche Story Teller's league will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Holyoke, 383 Farnam street, Thursday afternoon. Japanese stories will be told by Miss Grace Lennon Conklin, Miss Ida Crowell, Miss Margaret Gibbs and Miss Calista Reynolds.

The West Omaha Mothers' Culture club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. B. Dietrick, 124 South Thirtieth street, Friday, November 22, at 2 o'clock. The lesson for the afternoon will be Bible stories for children. First on the program will be a love song, "Messiah and Story," by the club. Paper, "What Everyone Loses by Not Being Familiar with Bible Stories," Mrs. P. T. Barber. Paper, "How to Use the Bible with the Children," Mrs. R. C. Dozier. General discussions follow these papers by the club. Mrs. C. D. Hutchinson will speak of children's interest in the Bible and Mrs. L. C. Hutchinson will read a little sketch written by Theodor Roosevelt, "What Not to Do." Mrs. W. D. Carmichael will tell a story from the Old Testament, followed by one from the New Testament by Mrs. J. A. Hamilton. These stories to be selected. Mrs. Blaine Truedell will give a piano solo.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dale, No. 15 Majestic apartments, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Dale will give a short illustrated talk on the Schubert songs and Mrs. G. E. Biggerow will read a paper on literature for children. There will be a general discussion of the subjects on the program.

The November meeting of the Women's Club of Railway Mail Services will be held at the home of Mrs. G. G. Whitmore, 4102 North Twenty-first street, at 10 o'clock. The day will be spent sewing for the Child Saving Institute. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, which will be followed by a business meeting at 2 o'clock. The roll call will be responded to by ghost stories. The first dance of the season will be given at the Home hotel Friday evening, November 22.

The Educational and Health departments of the Omaha Women's club will have charge of the program which will

Visiting Miss Elizabeth Davis

MISS MARTHA McCULLOCH.

NEW PRESIDENT OF THE OMAHA NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

Mrs. J. J. Stubbs

be given at the open meeting Thursday afternoon at the club rooms. Mrs. Edward Johnson, who is chairman of the committee on education, and Mrs. Charles Rosewater, chairman of the health committee, will have charge of the meeting. John B. Hammond of Des Moines, who is a worker of reputation in the national Purity society, will address the women on the subject of "Woman's Duty and Rights Under the Alberts Law." Thomas Matters, Jr., will give a vocal solo and will be accompanied by his sister, Miss Matters.

There will be a special meeting of the Omaha Political Equality league in the city council chamber at the city hall Thursday evening, November 21, at 8 o'clock. Delegates will be elected to the state suffrage convention, which will be held in the city the first week in December. It will be an important meeting and it is earnestly desired that all members will be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Department club was held at the Young Men's Christian association club rooms Monday afternoon. The tourist department gave the program, but several musical numbers were given before the presentation of the papers. Miss Reed and Mrs. Boslaugh gave a piano selection and Meedames Pitts and Sandall sang together. Miss Clara Graham sang. Mrs. W. L. Thorne told of travel scenes in North-west America and in Canada. Mrs. Bonkemper read a clever imaginary letter describing a visit to the West Indies. Mrs. A. M. White's subject was "Through Cuba on Horseback." Mrs. Robert Armstrong talked of the experiences incident to the trip through California by automobile, taken last winter with her husband and son, and the homeward journey to Nebraska. As a representative of the civics department Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick talked on "Municipal Art."

Mrs. Leonard Everett of Council Bluffs will be the leader next Thursday morning at the regular meeting of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, the topic being "Classical or Italian Influence." Under this heading examples will be shown of the works of Charles Cary, Coleman and Ellhu Vedder, including a number of the latter's illustrations of the Rubaiyat. On December 5 Mrs. Lowrie Childs discusses the Hudson River and White mountain school.

Wednesday, November 20, will be the annual donation day at the Old People's home. The board of directors will be at the home all day to receive the donations which are sent in by the public. In the afternoon there will be tea from 3 until 5 for the friends.

Mrs. W. W. Johnson will be hostess at the meeting of the Dundee Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, Miss Silver will be the leader and "Anna Karenina," by Count Tolstoy, will be the subject of the meeting.

Diagnoseful Conduct of liver and bowels, in refusing to act, is quickly remedied with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Easy, safe, sure. 50c. For sale by Rex on Drug Co.—Advertisement.

GUESTS ENLIVENING SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

Nielsen, Chr. Pedersen, C. Kjedgaard, H. Knudsen, C. Clausen, C. Sorensen, J. Christensen, A. Brostrup, B. Basset, J. Thiesen, O. C. Olsen. Miss Olsen has been here on a visit with her brother, O. C. Olsen. She leaves Thursday of this week for a visit to the eastern cities and sails from New York for Denmark December 2.

Linen Shower. Mrs. John Davies gave a linen shower at her home, 2823 North Twenty-seventh street, Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Helen Giesen, whose marriage to Prof. Joseph Stump takes place in December. Those present were:

- Misses—Margaret Brown, Minnie Giesen, Ene Nestlebusch, Calara Giesen, Lottie Gehrig, Alice Harrison, Lodiola Gaborne, Medames—Ben Billings, John Davies, H. Rudke, S. O'Donnell, C. Ackerman, H. Castleton, Edwin Davies, A. Glesen.

For Mrs. Powell. Mrs. Howard Farrell gave a kensington Thursday afternoon at her home for Mrs. Earl Powell of Chicago, who is her guest. Those present were:

- Medames—Earl Powell, Howard Farrell, Van B. Lady, A. P. Farrell.

Misses—Florence Liver, Helen Hart, Ann Robertson, Ruth Byrne, Irene Farrell, Nell Enckell.

Wedding Invitations Received. Invitations have been received in Omaha for the wedding of Mr. Otis Woolworth Howard to Miss Ruth Louise Thomas of Moline, Ill. The wedding will take place December 4, and the young people will make their home in Moline where Mr. Howard is associated with the Deere Plow company. Mr. Howard is a grandson of the late Judge and Mrs. Woolworth and nephew of Mrs. E. M. Fairfield.

Larve Afternoon Tea. Mrs. G. W. Megeath has issued cards for a tea on Tuesday, November 26, in honor of her mother, Mrs. James Freeman, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Windsor Megeath of Kansas City.

Mrs. Borglum's Tea. Madame Borglum gave a tea Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6, at her home when she was assisted by Mrs. Darlow Mrs. Leonard Everett and Miss Dodge of Council Bluffs; Mrs. Offut, Mrs. E. H.

Clearing Sale of Linoleums

Big Values; Small Prices

THIS is the grand opportunity for Omaha housewives who want linoleum to prepare their homes for the holidays. We are going to sell imported and domestic linoleums at big price reductions. The sale starts Monday morning—and will not last long, we assure you, because the values are so great that everyone who sees them will buy at once. Inspect some of the values in our south window—they really are wonderful; this is not simply talk. We have the goods to back us up in this sale. If you want in on it, Come Early. Here are some of the big values:

INLAID LINOLEUMS

- $1.85 Imported inlaid linoleum (extra fine quality) per square yard $1.50
- $1.65 best Domestic inlaid linoleums, per square yard. $1.25
- The same qualities in smaller quantities—enough for a room, per square yard. 90c, 85c and 75c

PRINTED LINOLEUMS

- 65c Printed linoleums; 6 ft. wide; per square yard. 35c
- 75c Printed linoleums; 6 ft. wide; per square yard. 49c
- 85c Printed linoleums; 6 and 12 ft. wide, per square yard. 59c

Splendid Oriental Rug Display on Second Floor

Miller, Stewart & Beaton

415-17 South Sixteenth Street

NEW PIANOS $187.50

These pianos are positively made of better material, better finished and cost more money to make than pianos sold by others for $250 and $275. Figure out the amount you save.

It will cost you nothing to investigate this statement and we want to prove it to you.

We have them in genuine mahogany, quarter sawed oak and curly walnut cases.

Full size, 4 ft. 8 in. high, newest design, with empire top, copper wound bass strings, bushed tuning pins, double repeating action and backed with a TWENTY-FIVE YEAR GUARANTEE by both the factory and the A. Hospe Company. These pianos are not an unknown make but have been sold by us for many years. Come in and let us explain our one year free trial. Stool, scarf and free delivery.

TERMS $5.00 CASH. $1.25 PER WEEK.

Western Representatives for the Mason & Hamlin, Kranich & Bach, Kraksauer, Kimball, Bush & Lane-Cable - Nelson and other leading makes. A. HOSPE CO. OMAHA, NEBR. 1513-1515 Douglas Street

Furs! Reliable Furs at Moderate Prices

This is the Largest Stock of Fine Furs Ever Shown in Omaha. All the Product of Our Own Factory.

Muffs and Scarfs in every grade from $5 to $375 for Matched Sets

Ladies' Genuine Russian Pony Coats, special, $35.00. This is the usual $50.00 quality.

G. E. SHUKERT

1401-03 South 15th Street

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER

is the Leading Agricultural Journal of the west. Its columns are filled with the best thought of the day in matters pertaining to the farm, the ranch and the orchard, and it is a factor in the development of the great western country.

Omaha's Only Feather Expert

There's only ONE person in Omaha who knows ALL about the nature and characteristics of plumes and feathers and that person is in our employ. We clean feathers dye 'em; re-curl 'em; re-make Ostrich plumes and old plumes into Willow Plumes.

Birds of Paradise; Arigtoes; Coque Feathers; anything and everything in the feather line, will be handled correctly here. And mind you we use NO gasoline in feather cleaning; our process is a far daintier and surer one.

Just call up Tyler 345 and ask for our "Feather Expert"—find out just what may be done for you and just how much it will cost. (Write for list if you live out of town.)

Dresher Bros. 2211-2213 Farnam Street.