American Prices Too High as Compared with Foreign Marts.

CORN INCREASE IS EXPECTED

Reduction in Premiums for Cash Corn is Expected if Weather is Favorable Toward Dislodging Country Roldings.

OMAHA, Nov. 16, 1912. OMAHA, Nov. 16, 1912.

It may be said that our wheat prices are still too high when those in other countries are considered. The United States has a large export surplus and if stands to reason that some of our wheat must be sold, even if we are obliged to shad, argenting, Russia and other exporting countries. Northwestern receipts are nearly three times larger than a year ago and in addition to this comes the news nearly three times larger than a year ago and in addition to this comes the news from Minneapolis that a number of the mills are going to close down next week. An advance in lake freights is aiways seen November I and the shipments of flour have been large because of this fact. Export business has been entirely neglected this last week. Wheat prices have been on a down grade for five continuous days and with one exception for eight days, and are off 5 cents since October 14. There has been an irregular break for thirty days, which is far above the average. Some traders figure that six to seven days has been the average break of recent years. When they run over nine days they have been known to run sixteen, and when after extending beyond the latter, may run even thirty corn bears figure that if the cold weather should continue new corn receipts will be greatly increased after this week, and they expect a reduction in premiums for cash corn over the December option. Prices are off from 5 to 6 cents in the last thirty days. The bears cents in the last thirty days. The bears figure that the May option will eventually drop to & cents a bushel. Pit traders may that most of the buying by commission houses has been to take profits and there has been an enormous reduction in the short interest in the last few days, and especially on yesterday's break, as the short traders took their profits and are now waiting for something to rally the market. Cash corn was 1820 lower.

Outs are off from 1 to 3½ cents in the last thirty days. The fact that the sample outs keep at such a premulm over the December option leaves no profit in making contract grades. Cash outs were 1 to 2c lower.

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Wheat headed downward again today, although the market has been on a decline for nearly three weeks. Rapidly increasing supplies and no adequate demand allowed the bears to remain in control. The close was weak, %c to %c under last night. Corn finished he to %fride lower, onto varying from a shade off to a like amount up, and provisions unchanged to an advance of 30c.

Except for an unfounded report that Balkan peace negotiations had been broken off, bulls in wheat found no encouragement of even a temporary sort. Argentine weather was favorable, nothwestern carlot receipts for the week nearly double those of a year ago, and Chicago receipts for the week 1,100.00 bushels in excess of the shipments. December ranged from $5% to $5% with last sales $5% $5% $6.

Ideal weather conditions brought the corn market to the lowest of the year. December fluctuated between $7.947% c. and $7% $7% $0.

Outs developed comparative strength. December, which sold from 25% to 35% c. closed a shade net higher at 30% $7.05% c. Outs developed comparative strength. December, which sold from 25% to 35% c. closed a shade net higher at 30% $7.05% c. Provisions ruled firmer owing to a large shrinkage in the amount of lard on hand here and because of the diminished producing cuality of hogs. At the end of the day lard had risen for the between by 15% to 15% c. by 194e to 15c.

Sharp Rebound in Final Hour Brings Recovery of Prices.

HEAVY TONE IN EARLY HOURS No Indications Appear that Governo Wilson's Announcement of Extra Session Causes Deepseated

Unenstness, NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A heavy tone prevalled during most of today's tradition in stocks, and prices ranged well below yesterday's close. In the last half hour there was a sharp rebound which brought full recovery, and in some cases resulted in net gains. The early heaviness was attributed to the announcement by President-elect Wilson that he would call a special session of congress in the spring at which revision of the tariff is to be undertaken.

at which revision of the tariff is to be undertaken.

In spite of the comparatively heavy pressure of the first hour, there were no indications that Governor Wilson's announcement had caused any deep-scated uneasiness in Wall street. That the movement was merely a speculative one was indicated by the ease with which prices recovered before the close Trading in the last hour was more vigorous than it has been for several days and the number of shares handled during the two-hour session considerably exceeded the total in the five hours of trading yesterday.

London Stock Market.

London, Nov. 16.—The satisfactory trend of events in the near east, the negotiations for peace and the belief that the powers intend to work harmoniously have done much to restore confidence on the stock exchange and the markets alwanced steadily throughout the week, with only temporary sethacks through profit-taking, which had the effect of making the undertone healthier than for some time past.

Glit-edge securities were the strongest section, indicating returning confidence of invisions as well as large financial institutions, consols rising as much as Papoints on the week and closing only hooint below the best. This remarkable improvement was partly due to the check the government received when the financial amendment to the home rule bill was drafted, but the chief reasons, or the rise are found in the improved European situation and governmentel and insurance house buying, which caused general bear covering. general bear covering: Tremury Statement.

beef steers, $5.506.5; common to fair beef steers, $5.506.5; HOGS—Not only was the relatively high position of the local trade in hogs fully maintained this morning, but prices on the South Omaha market were pushed up still higher than at Chicago and all other Missouri river markets. The packers were the chief factors in the opening trade, but just as soon as the speculators saw how the packers in the opening trade, but just as soon as the speculators saw how the packers were buying they jumped in and secured quite a few hogs, all of a nickel higher than the way the same kind of hogs sold the day previous. If anything the marbinits, a second from the opening until near bloom. The general market may be regarded as anywhere from steady to a nickel higher, with the majority of the offerings selling gust, at a range of $7.90 to $5.00. Several loads of the best hogs sold as high as $5.00, the highest price for the day, and just a nickel below the high mark reached yesterday. As on yesterday, a liberal run was disposed of in whirlwind fashion, practically everything being grabbed up by $130 o'clock. Today's receipts were almost twice as large as last Saturday and more than twice as large as two weeks ago. The supply was about the same as a year ago.

For the week the receipts show an excessive gain over last week and two

For the week the receipts show an excessive gain over last week and two weeks ago and are about 4.073 head greater than during the same week last year. This week's trade has distinguished itself by putting South Omaha more plainly on the map. The market was agreeably remarkable and unusual because of the fact that on some days while local prices were going higher values at Chicago and other points were descending. As previously mentioned, the local trade is now better and higher than at any other live stock center in the middle west.

Frices at the close of the week are around 15670c higher than week ago, the bulk of hogs last Saturday selling at $1.7057780, as compared with $1.9058.00 today. Top a week ago was $1.80, while several loads of hogs reached as high as $5.00 on today's market.

Seyeral loads that came in late over the Milwaukee had to sell with all of the early advance lost. On the arrival of this belated train some of the packer buyers had left the yards and those who were still around the pens apparently had about all the hogs they wanted.
