Auditing Company Employed to Go Over City Books.

NEW SYSTEM MAY BE ADOPTED

Sergeant Halot of Fort Crook Military Band Assailed by Undesired Assistant, Who Makes Escape.

At a committee meeting of the city council held Saturday evening it was determined to retain the United States Auditing Company to go over the city books for the last year. The decision comes at the end of a long consideration of the needs of the city bookkeeping department, which it is admitted is antiquated and unsatisfactory. Besides the annual audit system of the books the auditing company will provide a new and modern system of bookkeeping, leaving the council an option to accept or reject the new system. The cost of the auditing will be $50, with an additional $100 if a new system is adopted by the city. The measure will pass the council this evening.

The installation of a new system of bookkeeping in the city offices has been urged by City Attorney Henry Murphy and Councilman John Walters for more than a year. Since last election Councilman Jay Williams has also urged the adoption of the measure, and Mayor Hicor, it is understood, has declared himself frankly in favor of the change. At Saturday evening's meeting the council went into the matter of the auditing carefully. It is understood that there is a movement on foot among the city fathers to provide a system of bookkeeping that will prove an adequate check upon the money received in the police court. During the last year it is approximated that the police judge has paid into the city treasury something like $1,500. Council members say this is not satisfactory as compared with the number of arrests.

Barbers of State Prepare to Organize

John Light, representative of the Barbers' union at the Nebraska State Federation of Labor, is preparing to call a meeting of the barbers of the state in Omaha just before the legislature opens in Lincoln. The meeting will be for the purpose of forming a state organization of barbers with the intention of sending a representative to the legislature to work for needed legislation. The convention was originally to have been held in October, but owing to the inability to get the men together it was postponed.

Cathell Talks at All Saints

The Rev. J. Everest Cathell, D. D., formerly rector of St. Paul's church, Des Moines, Ia., preached an eloquent sermon Sunday morning in All Saints church. His chosen subject was the Sermon on the Mount and made an earnest plea for its adoption by the business interests of the country.

Rush Goes to Denver

Sylvester R. Rush, special assistant to the United States attorney general, with offices in the federal building, has been appointed to assist the district attorney at Denver in prosecuting over fifty federal cases during December and January. Mr. Rush has returned from Pueblo, where he has been securing indictments against persons for using the mail to defraud.

Change Street Names

The city commission will have an ordinance drafted changing the name of Sweetwood avenue to Twenty-fifth avenue and the name of Twenty-fifth avenue to Twenty-fifth street. The first street beyond Twenty-fourth avenue is called Twenty-fifth avenue in the city directory. Twenty-fifth and property owners are complaining that this gives rise to confusion.

WORK ON POWDER RIVER EXTENSION IS ABANDONED

The Burlington has practically abandoned all work on its Wyoming extension between Thermopolis and Powder River valley. With the exception of a small force at work on the Wind river bridge, all workmen along the line have been laid off.

On the Powder river bridge the work has progressed fairly well. A number of the piers and abutments have been completed, but nothing has been done on the superstructure. The break between the Burlington and Northwestern is said in a measure to be responsible for the cessation of this particular work.

GOES SOUTH TO INSTALL LOCAL ACCOUNTING METHODS

Ralph Shepard, expert accountant in the freight auditing department of the Union Pacific, has been sent to Houston, Tex., where in the freight auditing department of the Southern Pacific he will introduce and install the same system as is in effect in the Omaha headquarters. Mr. Shepard will be away three or four months.

AMERICAN MARINES LANDED

Detachment Sent to Protect Embassy at Constantinople.

SCHOOL FOR GIRLS IS CLOSED

Citizens of United States Offered Hospitality of British Warships if Outbreak Should Occur.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 18.—The United States station ship Scorpion has sent a detachment of marines to the American embassy. The ambassador says that this is not because he fears an outbreak, but is in the way of common action with the other embassies.

The Scorpion has moved up the Bosphorus and has taken a position opposite Ankarliu to protect the girls' school.

The United States is the only great nation without cruisers or battleships here. The Scorpion carried eighty marines. Certain ambassadors have declared that there is no danger whatever in Constantinople. All the embassies, however, are under guard tonight, but unofficial residences of foreigners are without protection. Many of these are located in the outlying districts, where, should an outbreak occur, they would be the first to be attacked. Furthermore, several of the legations are stoutly walled, while the private residences generally are not enclosed.

It is the intention of the ambassadors to avoid creating a panic and in several cases the marines have gone to the embassies only because the embassies are good centers from which they can circulate if necessary. American citizens have been offered the hospitality of the British ships should an outbreak develop.

Women Remain in Places.

Several American women at the girls' school at Scutari, Asia Minor, remain across the Bosphorus, aiding and encouraging the Turkish and other families. The Scutari school has been closed for some days and it has been proposed to reopen it because no trouble has occurred in Scutari. Sunday's battle, however, will probably put an end to that plan.

The Scorpion will take care of the American women in Scutari if any danger arises. Turkish gendarmes are at present guarding them and the legation interpreter, Charles W. Fowler, is residing at the school.

Rev. Dr. Caleb S. Gates, president of Robert college, has decided that any of the teachers and their families who wish to go aboard the British ships may do so, but the majority of the men have decided to remain in the college with the students, who are of all nationalities. Dr. Gates intends to open the college grounds, which are protected by high walls, to any Moslems or non-Moslems who seek refuge.

The American ambassador, Mr. Rockhill, has received altogether about $7,000 from the American Red Cross and private American subscriptions. The Americans are in close touch with the British Red Cross and the Red Crescent.

NORTHWESTERN ORDERS MUCH NEW EQUIPMENT

Anticipating a prosperous year, the Northwestern has just placed an order for new rolling stock to be delivered prior to the harvest of next season. The equipment consists of 4,000 box cars, 175 stock cars, 100 passenger coaches and 12 locomotives. It is understood that most of the new equipment is intended for use on the lines west of the Mississippi river.

UNION PACIFIC PAMPHLET USED IN HAWAIIAN SCHOOLS

Although not in the school book publishing business, the Union Pacific is supplying, free of cost, the public schools of the Hawaiian islands with some of their text books, particularly the "Primer of Irrigation," a 37-page publication.

The Union Pacific's book not only deals with irrigation in all countries and under all conditions of circumstances, but discusses the kinds and varieties of crops best adapted to different localities. In the agricultural departments of the Hawaiian school, the book has been adopted as a recognized authority on all subjects treated of and discussed.

Another publication of the Union Pacific that has been adopted as a text book in the colleges of the United States and abroad is the work on "Fossil Discoveries in Wyoming."

SKIN ERUPTION CAME ON CHEEK

Started in Pimples. Nearly All One Cheek Solid Sore. Very Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face All Healed In.

Kingsley, Mich.—"Last May my thirteen month old baby had a sore come on her cheek. It started in four or five small pimples and in two or three hours these spread to the size of a silver dollar. It spread to her eye. Then water would run from the pimples and wherever that touched it caused more sores until nearly all one cheek and up her nostrils were one solid sore. She was very fretful. She certainly was a terrible looking child, and nothing seemed to do her any use. Then I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. She tried to rub off everything we put on so that we would sit and hold her hands for two hours at a time, trying to give the medicine a chance to help her, but after I washed her with Cuticura Soap and then put on the Cuticura Ointment they seemed to soothe her and she did not try to rub them off. It was only a few days before her face was all healed up and there has been no return of the trouble since. We thought that baby's face would surely be scarred, but it is not." (Signed) Mrs. W. J. Cleland, Jan. 5, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

YOU CAN CURE AN OLD SORE BUT NOT WITH SALVES

Every old sore can be cured unless it be of a malignant cancerous nature. But no chronic ulcer can be cured by the application of salves or other external treatment. You must get down to the origin and cause before you can produce curative effects. Bad blood is responsible for old sores and the one certain cure therefore is a thorough purification and rebuilding of the circulation. As long as impurities are left in the blood they will be deposited into the ulcer to keep up the inflammation and irritation and nature can make no progress toward healing the place. Nothing is so sure to produce a cure of old sores as S. S. S. This is nature's perfect blood remedy, composed of the most healing and at the same time the most penetrating and blood-purifying properties. It removes every particle of morbid matter from the circulation and assists nature to increase the healthful, nutritious corpuscles of the blood. S. S. S. makes pure blood and pure blood is nature's unfailing cure for old sores. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
