SURRENDERED BY BONDSMEN

Two Alleged Dynamiters Turned Over to Court by Sentries.

HOCKIN THREATENED BUILDERS

Peoria Superintendent Says He Told Him There Would Be Something Doing if Nonunion Men Were Employed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—Edward Smythe and James E. Ray of Peoria, Ill., two of the forty-five defendants in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial, were placed in jail today because their bondsmen withdrew the security on which they had been at liberty.

At the opening of court attorneys for the bondsmen announced they would surrender the prisoners, who then were placed in the custody of the United States marshal. The reason for the withdrawal of the bonds was not given.

Smythe, who is superintendent of construction for the city of Peoria, was former secretary-treasurer of a local ironworkers union. In Orin E. McManigal's confession he frequently was mentioned as having assisted the dynamiter in causing explosions at Peoria. In September, 1910, McManigal said, Smythe helped him put cans of nitroglycerin near jobs that were blown up and then went to a theater so his might have neat checks to prove an alibi.

In letters quoted by the government Smythe was charged with writing to J. J. McNamara about a visit of Halley's comet to Peoria.

Ray, former president of a Peoria union, seldom has been mentioned since the trial began.

Testimony was given today concerning explosions at Peoria. Richard H. Johnson, superintendent of a company which constructed a bridge at Peoria, said that in 1910, Smythe, Ray and Herbert S. Hockin solicited him to put union men on the job and Hockin added: "There will be something doing if you don't."

Nonunion men were put to work, said the witness, and the first explosion occurred June 4 that year.

Three months later the plant of the constructor was blown up. It was this job that McManigal said he blew up with Smythe's aid. One can of nitroglycerin left by McManigal failed to explode. Through this clue, Johnson said, he traced the purchase of the explosive to Portland, Ind., and thus put the detectives on the trail of the dynamiter. In September, 1910, a month before the loss of life at Los Angeles and six months before any arrests were made.

The government read from the iron workers' union magazine a letter from Smythe, alleged to refer to the Peoria explosion of June 4, 1910, as follows: "I thought it about time to let the members at large know that local 112 is still on top of the earth. Halley's comet passed through here on time."

After the constructor agreed to use union men, Jesse Smith testified, Hockin said: "You may take your guards off the job. There will be no further explosions."

BALKAN ALLIES ARE READY TO NEGOTIATE TERMS OF ARMISTICE

ish armies had taken place at Tebatalla arrived here this afternoon. It consists merely of the laconic sentence: "The day before yesterday and yesterday the Bulgarian army engaged the Turks in battle on the advanced points of the Tebatalla lines with a view to preparing the ground for its further operations."

This was issued subsequently to the announcement of the appointment of plenipotentiaries to conduct peace negotiations with the Ottoman government. Whether it means that "further operations" will be proceeded with as soon as the eighth hour of the armistice agreed to for the burial of the dead expires there is nothing to show.

The silence of Sofia as to the results of the fighting is taken here to be an indication that General Savoff, the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, has discovered that the task of getting within the Turkish lines of forts and entrenchments will prove a tremendous test of the staying power of his troops. It is thought probable the Bulgarians will call on their allies to bring the forces released by the fall of Monastir to their aid at Tebatalla.

Sixty per cent of the Ottoman troops holding the lines of Tebatalla are said to be fresh battalions of Turkey's finest fighters brought from Asia Minor.

The Ottoman government is determined not to consider peace until the Balkan allies submit conditions compatible with the honor and dignity of Turkey, according to a special dispatch from Constantinople.

It is said that the Bulgarian terms suggest that Turkey retain the provinces of Adrianople and Kirk-Kiliseh and ask that the Porte agree to Bulgaria and Servia autonomizing western Macedonia and Albania and concede the port of Ledeaghat on the Aegean sea to Bulgaria and Crete and other islands to Greece.

Plenipotentiaries Appointed. SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 19.—The allied Balkan nations today assented to the Turkish proposal to discuss the terms of an armistice and eventual peace.

The reply sent to the dispatch of the grand vizier to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria says: "The Bulgarian government, after an agreement with the allied cabinets of Servia, Montenegro and Greece, informs the ports that plenipotentiaries have been appointed with instructions to arrange with the commanders-in-chief of the Turkish armies the conditions of an armistice and subsequently to proceed to the conclusion of peace."

Austrian Vessel Searched. VIENNA, Nov. 19.—Serious international incidents are reported to have occurred after the occupation of the Adriatic port of San Giovanni di Medua by the Montenegrins on Saturday, according to the correspondent of the Reichspost at Scutari.

The correspondent telegraphs that the Turkish troops evacuated San Giovanni di Medua on the arrival of a Montenegrin column, and he declares that an Austrian courier from Scutari was fired upon by the Montenegrin troops.

When the Montenegrin commander, General Martinovitch, arrived at San Giovanni di Medua on Sunday he ordered the seizure of the Austrian mailbags lying there and destined for Scutari.

The Montenegrin general then told his troops, according to the correspondent, to remove all the goods on board the Austrian Lloyd magazine vessel anchored in the port, and he had all the other Austrian craft lying there searched.

The Montenegrin royal yacht arrived in port as though to take demonstrative possession of King Nicholas.

The dispatch concludes that the Turkish troops intend to attack the Montenegrins at San Giovanni di Medua today.

ROOSEVELT AGAINST FUSION

Colonel Says He Speaks as a Man in the Ranks.

MOOSERS WILL ACT ALONE

He Advises Members Elected to State Legislatures Not to Make Deals with Either of Old Parties.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Theodore Roosevelt and Oscar S. Straus addressed a general conference of progressive state leaders in session here today. This afternoon the conference was to decide the question of fusion in elections hereafter, with particular reference to suggested fusion with anti-Tammany forces in New York.

It was Colonel Roosevelt's first speech since the election. He said: "There have been times when it was said that we were merely a boiling faction of one of the parties and would attempt to fuse again with that party. We will not. In this party organization of ours ex-democrats and ex-republicans stand alike. Both of the old parties represent the same privilege and both of them stand on the vital issues of the day shoulder to shoulder, side by side, and it is our business to show the people that they are simply deluded when they are privileged to vote under either of the old parties."

Speaks Not as Leader. Continuing Colonel Roosevelt declared that he was in the ranks as a man and not as a leader. He said that he hoped that in no legislative assembly in which the progressives had representation would there be any submission to either of the old parties if they desired to combine the men of the progressive party with their party organization.

"I hope we will make it plain to the people," he said, "that it is up to the old parties to combine against us, and our representatives in the state legislature and in congress are not going to enter into any deal of any degree for personal advantage with either of the old parties. Let them do that work.

"I further earnestly hope that in this state and in all other states the men elected state senators and assemblymen will at the earliest possible date introduce bills embodying all of the principles in our progressive platform and fight as hard as they know how to have these bills enacted into laws."

Notes from Yankton. YANKTON, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—In circuit court here before Judge Williams of Chamberlain, who is trying the case for Judge R. E. Tripp, the continued case of the state against Dr. G. D. Loffler is being heard. Dr. Loffler is on trial for alleged obtaining money under false pretenses from Senator Gamble and others in a land deal.

The sum of $100 has been expended by Yankton people on homes and business buildings since April last. The chief item is one of $25.00 for the Elk home. Most of the balance is for residences.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—W. K. Smith has been granted a separation from Lura E. Smith and given the custody of their two children, both boys. He said that he learned later that she had approved of his coming to Chicago in order to get rid of him. "I have written her to come to me and the boys," he said. "She now is a traveling saleswoman for a hair goods house. The two boys are in school and I am supporting them."

Easy Positive Method Gives Luxuriant Hair

Never use soap on the hair, the alkali produces scaly scalp, injured roots and stringy, discolored hair. You can discard all toxics and "growers" if the following treatment is persistently adhered to. This is from a hair dresser of national reputation and one trial proves its remarkable value: "Dissolve a teaspoonful of Cocoonide in a cup of hot water. Shampoo with this and rinse out well. Do this once or twice a week. That is all; absolutely nothing more. The scission becomes fine, healthy and silken. The scalp wonderfully refreshed and all dandruff disappears. But the best part is the after-effect. The scalp is healed, the hair roots are invigorated and falling hair immediately stopped. Use this treatment a few times and you will become enthusiastic and want to tell all your friends. You can get Cocoonide from any druggist. If he does not have it in stock, he will quickly get it from his wholesale house. But if you care anything about your hair, do not take any chances. Buy Cocoonide instead of taking something else. It is nothing else even similar to it. This you will agree at the first test. It is equally as beneficial for men's and children's hair.

SORE FEET, Corns, Callouses, Bunions, Frost bites, Aching and Swelling Feet. A spoonful of Cocoonide in the footbath gives instant relief. Get a 2c box at any drug store.—Advertisement.

Norfolk Citizens Vote Down Commission

NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The commission plan of government was beaten by two votes in a special election here today. Advocates of the plan attributed the defeat to the fear that a ring would get control of the city government. The vote was 256 against, 254 for.
