In spite of their reputation for joility—fat people are inclined to be pesviah.

And now you're 'peeved' at Bob and filled with se f-pity you write me, rour slim-made alder, for sympathy—and he writes that 'no-body hoves a fat man,' It isn't sympathy you two need—it's advice. And my advice to both of you is get slim. Only a few months ago I wan just as fat as either of you—and just as irritable.

Now, six, dear, forget your 'ground.' Take Marmola Prescription Tablets and start the thinning process today.

Those tablets are just as harmless as the doctor's original Marmola Prescription that made me thin.

Just quit all those exercises, stop disting and take a pleasant little tablet after each meal and at bedtime.
