Chicago Accumulates Wheat, Anticipating Agentine Deterioration.

CORN MART UNDER PRESSURE

Some Dealers in Corn Believe that a Natural Reaction from Long Drawn Out Decline Was Due to Result.

The present large holdings of wheat in the Chicago market was accumulated months ago in the hope that the Argentine wheat crop would deteriorate and show a smaller aggregate at the winding up of the season. The first real bull help from that country was spread before the speculative world yesterday. It consisted of rains and unsettled weather conditions in the harvest sections of the north, while rains were reported as needed in the southern and southwestern sections, with prospects of deterioration in the crop in case of failure of a thorough wetting down within a week's time. There was nothing in the situation abroad save the possible unsettled political situation to help wheat values and when Liverpool was seen to advance sharply and the claim was made that the unfavorable conditions in Argentina was the influence, the entire world became a buyer of wheat, with Chicago short and

Features of the Trading and Closing 1912. Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Belief that peace was near in the Balkans carried wheat down today to the lowest figures on this year's crop. The market closed weak, 1% to 18,61% c under last night. Corn finished '4c off to 1% up, oats 1% lower to a like advance and provisions ranging from 5c decline to a rise of 7½c.

It was an uncertain market in wheat early, but all bull news failed and support gave out. Too much wheat and too little demand rendered a break inevitable when buyers lost confidence that the Turkish trouble would not be quickly settled.

the Turkish trouble would not be quickly settled.
Conflicting reports in regard to the Argentina crop outlook disturbed wheat speculators in the first part of the session. Prices at one stage made a quick rally on account of statements that too much rain had fallen in the province of Buenos Ayres, Heavy receipts northwest of here, however, and a big increase in the world's available supply left the market open to the bears after news came that an armistice had been arranged.

news came that an armistice had been arranged.

Outlade limits reached for May wheat were 12%c and 90%c, with last saies 1%g 1%g net nower, at 50% 200%c.

Active trade and sharp fluctuations developed in corn. The main cause was an unsuccessful attempt to force one of the larger shorts to cover. Small dealers on the bear side suffered severe punishment. May swung between 47%c and 47%c, closing nervous, a shade under last night at 47% 20% 20%c. Cash grades were unsettled. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 56% 20%c. Oats bulged with corn, but the effect was lost, owing to realizing by holders. May sold from 12%c to 32%c. The close, 52%c, showed a net decline of %c. CATTLE—Cattle receipts were quite liberal today, making the total for the two days this week 18.700 head, the largest prevailing in the trade everywhere. This weeks ago and larger tlian a year ago by $5.00 head. Other markets were also verywell supplied, some of them in fact having large receipts. At the same time there has a general feeling of weakness, prevailing in the trade everywhere. This market did not differ from others in that respect, so that the market here on all kirds of cattle opened slow, with the feelink weak, and with buyers holding back apparently awaiting later advices from other points before doing very much business. Thus it was late in the morning before buyers and sellers really got together on a trading basis.

Quotations on Native Cattle—Good to choice beef steers, $1.2508.25; common to fair grades, $1.2509.85; common to fair stockers and feeders, $1.7609. The end the sellers did not feel like making so large at concession and consequently looked for beef steers, $8.5098.85; talr to good tockers shad feeders, $1.7609. The end the sellers did not feel like making so large at concession and consequently looked for beef steers, $8.5098.85; common to fair sockers and feeders, $1.7609. The end the sellers did not feel like making so large at concession and consequently looked for the feeling so together on the sellers did not feel like making so large at concession and consequently looked for the sellers did not feel like making so large at concession and consequently looked for the feeling some some sellers did not feel like making so large at concess

Dry Goods Market. NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—DRY GOODS— The cotton goods market ruled firm with trade of limited volume, owing to the scarcity of spot goods. Wool blankets will soon be opened for fall 1918 and sharp advances are looked for. Yarns ruled steady. Export trade was quiet. Jobbers are doing a very fair trade for this period of the year.
