SUFFRAGE JOINS THE CLASSES

Mrs. Ainley Says Bonds of Sisterhood Will Be Strengthened.

CONVENTION DELEGATES NAMED

Women to Represent the League in the Suffrage Convention in Omaha Next Month Are Selected.

Mrs. Suzanne Sheldon Ainley, who is playing with Miss Ethel Barrymore at the Oplicum this week, addressed the members of the Omaha Political Equality League Thursday evening.

"There is a wider gap in America than in England between the rich and poor women and it is largely due to the fact that American women do not take the interest in the business of their husbands that the English women do.

"Why should not our women go out and speak on the street corners? Is it undignified? Can any woman who believes in Christ and knows the story of His suffering and death on the cross be undignified when she tells what is right? By all means have as many meetings as possible to meet the people and interest them. Have them on the street corners, have them at the lunch rooms of the big factories—and stores where working girls are employed, if they have lunch rooms; if not, have them at the doorways; have them everywhere."

During the first half of the evening a business meeting was held and these delegates and alternates to the state suffrage convention in Omaha December 4, 5 and 6 were elected:

Delegates—Mrs. Draper Smith, Miss Katherine Hughes, Mrs. Fred Carey, Mrs. Mary B. Newton, Dr. Mattie L. Arthur, Mrs. Thomas Creigh, Mrs. C. W. Hayes, Mrs. E. L. Potter, Dr. Abbie Virginia Holmes and Miss Edith Tobitt.

America is Still the Bread Basket for Entire World

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The United States still is the "bread basket" of the world, according to the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, which today issued a report showing that this country is furnishing foodstuffs to other nations at a steadily rising ratio. While the exports of corn and meat fell off sharply, more than 100,000,000 bushels of wheat were sent abroad during the last ten months, as against 82,000,000 bushels during all of the last year.

The heavy wheat exports were offset somewhat by the decline in other farm products. The United States as a provider, however, maintained its position, for the report proceeds:

"While the products of the farm will show but little change in the general export record of 1912, those of the factory show a marked advance, the value of the manufactures exported in the period for which figures are now available exceeding by more than $100,000,000 those of the corresponding months of last year and indicating that the grand total of manufactures exported in the full year of 1912 will considerably exceed $1,000,000,000 and form about one-half the total exports."

Professor Arrested on Perjury Charge

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 22.—Prof. Charles L. Hall of the faculty of the University of Illinois was arrested here today on an indictment charging perjury in connection with an inquiry into the voting of students of the institution at the last election.

James Noon of Everett, Mass., a resident of the Young Men's Christian Association building, and Walter J. Blinn of Chicago, both students, were also arrested on indictments charging illegal voting. Twenty more indictments are to be heard from, and the university community is in a state of great excitement.

Prof. Hall, who is assistant professor of animal husbandry, and a non-lawyer of Rev. C. N. Wilder of Chicago, was a leader in the battle against saloons in Champaign at the last local option election and then made affidavit that a number of university students were legal voters.

Since that time County Judge Spurgin has ruled that many students had no right to vote. The Champaign county grand jury was called to consider the question of illegal voting and Prof. Hall's indictment followed.

A bitter legal battle is to result. An element which seeks to prevent students from voting will seek to land the professor in the penitentiary, while the Civic league of the city of Champaign today raised a fund of $1,000 to defend him and all others indicted. Prof. Hall was released on $1,000 bond furnished by Prof. H. J. Barton. He will be tried at the January term of the circuit court.
