ORDER TO RESTORE RATES

Advance on Grain Shipments to South Effective First of Year.

CHICAGO BEHIND MOVEMENT

Opinion Among Railroad Men Order
Will Not Become Effective—
Omaha - Eastern Route
May Be Diverted.

Although the cancellation of the 154-cent per 100 pounds on wheat from Omaha to New Orleans is published to expire January 1 next and the old rate of 134 cents to be restored, there are numerous railroad freight men who are of the opinion that the order will never go into effect.

Chicago and Minneapolis grain men are behind the movement to secure a restoration of the rate, while on the other hand, Omaha dealers generally are pretty well satisfied with present conditions.

With the New Orleans rate in effect, the Omaha grain men are able to practically duplicate Chicago prices on wheat and go Minneapolis from 1 to 2 cents per bushel better. The opinion prevails with many of the local freight men that the Interstate Commerce commission after the matter is brought to its attention and fully explained, will not only refuse to restore the old Omaha-New Orleans rate on wheat, but will level the Omaha-Chicago rate correspondingly.

The Omaha-Chicago rate on wheat is 12 cents per 100 pounds and this is for a 500-mile haul. The haul to New Orleans is better than 1,500 miles and the representatives of the Omaha-Chicago lines fear that the Interstate Commerce commission, after looking into the matter, will order this rate of 12 cents leveled to correspond with the Omaha-New Orleans rate.

At the Omaha-New Orleans grain carrying the Missouri Pacific that has been doing the bulk of the business is prepared to show by its books that it is and has been making money hauling grain from Omaha to New Orleans at 154 cents per 100 pounds. This being shown railroad men take the position that it is more than likely that the commission will hold that the 12-cent rate from Omaha to Chicago is out of line and unreasonably high.

Hoagland of North Platte Would Be the President Pro Tem

W. V. Hoagland of North Platte, state senator-elect, has just been in Omaha interviewing the senators-elect of Douglas county with a view to making himself president pro tem of the senate. He made his advance on the ground that the western part of the state was entitled to this honor, as it had received few honors in a political way and he felt that he could easily afford to give him this trifling honor. He said H. V. Hoagland of Lincoln, also elected to the senate, was his uncle and he felt sure that he would be strong in Lancaster county for that reason. It is understood he did not get many promises of support from the Douglas county senators, as a few of them would not yet commit themselves, while others are said to have given their promises elsewhere. As for N. P. Dodge of Omaha, he is known to be in favor of Charles L. Saunders of Omaha for president pro tem of the senate, and word comes from out in the state that Senator Dodge is writing letters to senators-elect in the interest of the candidacy of Senator Saunders for the place.

Boss Fanning and Sheriff McShane at Sword Points

Colonel Charles E. Fanning, reputed guardian angel of Sheriff McShane, is peeved at the sheriff and the sheriff returns the compliment, according to close friends of the colonel. Fanning believes the man who tipped off the Wick & Moore raid Monday night acted with the knowledge of McShane. The sheriff believes Fanning was instrumental in raiding Wick & Moore Saturday night when he (the sheriff) was out of the city. That Fanning should assume such an open charge of the sheriff's official duties as to order raids when McShane is out of the city strikes the reform sheriff's self-assurance a telling blow. Colonel Fanning has openly shown his displeasure at his pet official's conduct. He has not minced his words in speaking of the Wick & Moore raid. McShane has been attempting to ignore Colonel Fanning's insinuations and direct assertions. This has pleased those of the colonel's followers who have no great love for the "reform sheriff."

City is Being Sued for Flood Damage

Mrs. Fannie Rasgorshak has brought suit against the city for damages sustained when rain flooded the basement and "practically destroyed the residence." She offers to compromise, saying the damages will be named to the city if her attorney is given a hearing. The council will hear the case Monday. Ignatius J. Dunn, Mrs. Rasgorshak's counsel, in a communication to the city commissioner, said false representations figured in the case. "When Thirty-fifth street, from Davenport to Cass, was graded, the fill in front of Mrs. Rasgorshak's place was fourteen feet," he says. "She was induced to sign the petition to have the street graded and waiving claim of damages to her property by the false representations made to her that the fill in front of her house would be only four feet. In grading the street the city filled a natural drainage or water course, which formerly carried the surface water around and away from the premises, with the result that large volumes of water that fell in the vicinity of her property after the street was graded, was thrown upon her premises, filled the basement of her house with mud and filth, destroyed the foundation and practically destroyed the house. The lower floors were soaked with water and remained so damp that her health is in danger."

Smyth Gives His Views on the Tariff

"I hope when congress considers the tariff it will revise it according to schedule," said C. J. Smyth, in discussing the coming special session. "That is the only way to revise the tariff and do it right. It is the only way to prevent log rolling, which is disastrous to an equitable and satisfactory revision of the tariff." Mr. Smyth said he supposed of course the congressmen in making up the new schedules would make use of the information gathered by the present tariff commission, as well as of any other information at hand. "But," he said, "I do not believe that the information these men have gathered is much more than that possessed by many of the congressmen who have been in the house for twenty or twenty-five years. There are in that body of men many who have studied the tariff question in the most exhaustive manner for the last twenty-five years, and I do not believe that just because a few men have been appointed members of a certain commission that they know much more about tariff than do the men who have made it a life study. I believe that Underwood and other men in congress know as much about the tariff as any member of that commission."

Ak-Sar-Ben May Pay Old Debt on the Den

The debt incurred by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben in remodeling and repairing the den may be paid by the proceeds of the last carnival, thinks J. D. Weaver, the secretary. Gradually the office force at Ak-Sar-Ben headquarters is settling up the bills contracted by the festivities and Secretary Weaver believes accounts will be in condition to make a partial report to the board of governors at the meeting on Monday night. The great number of days in collecting bills and paying various accounts have kept the secretary from completing a full report on the pro-

Join this player-piano club now

Have the player-piano sent home later

¶ We mean by this, that it is not necessary to have your player-piano delivered now, if you join the Orkin Brothers player-piano club now. You can join the club today and have the player-piano delivered next week or next month. You can have it delivered Christmas eve.

COPYRIGHT 1911 BY MARTIN MCCARRICK

You can own one of these player-pianos for 9 dollars the first payment—then 2 dollars a week without interest added

¶ The club price for the Orkin Brothers club player-piano is 395 dollars. There is no interest—no extras of any kind. ¶ The terms are 9 dollars the first payment—then 2 dollars a week without interest added. These player-pianos have never been sold anywhere in the world for less than $550, with terms of $25 down and $15 a month; with interest added at the rate of 6 or 7 per cent. This is the first time, as far as our knowledge goes, that such trustworthy instruments have been offered for sale upon such popular terms as 9 dollars the first payment and 2 dollars a week without interest added. ¶ This club player-piano is a full size upright grand, colonial design, and the player on the inside plays every key on the piano—that is, these club player-pianos are standard 88 note—players—and they play every note on the piano.

The crowning idea of the club—the life assurance feature

FACTS
Orkin Brothers player-pianos have a shifter that compels the music to play perfectly—it compels every note to speak distinctly—it makes the music sheet track perfectly should the paper of the music roll either shrink or expand by weather conditions. Orkin Brothers player-pianos have a motor which works smoothly and prevents all jumping and jerking of the music roll—it is the only motor so far made that compels the music to play in perfect time. Orkin Brothers player-pianos have a solid brass noiseless tracker-bar. In most player-pianos the bellows which produce the power of action are made of rubber. The bellows which produce the power of action in the Orkin Brothers player-pianos are a composition of leather and canvas—they will wear for years. Then there is another point that should have special mention—the tempo lever. This one single device puts the Orkin Brothers club player-piano in a class by itself. It is this little lever, operated by the right hand, that makes a great piano performer out of everyone. Instead of playing mechanically—with the tempo lever you can play like a great pianist. With the tempo lever you can control the time of the music you are playing. With the tempo lever you give your playing every shade the composer intended. Let us suppose there is not another single device on the Orkin Brothers player-piano to make its player mechanism play like the human fingers (there are half a dozen), let us discard them all, save this one alone—the tempo lever—still we would say that this one feature alone places the Orkin Brothers player-piano in a class by itself.

"If the signer of this contract should die during the life thereof, and all weekly payments have been paid when due, the remaining payments will be canceled forthwith, and a receipt in full for the piano turned over to the family of the deceased."

This is a simple statement—without any frills—that covers the whole story, and it is made in writing right in the face of the contract. We want this club to be co-operative and helpful to each and every member in it.

We want the saving to each and every member to be the greatest possible. We want every protection that we can think of to go to all its members. In short, we want this big deal to be a standing advertisement for us as long as we are in business, and this life assurance idea is its crowning feature.

If the head of the family dies—if the bread winner dies—if the source of income is stopped by death—the piano is not lost to the family. The family does not have to work and worry to meet the remaining payments. They are immediately canceled—and a clear "receipt in full" is given to the family of the deceased. Isn't this a comforting and reassuring idea?

The keynote of this whole club proposition is best player-pianos—best price—best terms—best everything.

ORKIN BROTHERS

Formerly The Bennett Co. 16th and Harney Sts., Omaha, Neb.
¶ Chickering, Kurtzman, Ivers & Pond, Auto Pianos and Player Pianos—and Victor Talking Machines

If you want an upright piano without the player attachment join Orkin Brothers piano club

That there can be no misunderstanding, let us again tell that 2 hundred and 57 dollars and 50 cents includes everything the Orkin Brothers piano club member has to pay. In other words, it is the outside price, or the extreme price. The pianos are of the most reliable and trustworthy sort—worth 350 dollars each. To sell them and sell them quickly we planned and organized a gigantic club, a club of 500 members, each and every member to enjoy the same advantages and privileges. We decided to sell the pianos in this way, at 257 dollars and 50 cents each. We arranged to sell them without adding interest to the price asked.

We placed the payments at 5 dollars as the first payment, and 1 dollar and 25 cents a week for the remaining payments. The price ($257.50) includes everything—charging nothing more for any privilege extended members. We agreed to give club members their money back if a 30 days' trial of the piano was unsatisfactory.

We arranged a year's exchange privilege for members, which enables them to exchange their pianos at any time within one year without meaning one penny's loss. We got up a life assurance feature for members, which cancels all payments in the event of the death of a club member.

We figured out a rebate system so that those who want to pay faster than $1.25 a week will profit by it by getting a rebate of 15 cents in cash handed back for each and every week they pay in advance.

Boiling the whole plan right down, we put into the plan every advantage and privilege that would suggest itself to us to make this big inaugural sale an instant success. And it has been. More than one hundred members have joined the club. Cannot we have your application? Can we not at least show you the pianos and go over the whole proposition with you?

Christensen's Hogs Get Him Into Fight

Because Christ Christensen failed to keep up his fences and because his hogs took advantage of that fact and got into the corn fields of Peter Clausen, Christensen got into a peck of trouble, resulting in a black eye and a judgment of $15 besides. He appealed the case to the district court.

The men are neighbors living near Courland Beach. Christensen's hogs destroyed a lot of Clausen's corn in the field and nearly killed a thoroughbred hog belonging to Clausen, according to the complaint filed in the court of Justice Altstadt. October 19 the two men happened to be on the same street car coming to Omaha, when they began a heated discussion on the hog matter.

Clausen after having suffered from the ravages of Christensen's hogs decided to suffer no back talk and straightway struck him squarely in the eye.

Judge Altstadt disposed of both cases while he has both men in court. Clausen was fined $5 and costs for hitting his neighbor in the eye and the judge rendered judgment against Christensen in the sum of $15 for the ravages of his hogs.
